Class History

In the fall of 1945 about 32 eager boys and girls entered the Junior I class of Paint Rock Valley High School. We Junior I's really felt important to be in junior high school. At the beginning of the year we thought we knew more than our teachers, but before the end of the year we were disappointed. The highlight of the year for us was our chance to play basketball. By the time class tournament was over we found that we could be defeated.

As we journeyed on through junior high school many of our classmates moved away and the others all of a sudden caught "The Love Bug Itch" and got hitched.

Different teachers who have sponsored our class are:

Junior I	Miss Mary Sue Toney
Junior II	Mrs. Ada K. Bottoms
Junior III	Miss Ollie Mae Baker
Senior I	Miss Mary Sue Toney
Senior II	Miss Betty Jo Foster
Senior III	Miss Betty Jo Foster

Principals we have had since we have been in high school are:

1945-51	Mr. Q. K. Carter
1951-52	Mr. Ronald P. Hicks

During our Senior year we have gained two classmates, Maggie Louise Marcum and Eva Pearl Maze. Here now are ten of us ready to graduate. Soon our diplomas will be received and we will be on our own after May 16, 1952. We will have left behind many friends and most helpful teachers, but we can face the future with a pleasing smile and pleasant memories.

Senior Mystery Bag

As we look into the "Senior Mystery Bag" we find their possessions. We find Jean Morris's empty "Garrett" snuff box and here is Willie Johnson's sack of hybrid seed corn that he found in Tennessee. What's this! It can't be but it is, Maggie Louise Marcum's sheet music of "Wedding Vows" and Milfred's life insurance policy. I never thought we would come to this -- it's Emmaleen's diamond ring that she discarded for a band, and here's Loyd's "Whistle" that he left for his girl friend in the grade behind. Holy Cow! Here's Joyce Brooks' "Blue Chevrolet" and David's "Land Cruiser" and who would ever think Eva Pearl could do without her reducing pills? And last but not forgotten is Jimmy Stovall's pneumonia medicine; (He never could bring in coal without coughing).

Class of '52 Prophecy

Settled comfortably aboard the plane, "Golden Rocket", destined for Paris to re-view the new spring fashion designs for my dress shop on 5th Avenue, New York, I, Emmaleen Hawkins, start scanning the pages of an old photograph album I haven't had time to look at in ages but brought along to alleviate the monotony of the journey.

What do you suppose is the first picture I come across? Yes, the graduating class of 1952. As I scan the familiar faces of my classmates a flood of memories envelope me and my thoughts drift back to Paint Rock Valley and the good old high school days so long ago. Here it is 1963, and the long awaited day is just a dream.

I sit reminiscing as I go down the line of faces. Now there's that tall, handsome boy, Willie Johnson, who with the little girl from Huntland, finally set the wedding bells to ringing and is now on his way to being president of the Du Pont factory in Chattanooga.

And Jimmy Stovall, why, of course, he told me on his Christmas card that he has been employed as a Pharmacist at Humphry and Sons Drug Store in Huntsville for the past seven years.

There's Joyce Brooks who is now a private secretary for one of the high officials of the L. and N. Railroad, who incidentally, happens to be her husband.

There's Milfred Green who signed up for the U. S. Navy right after graduation. According to the reports in the newspapers he is a captain now and making quite a reputation for himself.

Oh yes! David Jones, I see quite often, since he's a salesman and occasionally comes to New York.

The girl who finally fulfilled her childhood desire when she was contracted to sing with Hank Williams on the "Grand Ole Opry", Maggie Louise Marcum, of course.

There's Eva Pearl, the last time I heard from her she was a telephone operator in Memphis, Tennessee.

And Jean Morris who always said, "I'm Chicago Bound," is now cashier at the "Blue Room", in one of the largest hotels in Chicago. Oh, yes, she told me in her letter the other day that she has seen Loyd Hill who married his high school sweetheart, and that he has bought a huge farm in Alabama and is going back there to live.

As I finally close the album there is an intense sadness in my heart and I feel the restlessness and longing for Paint Rock Valley High and my classmates. How I would like to go back and enjoy the old days and pleasant experiences that have gone by. Once again with truer meaning than ever echoed in my heart the words of our Alma Mater, "Faithful, loyal, firm and true, heart bound to heart will beat, year by year the ages through, until in Heaven we meet."
