CLASS PROPHECY

As I, Shirley Hill, a registered nurse, sat in the lobby of the Stephenson Hotel, I noticed in the crowd a face that looked familiar. A more observative look proved her to be Patricia Mullican, one of my classmates at Paint Rock Valley High, now a dress designer. About that time she noticed me and we were recalling our school days in no time at all. We were happy with the successes of our classmates. Ten years had found everyone well on the road to success.

Shirley Sisk has completed college at Andrew Jackson and is at work in a large business firm in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Louise Cantrell is happily married living in Louisiana. Her husband has made a career of the army.

Nelda Lewis is living in Tennessee teaching piano lessons as a pass-time job.

Annie Ruth Fossett is at home with the children while her husband, Guinness, is coach for Princeton Pirates.

O. A. Putman is selling tickets, patiently waiting for Gabby Hayes to die, hoping to take his place.

Catherine Dickey and her family are living in the city where her husband owns a watch repair shop.

Louise Putman is still living in Princeton. She is assistant principal to Mr. Hicks whose speeches are finally about to get the best of him.

The agriculture class has grown so that a second teacher is needed, none other than Ralph Morris.

Annie Evelyn Newsom is president at the Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Alabama.

Carl Cagle carries his briefcase along the streets of Auburn College, where he is a bachelor of science.

Willis Brown, with his desire to be well off, owns half of Cumberland Mountain.

Clark Sims is president of a large Chicago Corporation having as his secretary, Evelyn Posey, his beloved wife.

Geraldine Wade, our business woman, is very successful with her beauty salon located on the main street of Hytop, which is a large city now.

Helen Austell is Dean of Women at the University of Tennessee.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1956

We, the Senior Class of Paint Rock Valley High School of 1956, being of sane mind and sound body, having come to the end of a long school course, and realizing the fact that we shall no longer grace the halls of our Alma Mater, do hereby steal a few moments of our precious time to devise this, our Last Will and Testament.

We will to our devoted admirers, the faculty, our deepest love, the memory of our ignorance of all rules, our original, worn out excuses, our "don't knows," and our well earned reputation of general nuisances.

To the Juniors, we give, bequeath, and will our many and numerous Senior privileges, and, with pleasure, all the mistakes we have ever made.

To the Sophomores, we leave our ability to cooperate as a class and also our knowledge and common sense.

To individuals we will the following:

- I, Louise Putman, will my ability to pay attention in class to Tommy Kirkpatrick.
- I, Shirley Sisk, will my height to Stella Mae McClure.
- I, O. A. Putman, will my ability to interfere with romances to Joyce Stewart.
- I, Louise Cantrell, will my friendly personality and disposition to Judy Lewis.
- I, Willis Brown, will my position on the basketball team to Kenneth Rouse. (the bench)
- I, Geraldine Wade, will my popularity to Faye Woodall.
- I, Shirley Hill, will my dictionary of "jokes" to Madeline Culver.
- I, Clark Sims, will my "good looks" to Charles Hall.
- I, Evelyn Posey, will my ability to get a handsome boy friend to Nellie Sisk.
- I, Patricia Mullican, will my blond hair to Deanna Ellis.
- I, Nelda Lewis, will my Beta Club pin to Doris Wright.
- I, Annie Ruth Brooks, will my ability to get along with teachers to Raymond Marcum.
- I, Carl Cagle, will my witty ways to David Sims.
- I, Catherine Putman, will my quiet disposition and gentle ways to Alice Faye Woodall.
- I, Helen Austell, will my ability to complete a task to Curtis Humphrey.
- I, Annie Newsom, will my natural wavy hair and quiet ways to Edith Marcum.
- I, Ralph Morris, will my honor of being the only married male student in school to Leon Sargent.
