SENIOR CLASS OF '55

Bridgeport, Alabama

Foreword

As through the years you glance through this book, we hope your enjoyment of reliving your happy school days is equal to the happy times we have had in bringing it to you.

The Editor

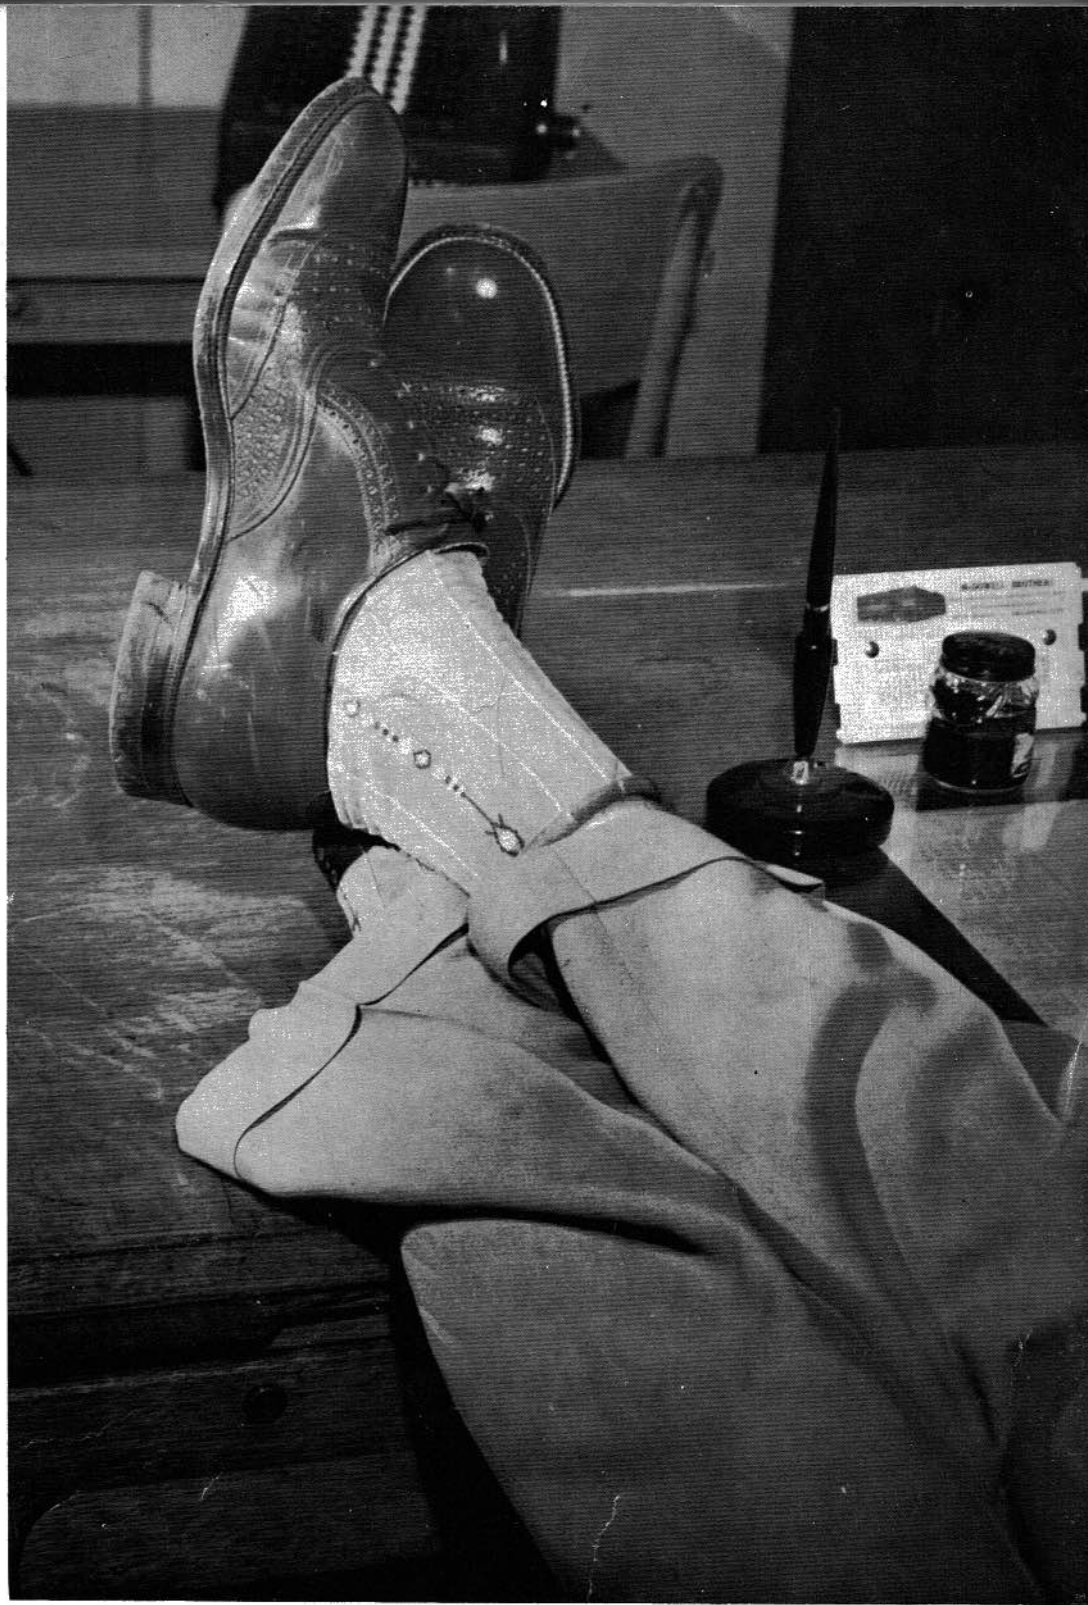

To
Mrs. Lois Keys,
who has inspired us to strive for greater achievements in life, and whose delightful personality has won the love and admiration of the student body--we, the Senior Class, fondly dedicate this 1955 edition
of
MEMORIES.

Principal's Message

This yearbook will bring back memories of the happy experiences we have shared together. As we recall the pleasant association, we shall not forget the untiring efforts of the teachers, the good behavior of the students, and the cooperative attitude which the parents have shown toward our school during the past year. With such a spirit of cooperation we can meet the great demands that are sure to come if tomorrow is to be better than today. The annual staff and sponsor are to be congratulated for the work they have done to give us another fine annual.

IMPORTANCE OF AN EDUCATION

Without adequate education a young person faces a very real handicap throughout life. It is the duty of all who are fortunate enough to have the advantages we, of B.H.S., have to encourage all to avoid this handicap.

SPORTSMANSHIP

Good sportsmanship involves such matters as fair play, courtesy, respectfulness, keen rivalry but careful observance of rules and a generous attitude toward an opponent. It is playing hard to win in a game and losing well if you have to lose.

This is our Senior class
With its members of thirty-eight,
First, there's James Sebring
Who always makes his teachers wait.

Fay Akin is a very nice girl
Her brown hair is always curled.
We know when she finishes school,
She will live by the Golden Rule.

Tall and graceful
With big blue eyes.
Whoever gets Pat Barnes
Will be a lucky guy.

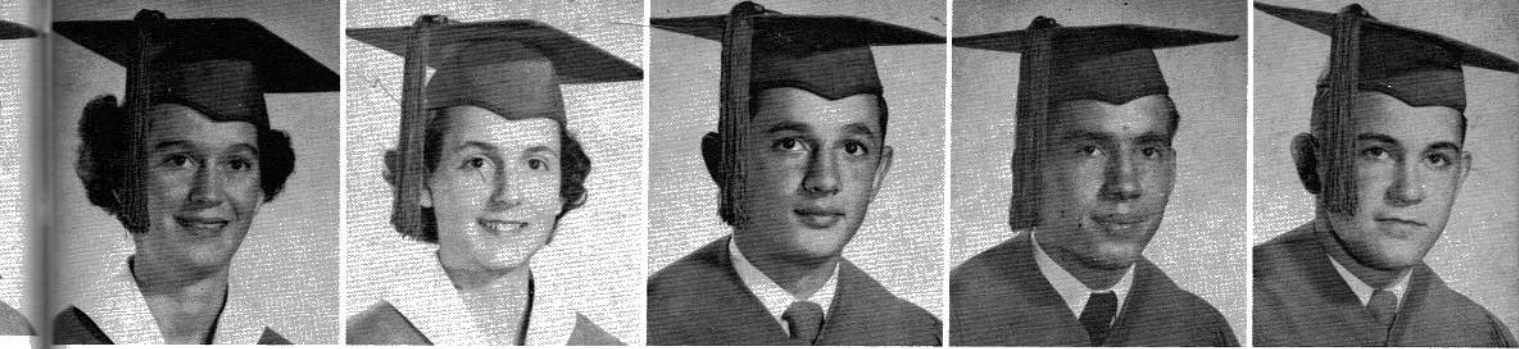

Best all-round is Don "Mac."
And listen, girls, he's cute as can be
He seems to like those Pittsburg girls,
But who it is we'll wait and see.

Short and blond but cute as pie,
She always likes to go.
Every class is blessed with one,
And ours is Reva Rowe.

Betty Davis, nice and friendly
The wittiest of our crowd.
She is F.F.A. Sweetheart -
Of this we're very proud.

J. T. Sanders is always on the road.
At catching girls he's a whiz.
When he gets that Chevrolet load,
He'll be late if there's a quiz.

Lois Rogers, neat and cute,
And easy to remember.
We are proud that
She's a Beta member.

Cute and jolly,
Her friendship you're bound to win.
As you see, Nell Richardson
Is everybody's friend.

Don Helton, very easy going.
We love to see him smile.
To dodge a flirty girl
He'd walk a hundred miles.

Carolyn Smith, she's a peck of fun
If she's where there's a crowd.
To be seen with her little "Pig"
It makes her very proud.

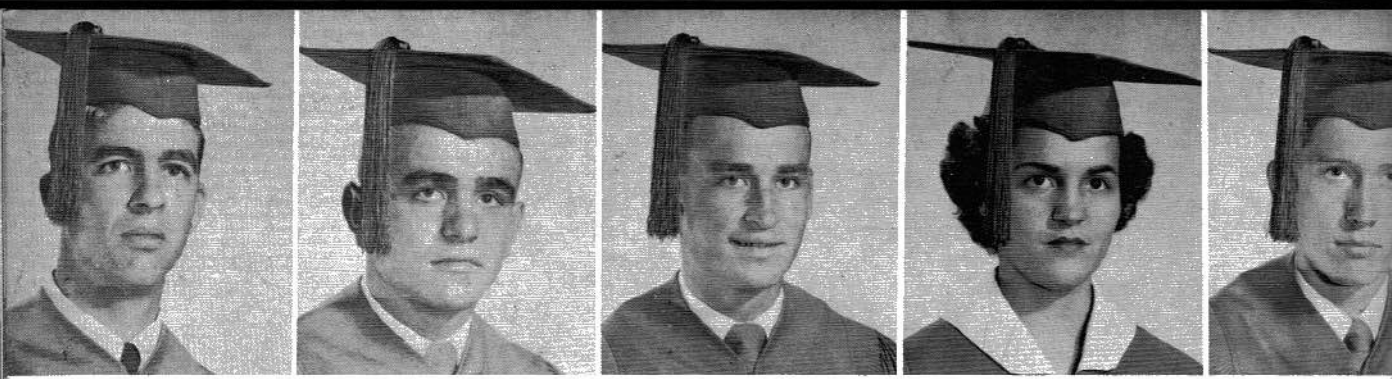

Robert Jackson became another he-man
When he grabbed that ball and away he ran.
He'd rather make history than study it
But with all the girls he makes a hit.

Very well-known for her very sweet ways
Who is never absent from school a day,
She is always there when they open the door -
Why this just fits Willie Ruth Moore.

And then there's Barbara Jo Nowlin,
Boy - ain't she a pill?
She was Miss B.H.S. and other things too.
But settle down - she never will.

As a football player
He really gets about.
A personality like Jimmy Hill's
We just couldn't do without.

Another Miss is Karen Cooper
She is very well-known in our school
The boy who finally gets her to say "yes",
Will certainly be no fool.

Joyce Ridley
Really has dimples.
She's also sweet
And sorta simple.

Harold Matthews, a friendly chap
who's really on the beam.
Next football season
He'll be yelling for the team.

Long, blond hair, and big blue eyes,
That's Mary Bell Smith to a "T"
She's always writing letters to him
And why they don't marry I can't see.

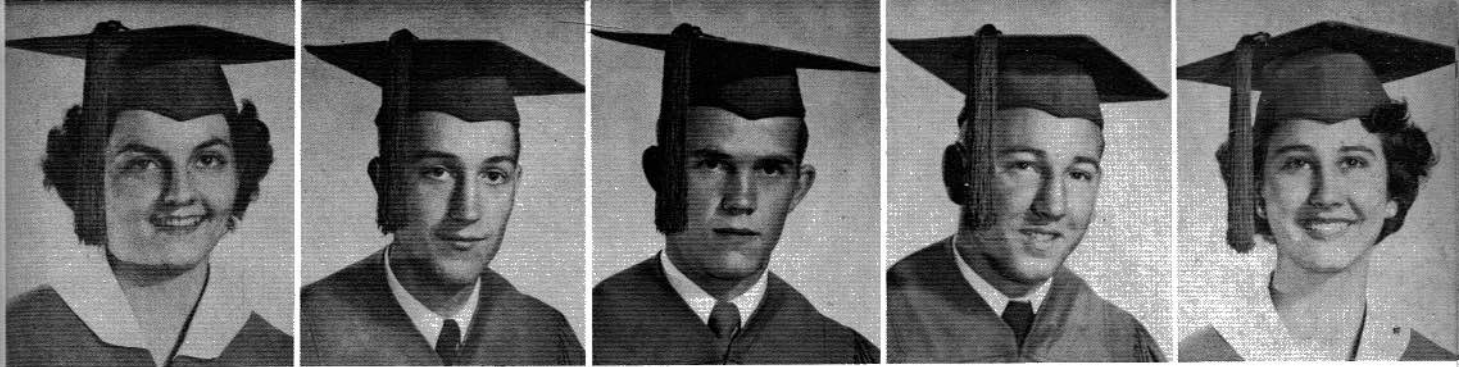

Elizabeth Raulston is the athletic type.
She can knock a ball a mile.
But when that certain boy comes round,
You can always see her smile.

Edward Kindred is kinda quiet
And a mischievous lad,
But a better friend
Just can't be had.

Virginia Smith just never feels better
When from John she's just had a long letter
She's always fun no matter where
It seems she has not a care.

Our Blue and Gold Editor is one more mess
Just has to get that paper to press
But really she's very sweet
Bobbie Jean Pylant just can't be beat.

Cobb Hall, little and mean
And not a bit stupid,
When he is around girls
He likes playing cupid.

Mary King a top-notch cheerleader
With a figure fine,
A nicer girl
You'll never find.

Leonard Colvin is really the "It"
Football captain and Mr. B.H.S.
He's very shy and knows his manners
To him girls are just a pest.

Nice-mannered and cute
With pretty blond curls,
We find Shirley Nowlin
A wonderful girl.

Short and cute is Bonnie White
She was voted best all-round
We're sure she'll make a good housewife
Because she'll have John around.

Jo-Ann Lyda
Is never idle
She always has work to do
She's very dependable too.

Jimmy Lawhorn, a tall lad
And better known as "Bones",
He'll sure be glad
When this year is gone.

Leathia Crawford is one of our best singers.
She's very pretty too
And one of the dignified seniors
She's always dependable too.

James Mason, brains of the class
And dependable, too,
We think he'll be
President in '82.

Billy Hughes dark and mysterious
And a handsome boy,
If he would say just one word
It would fill us with joy.

Mary Matthews sweet and quiet,
She's got what it takes,
And we love her for
Her pleasing traits.

A really nice girl,
And always neat,
A girl like Martha Willis
Is hard to beat.

The girl who can always get a date
So happens to be Norma Saddler.
She has more than you can count on your toes
I'm telling you now that is so.

Mildred Sparkman a whole lots sweet,
A little bit mean,
A gay personality
Made her football queen.

I, Fannie Mae Smith
Am going to end this
By wishing all
The seniors SUCCESS.

We, the Senior Class of 1955 of Bridgeport High School, being of sound mind and intelligent training, having enjoyed our many years of school together, and having grown to love Dear "Ole" B.H.S. faculty and fellow classmates, do hereby make and publish this, our last will and testament.

First, we leave to the faculty, not only the present teachers, but to the many teachers who are not now at B.H.S. that had a part in our training, and whom we love, our many thanks and appreciation for their patience and help during our school years.

Second, we leave to all underclassmen the desire to become Seniors.

Third, we leave to the entire Junior class our prestige, dignity, privileges, and conceit.

And now the Seniors of 1955 will to the Seniors of 1956 a few of their many desirable traits.

Robert Jackson and Leonard Colvin will their ability to play football to "Babe" Rorex.

Shirley Nowlin leaves her habit of blushing to Frances McDowell.

Pat Barnes and Norma Saddler will to Sara Nell Arendale and Deanna Brown their everlasting friendship.

Billy Joe Hughes imparts his love for "SPIRITS" to Junior Atkins.

Carolyn Smith leaves her cheerleading ability to Alberta Abbott.

Willie Ruth Moore, Fay Akin, and Edward Kindred bestow their quiet dispositions upon Nancy Blevins and Frank Long.

Leathia Crawford leaves her speaking ability to Jo-Ann Lawson.

Mary King, Karen Cooper, and Bobbie Jean Pylant leave their love for one man to Pat Tanner.

Betty Jean Davis wills her witty ways to Charles Bynum.

Mary Ruth Matthews bestows her singing ability upon Carman Whitcher.

Cobb Hall leaves his habit of playing cupid to Charles Grider.

Nell Richardson wills her delightful disposition to Novella Hollis.

J. T. Sanders and Jimmy Hill wish to leave with Charles H. Mason and Edward Smith their ability to make all girls swoon.

Don Matthews bestows his happy-go-lucky personality upon Rex Knighting.

Mary Bell Smith leaves to Frances Coffman her will-power to keep long hair.

Jo-Ann Lyda, Fannie Mae Smith, and James Mason will their hard-working ability to Linda Lou Vinson and Agatha Raulston.

Reva Rowe and Lois Rogers will their ambition to work on their State Degree to Betty Maynor.

Elizabeth Raulston, Joyce Ridley, and Martha Ann Willis, will their place as "The Three Stooges" to Jerry Walker, Lynn Wynne, and Gordon Sebring.

Barbara Nowlin leaves her Changeable disposition to Ann Cureton.

James Sebring leaves his ability to get out of class to anyone lucky enough to get it.

Jimmy Lawhorn wills his nickname "BONEY" to Howard Allison.

Mildred Sparkman leaves her privileges of being baby of the class to Hodge Raulston.

Virginia Smith wishes to pass her curly hair on to Barbara Burrows.

Bonnie White leaves to Charles "Buddy" Mason her habit of passing out chewing gum during class.

There were times we thought we wouldn't.

But we finally got it done.

It took a lot of effort,

But we had a lot of fun.

Here it is . . . we hope you like it ! ! !
