FOREWORD

"Lest we forget, lest we forget"

This annual is published with the most sincere desire that some day in looking back over its pages it will bring to you many pleasant high school remembrances that might have been forgotten were it not for this volume of THE REMINDER.--The Editor

DEDICATION

Her untiring efforts in building a better Jackson County High School have been a constant source of inspiration; her wise council and guidance have led us over many rugged ways; her pure unselfish friendship has rained for her our deepest admiration. Because of these things, We, the members of the Senior Class of this school, in appreciation of all that she has meant to us, dedicate this volume of THE REMINDER to Mrs. Virginia Bishop Browder.

CLASS POEM

"WHEN EARTH'S LAST PICTURE IS PAINTED"

Rudyard Kipling

When Earth's last picture is painted, and the tubes are twisted and dried,
When the oldest colors have faded, and the youngest critic has died,
We shall rest, and, faith, we shall need it--lie down for an aeon or two,
Till the Master of All Good Workmen shall put us to work anew!

And those that were good shall be happy; they shall sit in a golden chair;
They shall splash at a ten-league canvas with brushes of comet's hair;
They shall find real saints to draw from-- Magdalene, Peter, and Paul;
They shall work for an age at a sitting and never be tired at all!

And only the Master shall praise us, and only the Master shall blame;
And no one shall work for money, and no one shall work for fame;
But each for the joy of the working, and each, in his separate star,
Shall draw the Thing as he sees It for the God of things as They are!

Marian Rose Ryan, Poet

CLASS HISTORY

The memory of the succession of happenings which have occurred to this Senior Class of 1936 since we entered Jr. III in 1932 will be treasured by each of us through the succeeding days of our lives.

We were lead through our first year of high school by Ward Proctor, a boy who was to serve in the capacity of president to our class for three years. Among the happenings of importance during that year were the construction of the new Vocational Building and the graduation of the first class in it and the closing of school at the end of three months. A subscription school enabled most of us to complete our year's work. This first year of our inexperience with Mrs. Julian Hodges as our sponsor, passed swiftly, and we entered school in the fall of 1933 as Sophmores. We felt somewhat more important in our first year of senior high school than we had as Junior III's. Again we looked to Ward Proctor as president, and Mrs. Hodges as sponsor, for guidance. As time sped on, school closed again, ending another successful lap of our journey.

September again. And we found ourselves, as Juniors, only one step from our goal. Again Ward took up his faithful duty as class president. It seems that this class must think lots of this football hero to put our ship in charge of his capable hands for three years in succession. With Miss Jean Bradford (to become Mrs. Bob Howland before the end of the year) in charge, we started a new movement in the social activities of our dear old school, and successfully entertained the Seniors of '35 with the Junior-Senior banquet on April 18. On May 14, 1935, the Junior play, "Kicked Out of College", was presented, with Charlie Webb taking the lead and supported by Carolyn Spivey, Blanche McCutchen, Fay McGuffey, Frances Patrick, William Smith, Ward Proctor, Joe Middleton and a number of others. When we parted in the spring of 1935, it was with the realization that when we met again, we would be on the top rung of our ladder of "High School Education."

September 9, 1935. We met again, Seniors at last, with the welcome news that Mrs. I.J. Browder, one of the best loved members of the faculty, was to be our sponsor. When we were first assembled in home room, we looked about us, and discovered that among others dear to us that we had lost during our upward journey were Carolyn Spivey and J.C. Jacobs, leaders among us throughout our school career. They had chosen other schools in which to complete their education. We elected Clyde Harper, President; Marian Bradford, Vice-President; Blanche McCutchen, Secretary; and Ward Proctor, Treasurer of the class. Our class has grown from the smallest in school to one of the largest, having 61 students in it this year. During the year we have lost only one member and gained one, keeping the number the same. The class and school as a whole suffered one misfortune this year, the loss of our Chief Counselor since we first entered high school, Mr. I.J. Browder. He left us to take a higher position, that of state senator. Mr. Browder was very efficiently replaced by Mr. W.R. Riley, who has been all to us that a friend and principal could be. He has helped us over many rocky, difficult places since he took charge.

The Class of '36 has obtained many honors. We have six members of the National Honor Society: Vickey Swaim, Frances Patrick, Mary Jo Raney, Emma Lou Larkin, Jennie Lee Kelley, and Tom Precise; three members of the girls' basketball team: Marian Rose Ryan, Bessie B. Wright, and Ruby Dilbeck; three members of the boys' basketball team: Jack Johnston, J. Selley McGriff, and Charles Simmons; and seven football boys: J. Selley McGriff, Charles Simmons, Joe Middleton, Leonard Precise, Hobson Porter, Tom Precise, and Ward Proctor, one of the co-captains of this year's team.

Our senior class has achieved success in another field, also. We published this year the third volume of the Jackson County High School annual, The Reminder. This is the first volume for the past five years, as no other senior class would attempt such a task.

Our high school days as a whole have been a big success. During our upward struggle we have both gained and lost fellow-classmen. Though always sorry to lose anyone, we were glad to welcome a new member to our fold. May the memory of our teachers, classmates, and class activities be cherished by all and be freshened often by the Reminder.

Mary Jo Raney, Historian

NEWS FLASHES OF THE FUTURE

1946-Tom Precise won presidential election for the United States of America on the ticket of J.C.H.S.; Ward Proctor to succeed to vice-presidency.

Miss Jennie Lee Kelley recently won the Pulitzer prize for her most recent production, "Memories of J.C.H.S."

President of Athletic Association of America, Miss Marian Rose Ryan, to make a visit to Europe soon. She will be accompanied by her chief assistants, Misses Ruby Dilbeck and Bessie B. Wright.

New York's new governor and wife, Mr. Fred McDonald and the former Miss Marian Bradford of Scottsboro, Alabama, to move into governor's mansion in May.

1950-Florida-Representative Evans Kelley and his wife, the former Miss Emma Lou Larkin of Scottsboro, Alabama are spending the winter at their home in Palm Beach.

Washington-Newest lady on the congressional throne, Miss Frances Patrick, a graduate of Jackson County High School in Alabama, and of the University, has put through a new bill for the assistance of colleges in her home state. She was greatly aided by Representatives Hazel McClendon, Hugh Tolleson, and Herman Brandon.

Paris-Newest sports togs and evening dress exhibited by Misses Blanche McCutchen, Sybil Jones, Vickey Swain, and Gussie Kate Ziegler as models in Paris' most fashionable dress shop, "The Paris", owned by an American girl, Mrs. Jack-Johnston, the former Miss Mary Jo Raney.

Berlin-An American man recently took the spotlight as leading scientist in the German world. This was an Alabama man, Mr. Clyde Harper. He was assisted in his recent discovery, to be made public soon, by Mr. William Smith and Miss Mary Evelyn Vaught, from his own town.

Sport Flashes-London-Recent winner of swimming Olympic, Miss Fay McGuffey, of Scottsboro, Alabama, to make appearance at the swimming meet next week. Miss McGuffey was the greatest sensation in speed and form of any contestant in recent olympics.

Notre Dame-Football coach and his three assistants are selected as Europe's greatest. These are Mr. J. Selley McGriff, head coach at Notre Dame, and Mr. Joe Middleton, Mr. Leonard Precise, and Mr. Hobson Porter, all from the United States.

Harvard-United States championship basketball team, coached by Jack Johnston and Charles Simmons, graduates of Jackson County High School are to take a tour in Europe.

Los Angeles-The two Lindsay sisters, Maude and Margaret, recently won the world's championship tennis tournament over the Burton sisters, Winnie and Ruby. All four of these tennis queens are from Scottsboro, Alabama. The girls were entertained with a dinner immediately afterward, given by Misses Mary Florence Morgan, Lily Mae Davis, Louise Shelley, and Nina Reed.

1952-New York-One of the greatest events of the season was the recent musicale given by Misses Ruby and Katherine Russell at which Miss Margaret Meek was guest artist.

Chicago-Two of the leaders in the agricultural world, Mr. Elmer Gattis and Mr. Moody Harris from Alabama, have recently completed work on a new product to be used in building up land. Their work goes hand in hand with a chemical discovery of Mabel Todd and Arnold Johnson which was recently made.

William Smith, Prophet

CLASS WILL

Being mentally unbalanced and our general nature, questionable, we, the Senior Class of the year 1936, state the following wishes as our last will and testament for the disposal of our good habits and fine talent.

To our Alma Mater we leave the honor of having such wonderful personages as graduates.

To the faculty we leave a few sighs of relief that they are through with trying to teach us some fundamental principles of knowledge.

To our parents we leave the hope that the future will bring out the good in us, although they may have wondered if we really did have any within us.

To the Senior II class, we leave all our small tricks of annoying the teachers and the remembrance of magnificent heights our monthly marks reached.

To the Senior I class, we leave the consoling thought that by hard, patient work, they may come to the time when they will be called graduates.

All these things we have left to the classes as a whole. The following are the wishes of each Senior individually pertaining to the disposal of his or her estate at J.C.H.S.:

Charles Simmons bequeaths his habit of being absent from home room period to Puny Lee.

Marian Rose Ryan bequeaths her winning ways with the boys to Louise Proctor.

Margaret Meek no longer has any need for the hope of becoming a spinster, so she passes it on to Jane McCamy.

Jennie Lee Kelley leaves her ability to win contests to Virginia Thompson.

Sybil Jones bequeaths her beauty to Trixie Baty.

Hazel McClendon bequeaths her cherished seat at the cafe to Marie Downey.

Moody Harris wills his ability as an agriculture leader to Potty Brown.

Arnold (Crip) Johnson wills his ability to sing religious songs on the schoolbus to Eulis Taylor.

Frances Patrick leaves her numerous giggles to Marguerite Harrington.

Marion Bradford leaves her ability of catching New York guys to Laura Smith.

Ruby McKinny leaves her reserved seat on the school bus to Bo Phillips.

Mary Florence Morgan leaves to Virginia Jane Stocton, a book on "How To Overcome Eashfulness."

Mary Jo Raney leaves to Mary Gay a split tongue so she can talk to two boys at the same time in Fred's Cafe.

Jack Johnston wills his skating ability to D.I. Durham.

Mabel Todd leaves to Winola Presley an extra box to put her diamond ring in.

Ward Proctor wills his "pretty boy" looks and popularity to Bill McKelvy.

Gussie Kate Ziegler leaves her "broad-mindedness" to Juanita Reed.

Harold Bankston wills his desire to become a lawyer to Hal McKelvy.

Hobson Porter leaves his reserved end of the radiator to Robert Phillips.

Joe Peters leaves his seven year honorary scholastic record to Jim Henry McClendon.

Clyde Harper bequeaths his title as best all-around boy to Ben Kelley.

Ruby Dilbeck leaves her ability to play basketball to Julia Morgan.

Lonnie Gullatt wills his quiet disposition to Kenneth Campbell.

C.A. Wilson leaves his silliness and bright remarks to Elizabeth Patrick.

Joe Middleton leaves his ability to play foot-ball to Ross Eryant.

Fay McGuffey leaves to Mary Johnson the kind of hair-cut that won't become disarranged when on a moonlight picnic with late McClendon.

J. Selly McGriff (with regrets) wills his free doctor bills to Dan Evans.

Mary Evelyn Vaught and Herman Brandon leave their wise cracks for Ruth Airheart.

Elmer Gatt's wills his lofty height to Sam McCutchen.

Blanche McCutchen leaves her like for lawyers to Ruth Harper.

Emma Lou Larkin wills her ability to attract Stevenson guys to Mary Gay.

Vickey Swaim wills to Louise Gentle her broad smile.

Leonard Precise leaves his daily naps to Wayne Jones.

William Smith wills his art in joke telling to James Presley.

Jim Al Hess leaves his gift of oratory to James Middleton.

Tom Precise bequeaths his ability to succeed to Blain Thomas.

James Arnold Johnson wills his ability as a basketball player to Lloyd Money.

Bessie B. Wright wills her good nature to Grace Jacobs.

Hershel Crye wills his knack for tying neckties to Owen Selby.

I, Hugh Tolleson, will a place in my mountain home that is nearest to J. Selly, to Mary Stanley Bridges.

JOKES

William: "What subject are you going to give us tomorrow, Mrs. Jones?"
Mrs. Jones: "Tomorrow, we shall take the life of Robert Louis Stevenson, so come prepared."

James Arnold Johnson: "What kind of glass are glass eyes made of?"
Hugh Tolleson: "Why, looking glass of course."

Frances: "When that elevator fell with you, I suppose all your sins flashed before your eyes?"
Fay: "Well, not all of them. You see I only dropped five stories."

Mary Gay: "Would you put yourself out for me?"
Blaine Thomas: "Certainly."
Mary: "Then shut the door as you go, please."

Mr. Riley: "Did you ever do a good day's work in your life?"
Jeck Johnston: "Do you mean all together or just at one time?"

Marian: "Let's play some tennis."
Blanche: "Can't. The net's broken."
Marian: "Fine. The net's always in the way when I play."

Clyde: "When was beef the highest?"
C. A.: "You dumb thing, when the cow jumped over the moon, of course."

Mr. Couch (in Biology class): "Who knows where dew comes from?"
Mary Stanley: "The earth turns so fast it perspires."

Charlie Webb: "Do you really like conceited men better than others."
Mary Jo: "What others?"

Ruby Thomas: "I see where a man married a girl for money. You wouldn't marry me for money, would you?"
Pony: "Why certainly not dear; I wouldn't marry you for all the money in the world?"

Miss Blair: "Can you speak French as they do in France?"
Louise Shelley: "Were I in France right now I could order a meal in French and get what I want."
Miss Blair: "Impossible. You can't do that even in America."

Miss Chambliss: "Isn't it wonderful how a single policeman can dam the flow of traffic?"
Virginia Thompson: "Yes, Miss Chambliss, but you should hear the bus drivers."

Vickey: "An awful lot of boys are crazy about me."
Hazel: "They must be an awful lot."

Pearl Wilhelm: "I noticed in this morning's paper that Italy and Ethiopia have had another battle?"
Mary Evelyn Vaught: "Really? Was any one hurt?"

Coach O'Brien: "Give me the story of the founding of Rome, Joe."
Joe Peters: "Rome was built at night."
Coach O'Brien: "At night?"
Joe: "Yes, I've always heard that Rome was not built in a day."

Frank Grigg: "She seemed like a sensible girl."
O. P. Davis: "Yes, she wouldn't speak to me either."

Charles Simmons: "I don't know which girl to take to the game."
Joe Middleton: "Why don't you flip a coin?"
Charles: "I did, but it didn't come out right."

Fred McDonald: "Do you keep your cows in a pasture?"
Herman: "Yes, why?"
Fred: "Well, I've always heard that pasteurized milk is the best."

The Girl Reserve Club was organized in 1930. It is an honorary club, open to 20 girls in senior high school who deserve some honor for their outstanding work. In the spring the new members are acknowledged on Tap Day and the initiation and installation services follow. These services occur at twilight and are usually preceded by a tea, where the new officers are presented to the patrons. The club has done many remarkable things. With the proceeds from their Halloween Carnival, they have furnished a club room most attractively, helped buy necessary school equipment, established a scholarship fund and have done a number of small charitable deeds. The members are: Ruth Airheart, Marian Bradford, Mary Gay, Sybil Jones, Grace Jacobs, Jennie Lee Kelley, Emma Lou Parkin, Hazel McClendon, Blanche McCutchen, Fay McGuffey, Jane Moody, Mildred Petty, Frances Patrick, Louise Proctor, Grace Payne, Marian Rose Ryan, Mary Jo Raney, Virginia Stockton, Ruby Thomas, Virginia Thompson.

The Hi-Y Club is an organization of the leading older Christian high school fellows who have as their purpose "to create, maintain, and extend through out the schools and community high standards of Christian character". The emphasis of the Hi-Y Club is upon service activities, with a membership standard of clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean life. Membership is no religious creed but is open to any fellow who subscribes to the purpose and the standards of the organization.

Every year there has been a Glee Club in the Jackson County High School, and each year it has been under a different sponsor, but for the last two years it has had for its sponsor, Miss Frances Blair.

In 1935, the Glee Club was organized under a plan adopted by the Club at the beginning of the year. This plan, which was set up in a Constitution, provided for an unlimited number of members. It also provided for the election of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. The year closed very successfully.

At the beginning of this year, the Glee Club was combined with the Dramatic Club of 1935, which was then sponsored by Mrs. Robert Howland.

After combining with the Dramatic Club, the club adopted the same plan as the year before, and the name of "Dramatic-Glee Club."

The club has built its work around its purpose, the combination of Music and Dramatics.

The Latin Club is making a study of the Roman customs, habits, and dress, as well as a study of the gods and goddesses of ancient Rome. Several interesting talks have been given by members of the club. We are learning several songs in Latin such as "Row, Row, Row, Your Boat", "America" and others. We are going to also learn the Lord's Prayer.

In order to be a member of this club the student must take Latin. There are twenty-nine members, including the sponsor.

The Future Homemakers of Alabama Club was organized in the year of 1934. The local Home Economics Club of J.C.H.S. was re-organized in the year of 1935, and is known as the Jackson County Chapter of the F.H.A. Club.

The object of the club is to foster high ideals for homemaking, to promote vocational home economics in the high schools in Alabama, to help the members to solve more satisfactorily their present home problems through use of home economics instruction, to encourage thrift as a part of a plan for well rounded living, to guide the members in selecting wisely their occupation, to promote scholarship and achievement among students of vocational home economics, to interest the members in well rounded and continuous personal development, to encourage wholesome recreational activities, to interest members in developing hobbies, and to help members working as a group to see that both leadership and following are necessary.

Only second year Home Economics girls are allowed to be active members of the F.H.A. Club. The qualification necessary for election into this club are: to be regularly enrolled in a class in Vocational homemaking, to have definite plans for a satisfactory home project program for the year and to have completed one phase creditably, to have shown personal development during the year, to be passing all subjects, to receive a majority vote of the members present at a regular meeting of the local Chapter of Future Homemakers of Alabama.

The 1935 football team saw one of the most successful seasons that any of the previous teams in the history of J.C.H.S. have ever known. Under the expert supervision of Coaches Hicks and O'Brien the Wildcats went through a tough nine-game schedule with only two defeats.

On November 26 the coaches with sixteen of their Wildcats entrained for Coach Hicks' home town, Pine Bluff, Arkansas, to play their last game of the season on Thanksgiving Day. The Pine Bluff Zebras defeated the Wildcats in a well played game. Both teams exhibited good sportsmanship and played heads-up football. This trip which the Wildcats had looked forward to all through the season, was enjoyed by all of them.

BOYS BASKETBALL TEAM

Coach O'Brien, Manager Lee, and Coach Hicks. Standing: Johnson, Johnston, Thomas, Durham, Evans, McGriff, and Simmons.

The basketball season started with about fifteen boys reporting for the tryout. After two weeks of hard work the following players were picked for the J.C.H.S. squad: McGriff, Johnston, Evans, Thomas, Durham, Simmons, Gay, and Johnson. The basketball season was a great success, the team winning twenty-four games and losing only three. The Eighth District Tournament was held in the J.C.H.S. gym and the Wildcats defeated five of the strongest teams in the district to win the district championship. The following week the Wildcats went to Tuscaloosa to play in the State meet but, being handicapped by sickness, they were defeated by Selma. The boys played great basketball during all the season and defeated some of the strongest teams in the state. We wish Coaches O'Brien and Hicks a championship team next season.

BASEBALL TEAM

The J.C.H.S. Baseball squad, which is few in number, is large in power. The team has not lost a game in five years, although it has only played a few games because the season is so short. The team has met and defeated such strong teams as Bridgeport, Stevenson, Woodville, D.A.R., Dutton, and Pisgah. In Joe Middleton the J.C.H.S. club has one of the best high school pitchers in this section of the state. Middleton has never lost a high school game. The squad consists of the following:

Coaches: Hicks and O'Brien, Pitchers: Middleton and Evans, Catchers: Simmons and Middleton, Infielders: Hodges, Proctor, Thomas, Campbell, Dilbeck, Outfielders: Martin, Tolleson, Thomas, Johnston.
