It was a great honor to me to have been chosen Editor of the 1966-67 Eagle. I accepted this position with a strong determination to produce a yearbook that everyone would be proud of.

The Eagle is a Memory Book for Pisgah High School---A year's life crammed into a few short pages---The whole story you won't find here, only pieces, but pieces designed to jog a thought, a remembrance.

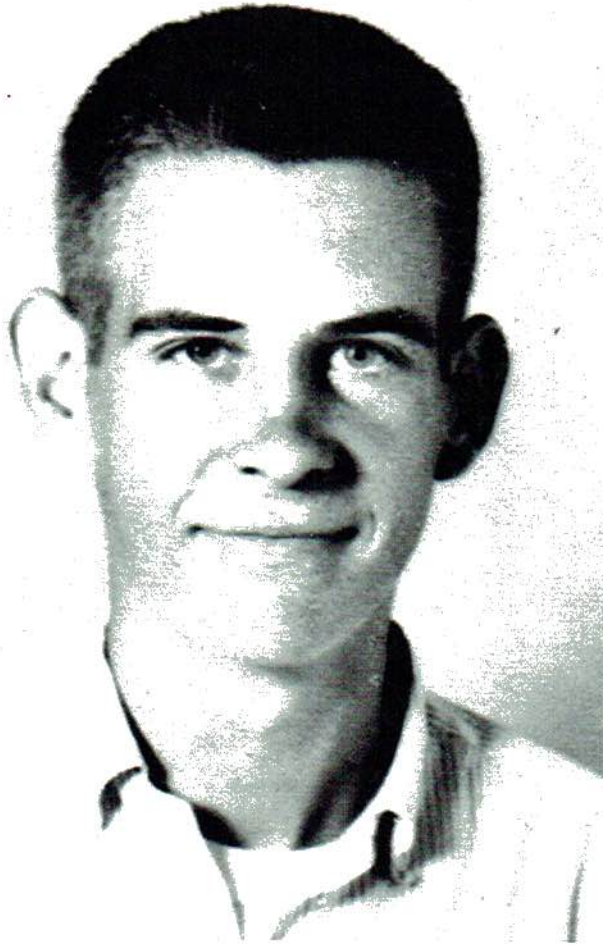

The book is one to be skimmed now, the pictures are to be enjoyed, laughed at---The time for remembering is not 1967.

But when the mists of years make these days hazy, the Eagle will serve as a torch to cut through---to bring back perhaps a smile---perhaps a tear---but always a memory.

Editor-in-Chief

Claudette Tidwell

This Annual To The Memory
Of*

RALPH HALL

That all may long remember him as he walked the halls of Pisgah High School; and with the hope that his family and friends may receive comfort from the fact that he was admired, loved, and respected by all.

Principal's Message

Dear Students:

Your yearbook staff has worked diligently to bring you a book which truly depicts your school life. We trust you will be pleased with their efforts.

One of the functions of your yearbook is to assist you in developing a sense of pride in your school. Once you feel that it is a vital part of you and exists solely for your benefit this feeling should envelop you.

It is our hope that as you attend school you will develop mentally, morally and spiritually and that you will grow into useful, upright members of society who can find a place in life in which to rear your families and live long, satisfying lives.

If we here at Pisgah School can assist you in reaching this or a similar goal, we will feel a sense of pride in your accomplishment. It is our sincere desire to aid each of you to reach the level of usefulness and happiness which you deserve.

Sincerely,
Cecil A. Bearden

Superintendent's Message

Greetings:

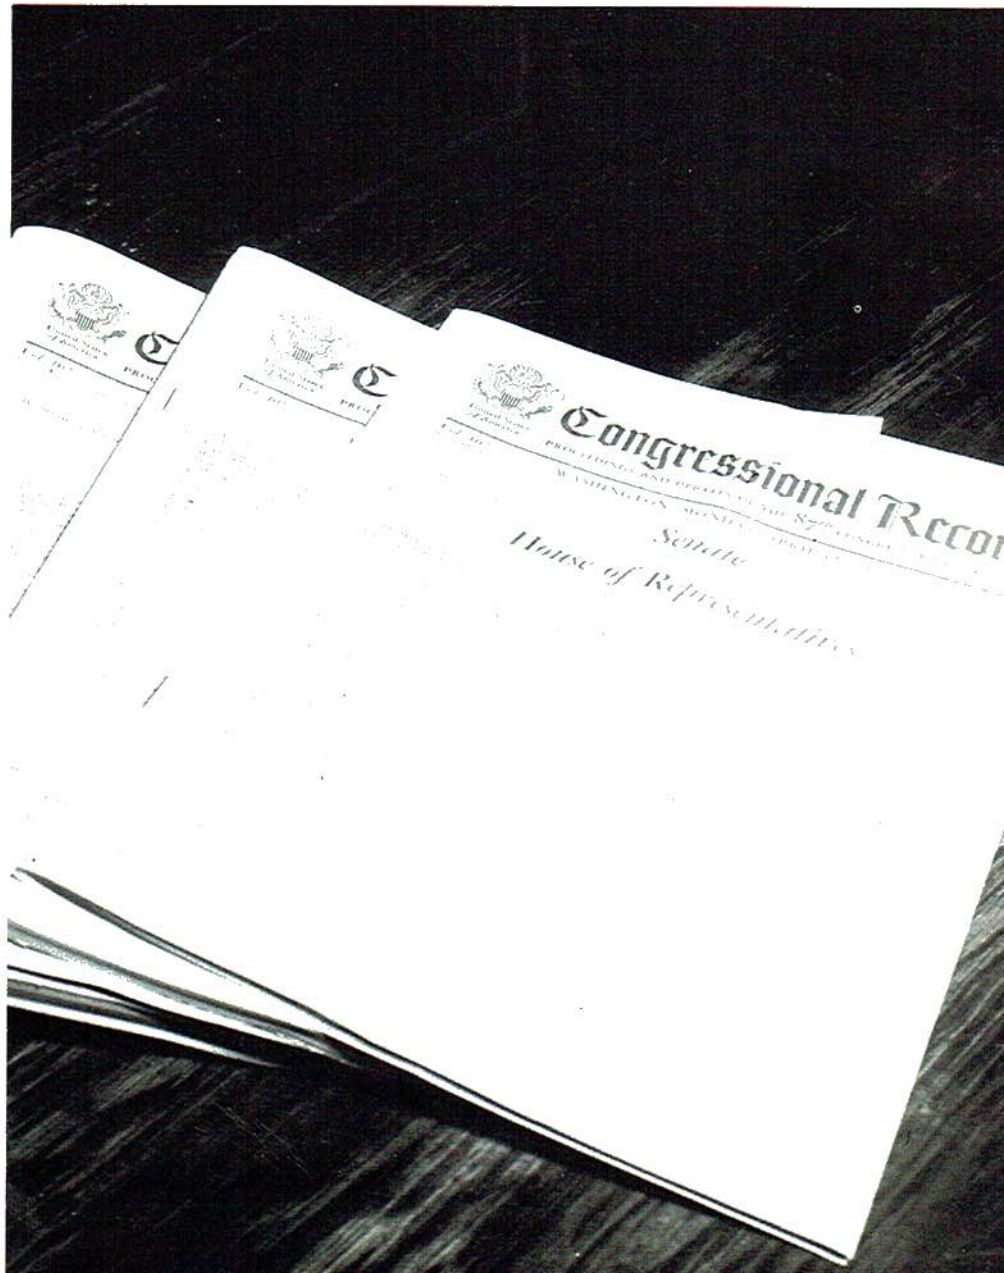

Your high school education will contribute to your success and happiness for you do not stumble upon success, you earn it, nor do you find happiness, you make it. A few specific suggestions to help you in achieving these ideals are:

1. Help a friend to find himself.
2. Show appreciation to your parents and others for what they have done for you.
3. Offer an humble apology to save a friendship.
4. Remember, a word spoken in anger can never be retracted and a letter written in anger should be destroyed, not mailed.
5. Show kindness and understanding to the elderly, the handicapped and those less fortunate than yourself.
6. Say nothing but good about anyone.
7. Remember God in all things.

A SPECIAL THANK-YOU

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the countless numbers of people without whose help, this yearbook could not have become a reality. Our advertisers - without whose financial help, we could not have succeeded- Mr. Bearden- whose patience with our many problems deserves special recognition. The students and faculty who have given moral support and demonstrated faith in our efforts by making our subscription sales go over the top--- To each and all, we say a hearty "THANK YOU".

This brings to an end many hours of frustration, anxiety, and hard-work on the part of the yearbook staff. We have rushed to meet deadlines, walked miles to sell an advertisement, and have made many mistakes that had to be corrected. It was not, however, all work--- we have had fun too. The book that you hold in your hands is a result of our efforts and we sincerely hope that you enjoy it as the years pass.
