THE EAGLE

Mr. P.H.S.

DAVID MILLARD

Miss P.H.S.

JOYCE MURPHY

The reason for the unusual arrangement of the '63 edition of the Eagle is due to three important factors: physical fitness has been stressed so greatly by the President of the United States; sports play a very important part in our school curriculum; and in appreciation, this year's annual has been dedicated to our beloved coach.

Principal's Message

Dear Students:

This yearbook is published for the purpose of enriching your lives now and bringing back a world of happy memories later in life; memories which you will cherish and hold dear to your heart, if you will apply yourself to the task of acquiring an education of which you shall always be proud.

As you grace the halls of this institution you should always keep in mind your primary goal. You should strive with all the ability you possess to prepare yourself for a useful place in society and a happy home life later.

It is our sincere desire to assist you in attaining this goal.

Sincerely yours,

Cecil A. Bearden

SANDRA GIFFORD

A brilliant instructor who has done much to further our understanding in science and history, a splendid coach who has led us to many victories in our basketball history, including the AA Basketball Championship of 1959, and a good friend who is always ready to lend a helping hand.

It is with deep esteem and appreciation that we, the seniors of 1963, dedicate this publication of our high school annual to MR. PAUL COOLEY, our beloved sponsor, teacher, and coach.
