

PANORAMA

We, the Senior Class of 1956-57, proudly present this volume of the "Valley Panorama," yearbook of the Paint Rock Valley High School, Princeton, Alabama.

We wish to express thanks to each of our business friends who bought ads and helped make this book possible. Readers of this book, please support these advertisers!

We sincerely hope each person who opens the book will get pleasure from each page and have pleasant memories of our school.

Class Will

The last will and testament of the class of 1957, of the Paint Rock Valley High School.

We, the members of said class, being sane; mind well stored with knowledge, do hereby decree and bestow our legacies in full and unconditionally, to wit and as follows:

To our beloved teacher, Mrs. Hendrix, we bequeath the memory of our class brilliancy, our remarkable recitations, our industrious habits, our sunny dispositions, our beauty and our wit. May this memory ever remain in lonely hours of the future.

To the classes who have been associated with us we leave our wonderful example as a model class. May they imitate but never equal us.

To next year's Eleventh Grade Class we leave a large supply of sympathy because its members will not be able to maintain our high standard of wit, wisdom, gush, and gab.

To Martha Jo Henshaw we bequeath Emma Nell Tidwell's frown.

To Eliouse Gifford we leave Barbara Sublett's ability to hook a man.

Curtis Humphrey's crew-cut we leave to Kenneth Rouse.

Kitty Parton's ability to be President of class, and all the clubs we leave to Marly Ellen Tidwell.

David Miller's habit of whispering to the girls on the sly we leave to Jimmy Posey.

Leon Sargents ability to hang on to the same girl for three years we leave to Amos Jackson.

The great success of Annie Mary Morris in entertaining the boys we leave to Doris Wright.

Tommie Kirkpatrick's ability to keep his hair neatly combed we bequeath to Hershel Hill.

Bill Scivally's habit of blushing when the girls look at him we leave to Glenn Worthern.

Deanna Ellis' sweet disposition we bequeath to Wilma Faye Johnson.

Patsy Hambrick's art of looking pretty we leave to Deloris Mullican.

Judy Lewis wills her gift of gab to Jewell Scott.

Betty Sharp's ability to chew gum in school without being discovered by the teacher we leave to Cecelia Prince.

Mavis Rouse's Beta Club pen to Marjorie Roberts.

We leave to Fay Fowler the quietness of Omie Mae Reeves.

Catherine Mullican wills her figure to Lillian Simmons.

Joyce Sells wills her ability to pay attention in class to Phyllis Morris.

Thelma Payne's habit of day-dreaming (of future husband) we leave to Shelby Stephens.

M. P. Hill's ability to look innocent in mischief to Charles Hall.

Nell Vaughn's weight we leave to Betty Heatherington.

Alice Woodall's habit of being late to Robert Henshaw.

Stella McClure's height we leave to Marie Scott.
