HISTORY

Late in July, 1949 the school bell rang and some tiny feet climbed the steps to Fackler Elementary School.

Miss Berith McCoy was our first grade and second grade teacher. The pupils that are still with us, that entered that year, are Brenda Garner, Jack Holder, Joe Wilkerson, Bill Corbitt, and Gary McGuffy.

The pupils coming in the second grade were Sam and Dan Curtis and Mary Grace Talley.

Third grade teacher was Mrs. Maude Cook. Our fourth grade teacher was Miss Doris Matthews. Our fifth grade teacher was Mrs. Hackworth. Our sixth grade, and last, teacher was Mr. Roy Rorex.

These sixth-year books could not contain all the things we have learned. The yardstick and scales say that we are much bigger. Our report cards say that we made it. Our hearts say that we were happy, and occasionally sad.

This is our history, and so here we stand, bewildered and partly dazed, wondering what the future holds for each of us.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

To the Faculty we will our appreciation and gratitude for their kindness, patience, and understanding.

To the Fifth Grade we will our dignity of being the big boys and girls of our school.

I, Brenda Garner, will my bubble gum to Dianne Wilson and Joyce Dunn.

Dan Curtis wills his red hair to Don Arnold.

Jack Holder wills his cotton-picking boots to Gordon Beavers.

Mary Grace Talley wills her geography book to Christine Matthews and Ann Talley.

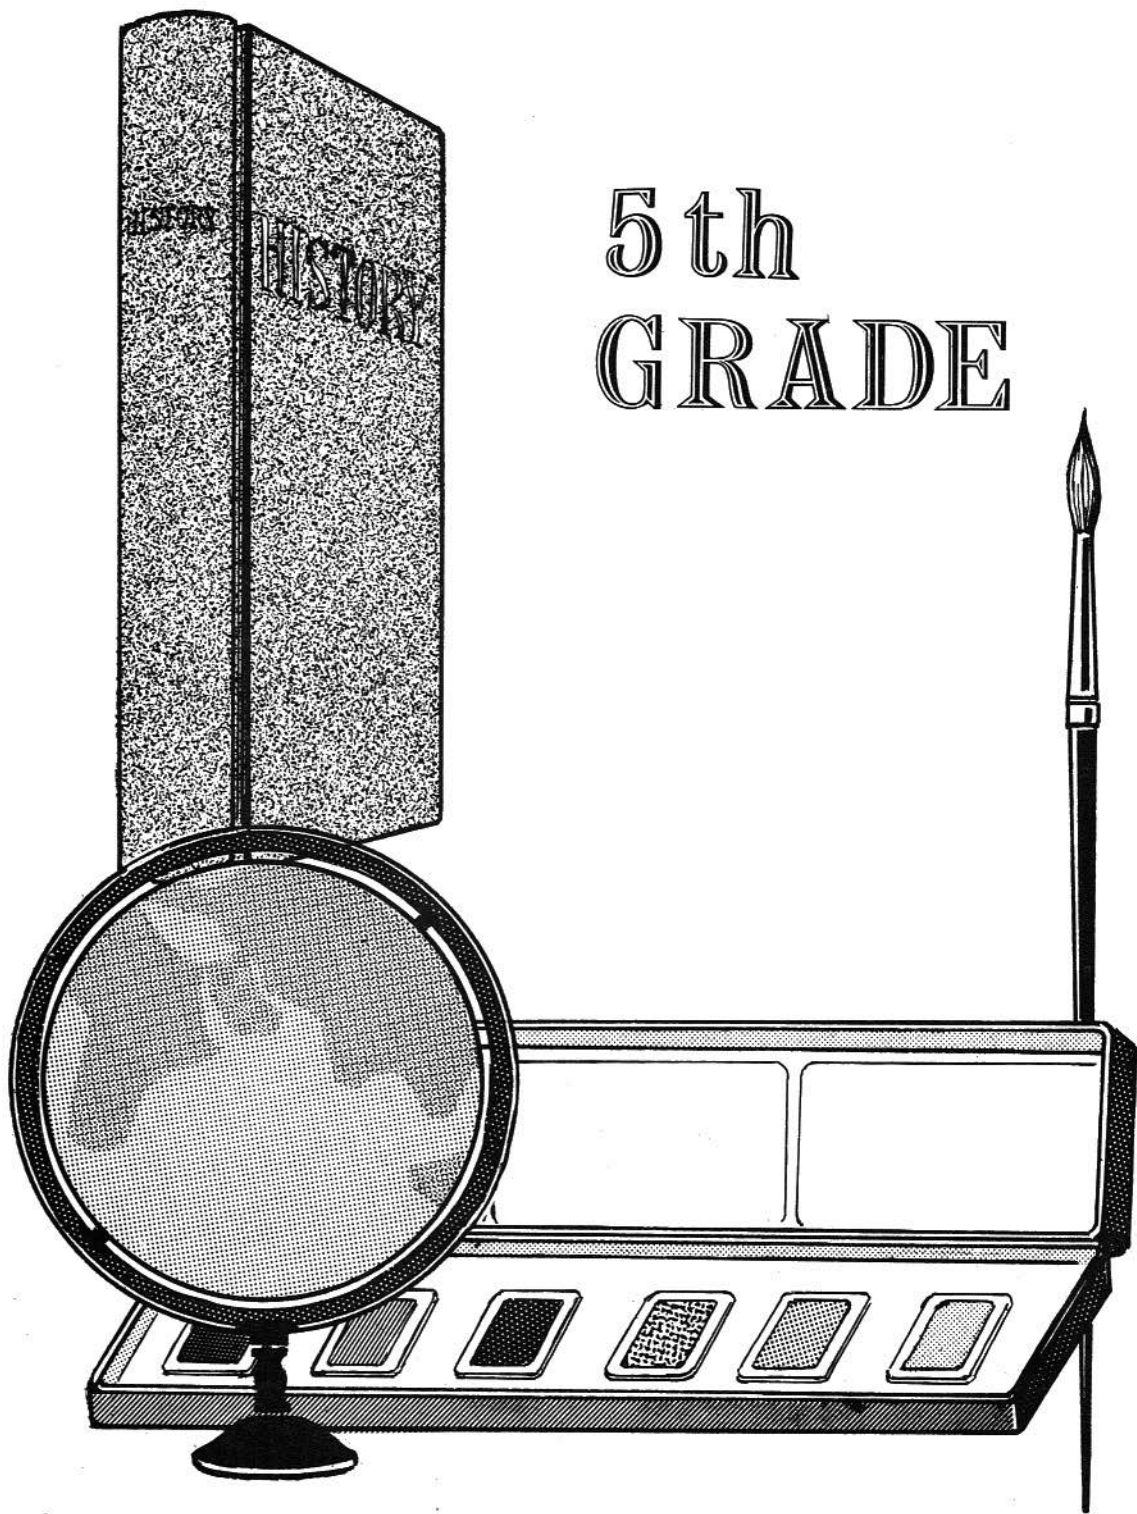

Joe Wilkerson wills his head to Fred Porter.

Sam Curtis wills his bicycle to Johnny Arnold.

Gary McGuffy wills his bologna to Lee Curtis.

Signed and testified this first day of March, year of our Lord, 1956.
