Mrs. Katherine Riggs

To one who has long deserved the honor, we wish to dedicate Tiger MEMORIES. It is but an humble effort to show our appreciation for her many years of hard work and leadership.

Never before has there been anyone who was more worthy than Mrs. Katherine Riggs, and we only wish that there were something even greater that we could do to express our heartfelt thanks to her for helping make us a better and more outstanding citizen.

A black and white photograph of two graduates in caps and gowns, seen from behind. They are standing in a room with wood-paneled walls. The graduate on the left is smaller, and the one on the right is larger. Both are wearing dark gowns and mortarboard caps. The lighting is soft, and the overall tone is formal and commemorative.

During the past years at B. H. S. the 1960 Seniors have entered into many activities. We feel that these honors should be preserved as COURT RE-CORDS.

Senior Class Poem

As the clouds roll by and the sun shines down
On the colorful land of Dixie,
The people will always remember "us "
The magnificent class of '60

First is our President, Richard Abbott
He is better known as "Snabbit,"
When he stands up in front of us,
All you can hear is, "All right, Hush!"

Mary Ann Moore is the artist of our class.
Or as a trumpet player also she will pass,
A more talented girl you'll never find,
But, alas, Roosevelt is always on her mind.

The beauty who heads our band,
Would be a catch for any man.
But I'll bet there's one certain guy,
Who always catches Sandra Scissom's eye.

"Ring on her finger, man on her mind,"
This fits Lois Seale any ole time.
With hair of black and eyes of brown,
She is really our girl about town.

Most Studious of the senior's clan
Is next-door neighbor to prehistoric man.
Along with being a member of Who's Who,
Dava Raulston is so very nice, too.

There is a saying, "Little but Loud;"
This just fits Beatrice McCloud.
We are all hep to Jackie's little game
He's trying to make her change her name.

The wittiest of our game is Bobby Lee;
A lawyer he is trying to be.
This is enough but there's one thing more
He's also editor of the Tiger's Roar.

Kenneth Burrows is a very quiet lad,
But he's always happy and never sad.
You'll never know when he's around,
Because he's silent and never makes a sound

One of our seniors, small and petite,
Has now left us an empty seat.
She has married her love, true.
Brenda Kemp, we surely miss you.

John O'Linger is our River Rat,
And he is a real cool cat.
They say there's one in every crowd,
And of ours we are mighty proud.

Burch Couch as a dancer is snazzy,
His antics are certainly very jazzy.
Although his real name is Ellis Einsel III,
We accept this fact without saying a word.

Howard Blevins is our preacher's son.
He always seems to be on the run.
His friends know him better as Pete,
A nicer guy you'd never want to meet.

In our group is an average guy.
Charles McCrary is his name.
No matter how many years go by,
He will always remain the same.

Our Most Popular girl is really a mess.
This is Jane Brown as you might guess.
She is everywhere and does everything.
Wherever she is, things really swing.

Carolyn Peoples is our head cheerleader;
If you don't know 'er, you oughta meet 'er.
She is everyone's friend and so...
She will go far in life, I know

One girl is always ready with a smile,
Dorothy Burton would suit anyone's style.
At sports she is quite a whiz,
But with Larry she is definitely his.

Co-Captain of our Tigers is Benny Hill.
He really gives our opponents a spill.
He'll be on the field, sunshine or rain
For he's the senior's only "Birdbrain."

Long and lean is Bobby Wells,
"Horsey" raises pigs which he sells,
He always has the last word spoken,
But it seems his fingers are always broken.

Patsy Burnette likes lots of noise,
She also has a yen for Stevenson Boys.
You'll see her here, you'll see her there;
She is the girl with the long golden hair.

Our best Dressed is Frances Steele.
Her enthusiasm for life is active and real.
If you were around her you would see, too.
Why we know, as a friend, she is true-blue.

Billy Steele is our Most Popular boy,
He makes all our lives full of joy.
Anybody can see he's no fool,
But he'll sure be glad to get out of school.

Next in the senior's little ditty,
Is Beulah Pelham, who's always so witty.
When you hear a giggle and turn around,
Beulah's right there or nearby can be found.

When you see that white uniform flash by,
It's Laura Crownover that catches your eye.
One thing that helps her a good nurse to be,
Is her rewarding title, "Best Personality."

Frances Sebring is a good ole gal.
She is our friend and she is our pal.
On our annual she works constantly.
I don't see how she does it, for the life of me.

Kenneth Samples first leaves and then he returns.
I wonder for which place he actually yearns.
We hope it's for us and he plans to stay.
'Cause he makes us bright any day.

Short and jolly is Glenda Coffman,
At football games she is seen often,
When she starts to laugh you'd better watch out.
If you stay around her, you'll want to shout.

W.M. Randolph is Most Athletic boy,
Just having him around is certainly a joy.
When a girl from Stevenson gives him a call,
He's there ready and waiting, always on the ball.

Cute and short is Jimmy Dean,
With one certain girl he is always seen,
He may not play with the San Francisco Dodgers,
But he surely makes a hit with Sandra Rogers.

Very well known for her sweet ways,
Emily Mashburn will remember her school days,
We're sure you'll make a good wife,
And put lots of joy into Don's life.

Had Flavil Wear lived when knights were in flower,
No doubt he would have rescued some girl from a tower.
So gallant a guy, he's always so nice.
I wonder if he will ever see any shoes or rice?

Dicky McMillan at the drive-in can be found.
If he is not there, he's that way bound.
Life is just a bowl of cherries for him,
Because he's always full of vigor and vim.

Larry Cain is a real nice kid,
But in typing he's always flipping his lid.
We'll never know how he manages to pass,
Because he's always and forever late for class.

Girls like Veda Warren are rare.
If you are thinking of stealing her, don't you dare!
We know she'll go far in life,
She'll probably make somebody a very good wife.

Molly Burton is the Co-Captain of the band.
She would be glad to give anyone a hand.
Her favorite food is steak and gravy.
I wonder if she will ever have that in the Navy?

Jackie Jones is next in our line.
He can really play that saxophone fine.
Right now he is reigning as Mr. B.H.S.
And he has earned "Best All Around", you'll have to confess.

Billy Denton is our "Most Likely to Succeed."
And he's a great football player, indeed.
Although he's from Stevenson, in Bridgeport he is living.
I sure feel sorry for him come Thanksgiving.

Thomas Click is our most handsome man,
He'll make the world a better place if he can.
An active member of the F.F.A.
He likes farming more than girls any old day.

Elizabeth Keys, better known as Liz,
Is the one and only senior Whiz.
She really earned her "Best All Around" title,
For she is always busy and never idle.

Wayne is just one of our many Steeles.
He's always around whenever there are meals.
Just one of his hobbies is eating.
The main one is girl's he's always meeting.

Wanda Headrick has beautiful red hair.
She and Truman made a perfect pair.
She is very quiet and never says a word;
Most always she is seen and hardly every heard.

Sandra Rogers is not very shy.
Especially when it comes to that certain guy.
She's always bright and shining as a rose.
When she gets that Chevy full, off she goes.

Charles Bass is a Country lad.
He's one of the finest fellows we've ever had.
His deeds are many and his words are few.
Charles, we need more like you.

James Steele is not least, but last,
His school days are almost past.
When he plays football he's really on the beam.
But next year he'll be watching the team.

These are our seniors, forty-three,
Except that is of course for me,
I have but one other thing to do,
And that you might try to guess.
To wish all the seniors, as you might, too.
A geat big word-----SUCCESS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Class Prophecy

As I gaze wistfully into the future I see the 1960 seniors 20 years from now.

Billy Denton is now the President of the United States. He really lived up to his title of "Most Likely to Succeed."

Richard Abbott is now a retired millionaire. I always knew his banking job for the school would do things for him.

Dava Raulston liked school so well that she went on to college and now she is one of the leading teachers at dear old B. H. S. She is so well-liked by the students that they dedicated the 1980 annual to her.

Benny Hill is world famous as a professional football player. In his spare time he is manager of Texaco Stations throughout the United States.

Dorothy Burton, our "Most Athletic" is the first lady coach of the Dodgers. They have been winners of the World Series for fourteen years.

Bobby Wells has one of the largest pig farms in Alabama. He still likes to raise and sell prize pigs.

Carolyn Peoples is seen on television quite often these days modeling the latest fashions. When our class elected her "Prettiest", we never thought she would make her living by just being pretty.

Elizabeth Keys was the first lady governor of Alabama, but she was recently arrested for counterfeiting.

Jeanne Rogers is working out of Washington on a very confidential case for the F. B. I. I never thought she would turn against Liz.

W. M. Randolph, our "Most Athletic" is now coaching our football team. They have been undefeated for several years.

Larry Cain is now in the Air Force. He was the first man to reach the moon.

Kenneth Burrows is now one of the panelists on the television show "Keep Talking." And he used to be so quiet!!

Flavil Wear started out as a pharmacist but after a lot of research he discovered a cure for the cold. Now he is a very famous doctor and scientist.

Howard Blevins followed his father's footsteps and now is a preacher.

Butch Couch has finally stopped studying history. He is now history instructor at Yale.

Jackie Jones now owns his own advertising agency in New York.

Charles Bass is now Bridgeport's agriculture teacher.

Laura Crownover is one of the most famous nurses in the world. She certainly is a credit to our school.

Jane Brown, the Benny Goodman of the South, is now touring the world with her band.

Beulah Pelham has just moved into her newly built home. I always knew "he" would bring her security as well as happiness.

Frances Sebring loved our school and office work so well that she became principal.

Mary Ann Moore went to work for a large concern in New York.

Jimmy Dean, one of the more successful of our class, is now what he always wanted to be--a bum.

Dickey McMillian now owns his own chain of drive-in theatres all through the South. I never thought that just working at a drive-in would bring him such prosperity.

Brenda Kemp married and settled down.

Wayne Steele is now working for his "Uncle Sam": I never thought he would show favoritism in his uncles.

Bobby Lee is now a famous lawyer. The sign on his office reads Le, Lee, Grant and Lee.

Veda Warren is really kept busy these days. She is manager of the local branch of Penny's.

Bill Steele lived up to his title of "Most Popular." He is starring in a big Broadway production.

John Olinger is secretary to the undersecretary to the Secretary of the United States. He always did have big ambitions.

Wanda Headrick now has a full time job, keeping house.

Glenda Coffman has taken Carol Burnette's place on television. She always was a comedienne.

Charles McCrary is a four-star general in the United States Marines. He can really boss people around now.

Sandra Rogers is now a very famous interior decorator. Just last year she redecorated the White House.

Beatrice McCloud is now Vice-President of the Jones Chemical Plant here in Bridgeport.

Thomas Click liked agriculture so well that he recently purchased the King's Ranch in Texas, the largest in the world.

Molly Burton lived up to her title, "Flirtiest." After graduation she joined the army.

Kenneth Samples studied science and discovered a way of growing filter cigarettes on a vine.

Remembering Patsy Burnette's love of bookkeeping, we all understand how she obtained her position as bookkeeper of the Winston-Salem Company here in Bridgeport.

Sandra Scissom is now with the Trans-World Airlines. She is our best-known hostess.

Emily Mashburn married right after graduation. She works part time as a secretary.

And I see myself, Mary Frances Steele, as a very famous word traveler... Suddenly I realized something strange was going on. Then my teacher told me to quit daydreaming and start studying.

Prophetess, Mary Frances Steele

Graduating. At LAST

Aw, yes, thank heavens!

Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of nineteen-hundred-ixty of Bridgeport High School, being of sound mind and excellent training, having enjoyed twelve years of school together (and some of us more), and having grown to love Dear Ole B. H. S., faculty, and fellow classmates, do hereby bequeath the following:

To the faculty, both present and past, we have learned to love you, and we leave to you our thanks from the bottom of our hearts for your patience, understanding, confidence, and the endless service you have rendered. We leave you a promise for which we hope we can stand good; namely, we seniors will live up to your every expectation and wish. We shall strive not to disappoint you.

To all underclassmen, we leave the desire to become Seniors.

And now to the Seniors of nineteen-hundred-sixty-one, the seniors of nineteen-hundred-sixty leave a few of their many desirable and some of their undesirable traits.

To the entire Junior Class we leave our prestige, dignity, privileges, and conceit.

Sandra Rogers and Jimmy Dean leave their title of "Cutest Couple" to Helen White and Jimmy Rowland

Howard "Pete" Blevins leaves his sly-as-a-fox ways to Tommy Ragan and William Maynor.

Richard Abbott leaves his conceited happy-go-lucky disposition to Jimmy Denton.

Wanda Headrick leaves to Frances Lawson her love for diamond rings.

Brenda Kemp and Beatrice McCloud will to Reva Coburn and J. B. Payne the right to go steady.

Frances Sebring wills to Freeda Henegar the ability to get out of all classes without the use of passes and says good luck.

Elizabeth Keys leaves her naturally curly hair to James Earl Prince.

Carolyn Peoples wills her cheerleading ability to Judy Runyan and Cecietta Witt.

Patsy Burnette leaves her pretty smile and blonde hair to Lois Sprong and Brenda Moore.

Jackie Jones wills his black hair and brown eyes to Davis Williams.

Jeanne Rogers wills her impish ways and winning smile to Martha Gunter.

Kenneth Burrows leaves his title of "Quietest" to Barbara Breedlove and Raymond Rorex.

Dorothy Burton and Glenda Coffman leave their "ever loving" giggles to Brenda Smith and Darleen Kirk.

John Olinger leaves to Hazel Olinger and Billy Bynum the right to be absent from school every time the ferry breaks down.

Dickey McMillian leaves his front seat in chemistry class to James Lambert and David Beck.

Charles Bass leaves his loyalty to his school, class, and friends to Clara Janeway and Hugh Randolph.

Bobby Lee leaves his office in the bandroom to Bedford Allison.

James Steele wills his hooky-playing ability to Johnny Jackson and Bill Gothard.

Bobby Wells wills to William Vinson his office as President of FFA.

W. M. Randolph and Wayne Steele leave their football playing ability to John Tant and Bill Payne.

Lois Seale leaves her quiet lady-like ways to Louise Cookston.

Larry Cain leaves to David Henson and Jerry Gothard his mischievous fun-loving ways.
 Thomas Click leaves his blonde hair to Bobby Steele.
 Billy Denton leaves to Gerald Rowland and Wendell Smith his place on the Annual Staff as Sports Editor.
 Benny Hill wills his athletic appearance to Kyle Matthews.
 Beulah Pelham wills her talent to love only one man to Barbara Sexton.
 Butch Couch leaves his adorable dimples to Jerry Moss.
 Flavil Wear leaves his reckless good looks to John Walter Ridley.
 Mary Frances Steele leaves her title of "Best Dressed" to Sara Lanham and Lewis Carlisle.
 Dava Raulston wills to Robert Allison all her mathematical abilities.
 Sandra Scissom leaves her bubbling enthusiasm for life to anyone lucky enough to get it.
 Molly Burton leaves her athletic abilities to Johnny McLemore.
 Charles McCrary just leaves.
 Laura Crownover and Emily Mashburn leave their sweet and charming ways to A... Crabtree.
 Bill Steele happily leaves his ability to irritate all teachers to Nelson Mason and Donald Nowlin.
 Veda Warren leaves her good behavior in English class to Lula Richardson.
 Mary Ann Moore wills her artistic abilities to Joyce Moore.
 Kenneth Samples wills to Terry Hughes his place in bookkeeping class.
 And I, Jane Brown, leave to all the Juniors half the fun that I have had as a Senior and wish all of them luck.
 By the power invested in me by the Senior Class of Nineteen-hundred and sixty, I hereby affix my hand and seal and declare this document legal.
