

HUNDRED & SEVENTY SEVEN

THE TIGER

1977

BUNNY MATTHEWS

A photograph of a forest with tall, slender trees and a wooden fence in the background. The trees are mostly deciduous with green leaves, and the ground is covered in fallen leaves and some green plants. The lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day.

Again
we find
it another
FALL
Again
we walk
through BHS
HALLS.

It's time
once more
for all the
STUDIES,

And to hang around
with all our BUDDIES.

We've shared
laughter;
we've shared
TEARS.

We'll be
each other's friends
throughout the YEARS.

Our footprints
have made
paths on BHS
GROUND
The winds
have carried
our voices all AROUND.

Through the tomorrows
we find agony and DEFEAT.

We share
the joy of victory
and the hurt
of being
BEAT.

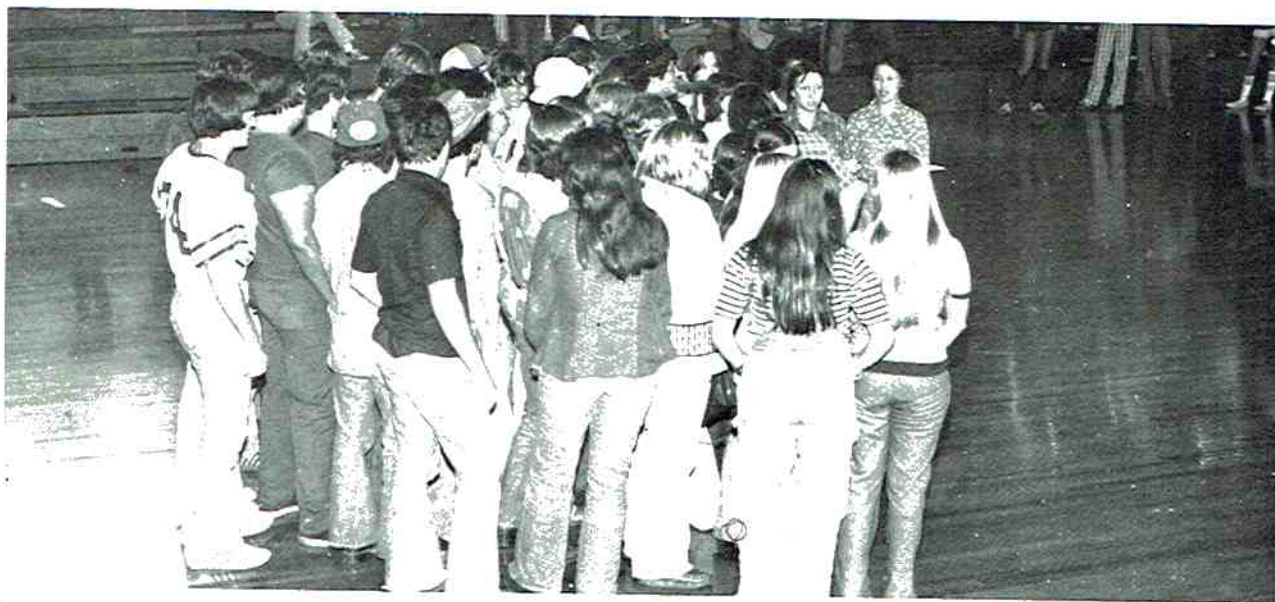

The days
bring us
joy,
tears,
and LAUGHTER

and each day we're closer
to what we are AFTER

We walk around and through the trees and for granted we take, it will always be.
The beauty we share each and every day was brought to us in a special way.
The feel of rain, the sun and blue skies as a promise that a tomorrow will arrive.
We like the soft wind that becomes strong and we're blind to the day we'll leave, alone.
You know soon that we will leave, but only for higher goals to achieve.

SENIORS

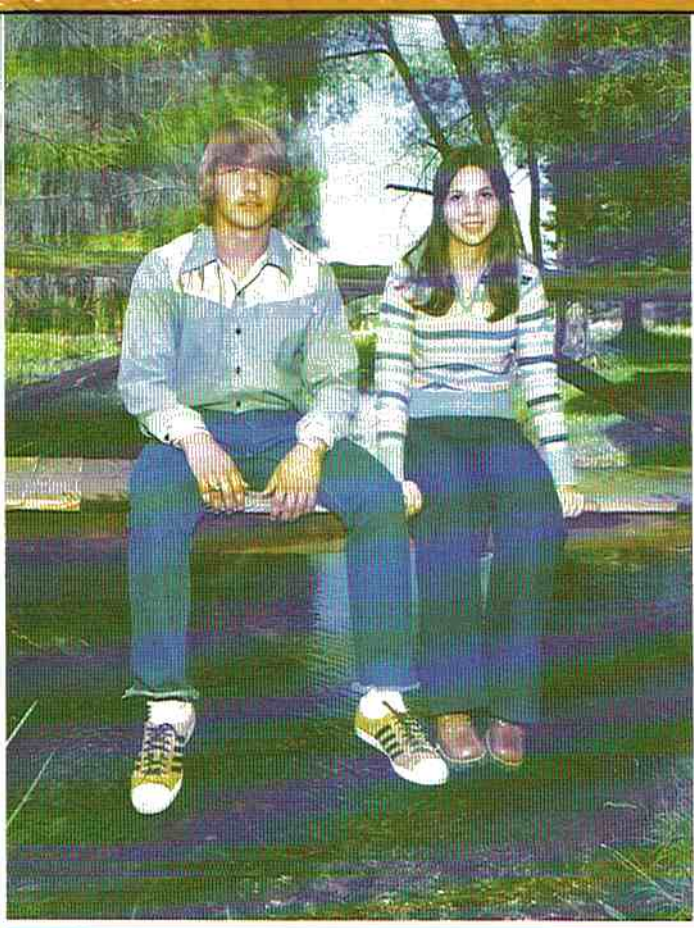

Time is but the stream I go a-fishing in. I drink at it; but while I drink I see the sandy bottom and detect how shallow it is.
Its thin current slides away, but eternity remains.

MR. JAMES A. ROWE

teacher and friend who will long be remembered by
and students of B.H.S.

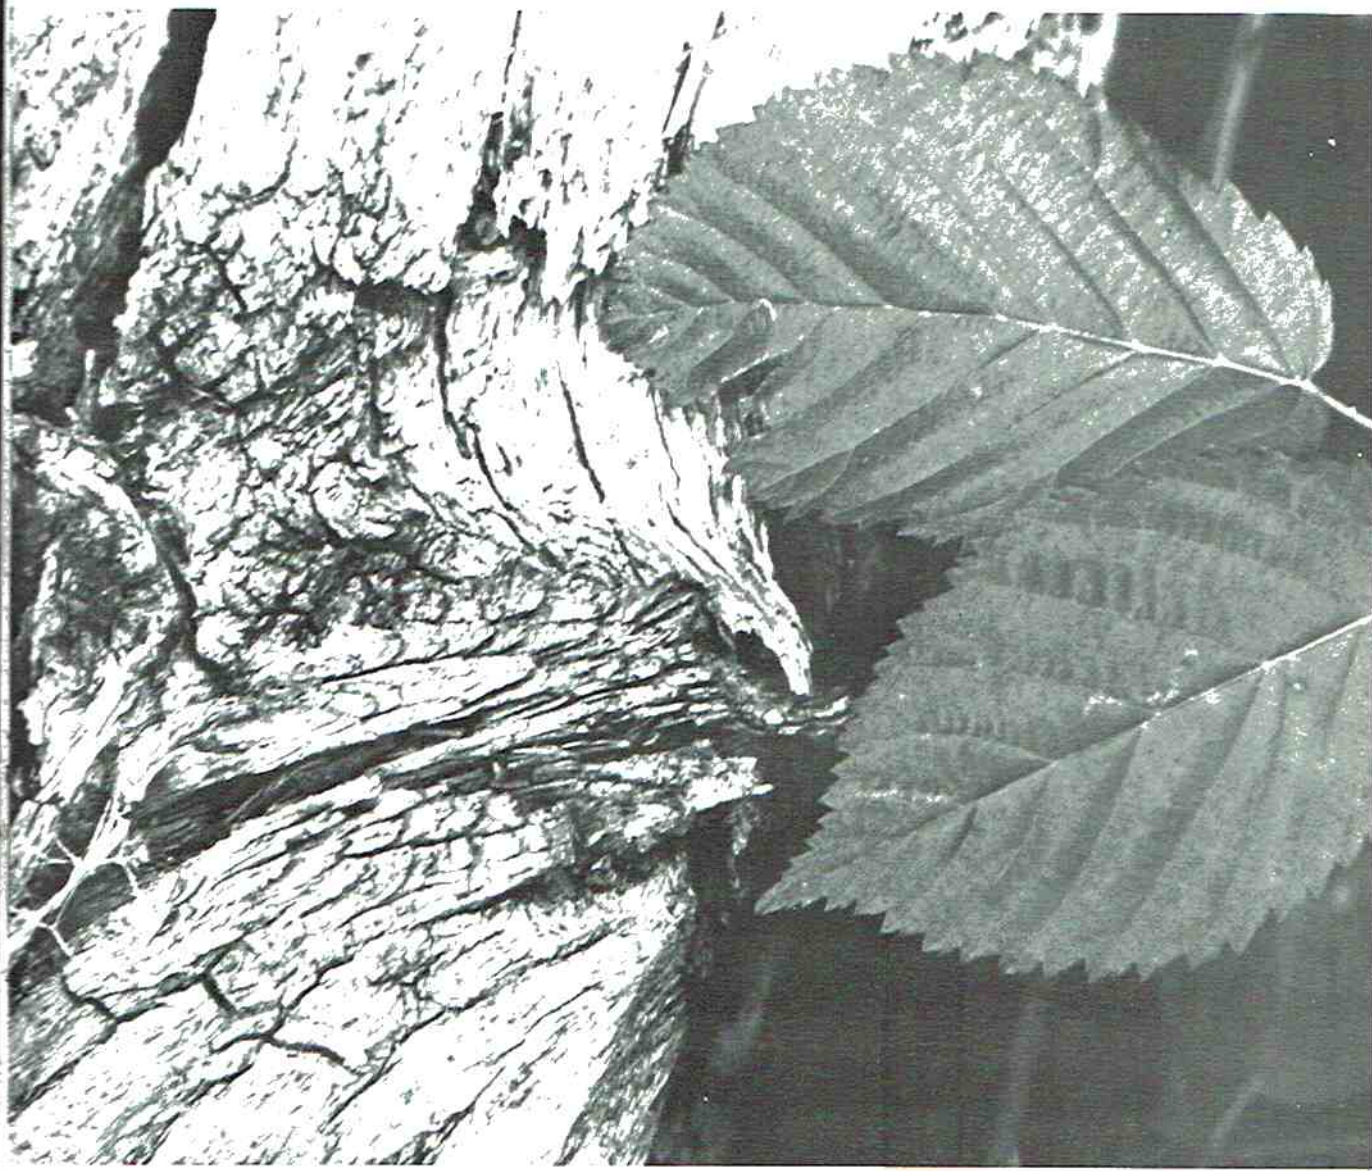

So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night,
Discourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

William Cullen Bryant

Junior Staff

Standing: Art Roper, Guy Millard, Rhonda Potterfield.
Sitting: Gwen Rorex, Paula Westmoreland, Debbie Jackson.

The Student Council is composed of officers and homeroom representatives elected by the student body. Their job is to be the mediators between the students and the faculty. They work toward a better understanding between the two groups.

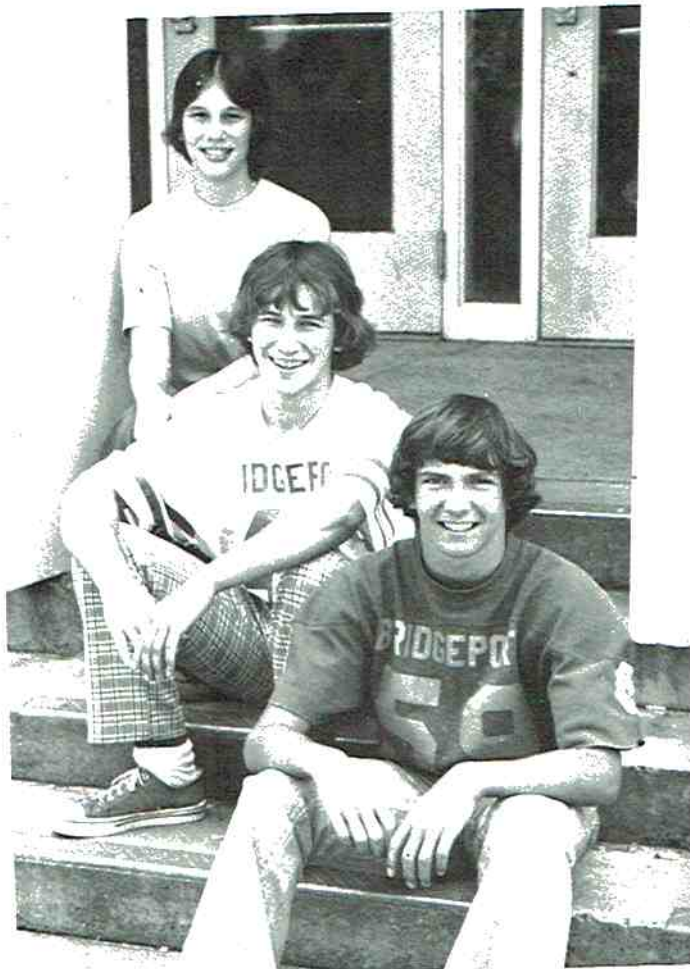

Keeping our school grounds clean and sponsoring the Mr. and Miss BHS coronation are among the projects the Student Council is promoting this year. The Student Council is also initiating several fund-raising projects to help purchase a new P. A. system for the auditorium.

Officers: Sponsor - Coach Ken Storey, President - Buddy Jacobs, Vice-President - Stanley Allison, Secretary-Treasurer - Doug Martin.

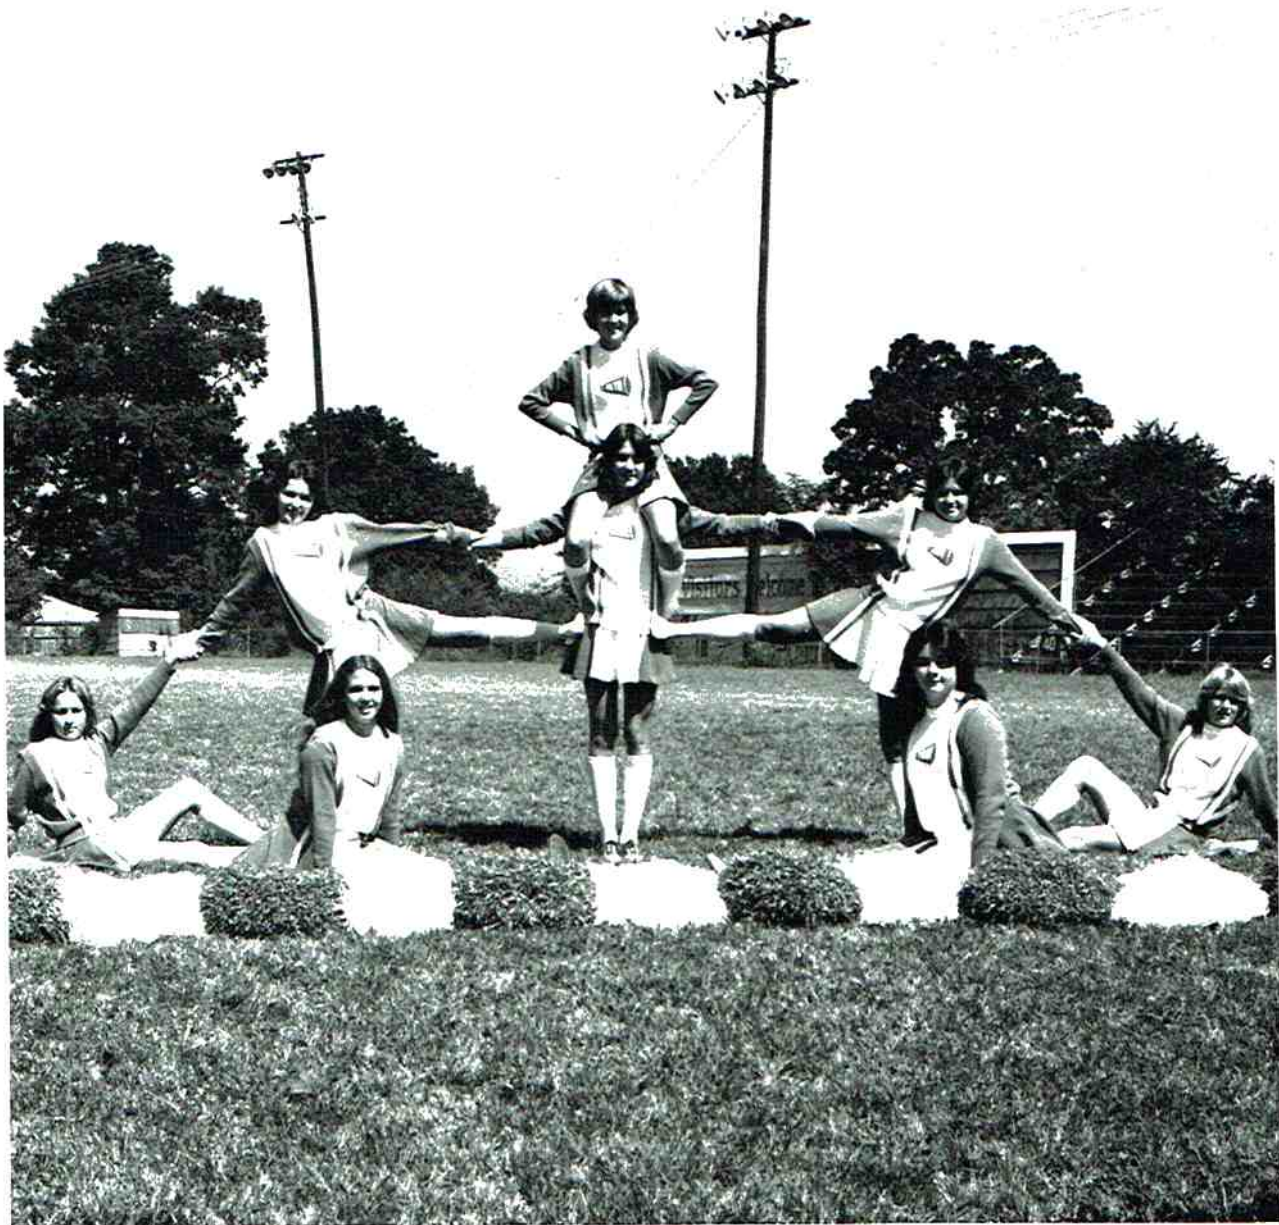

The "B" Club, or Lettermen's Club, is made up of a group of people who have earned a varsity letter. A letter may be earned by playing in a varsity sport, managing a varsity sport, or cheerleading. The people who are eligible to become members of the "B" Club must participate in a tough initiation to obtain membership.

The "B" Club sponsors the initiation, or "rat week" and encourages members to wear their "B" Club sweatshirts and jackets to school. This helps to promote school spirit and pride in individual accomplishments.

The students of the Jackson County Technical school choose courses which will prepare them for several different types of work. Because these students are trained in certain fields they can obtain good jobs after graduation.

The students may participate in club activities while at the school. The Vocational Industrial Club of America emphasizes certain skills while the Distributive Education Club of America teaches students the art of running their own businesses.

The Bridgeport High School cheerleaders kept us fired up with spirit. They worked hard making signs, practicing cheers, and cheering at pep rallies and games.

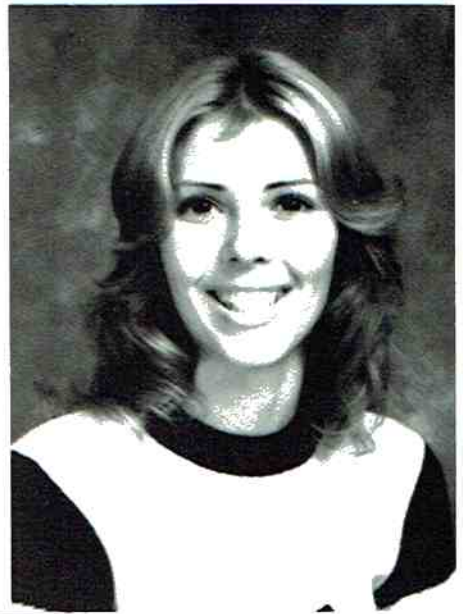

They helped to make the football season a success by cheering the Tigers through seven wins and only three losses.

Keeping BHS spirit alive from beginning to end was their goal during the basketball season.

BHS cheerleaders, we salute you!

The Bridgeport High School Band is an organization within itself. It is made up of 45 members, who put their best effort forward to make the band a success.

The band has great pride in performing the half-time shows at the football games. But the band's work doesn't stop there. During concert season, the band presents several concerts at school. The band also sponsors several money-making projects during the year. The profits go toward buying new instruments.

The band has done an excellent job this year under the direction of their new band director, Larry Adams.

Bridgeport High is proud of their Band of Blue

We've been together many years,
we've shared laughter;
we've shared tears.

We've shared secrets with a friend,
but these moments will never be quite the same again.

We leave with our memories of B.H.S., and we'll always strive
to do our best

For a while we must say "so long"
to all our friends,

'Cause these days at B.H.S.
have come to an end.

AVONDALE CONTINUES A GREAT AMERICAN TRADITION.

Quality, care and concern; they're a way of life at Avondale.

At 17 modern mills across the South, Avondale folks maintain the same high standards on which our company was founded. With an uncompromising pride in every piece of fabric and yarn. A heritage that traces back to Colonial craftsmen. Avondale. The Alabama-based company that hasn't lost the thread of true American workmanship.
