DEDICATION

The staff of the 1989 Viking wish to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Alfred J. Kennamer and Mr. John W. Williams. Their good-natured humor and their dedication to the students have made them two of Skyline's finest faculty members. Mr. Kennamer and Mr. Williams are both retiring this year after many years of service. We wish them the best in the years ahead and thank them for all their help and support.

CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Christy,

May 23, 1999

It's so nice to finally be able to write to you after ten long years! I know that you've been busy with your Double Deck's Delight Yogurt Shops and your pesky husband, but I just thought you might like to know what the old gang is up to before the reunion.

Remember Charles Fairbanks? He is married to a world-famous genius and owns his own roofing company, "Charles Roofs." Sheila Gray is now the chief of police at good old Skyline. Recently, she won an award for arresting the toughest criminal at large in the country. Junior Lewis owns a comb manufacturing company. The only problem is that he uses up all the merchandise combing his own hair. William Hollingsworth lives in uptown Fackler where he is principal of the Crow Mountain Middle School.

What about our old class president? Well, Heath Gerbig is currently playing in several local clubs and next week he is going to Los Angeles to record with Motley Crue. Christy Fowler, by following in Liz Bellomy's footsteps, has become Skyline's secretary and campus busybody. Tanya Little's experience as a maid in the Junior Play has finally paid off. She is the president of a nationwide chain of maid services entitled "Dust Bunnies."

The sports world has been improved with the addition of several of our old classmates. Greg Lockard, previous star of the 1988-89 Skyline Vikings, has gone on to play professional basketball for the Los Angeles Clippers. He also stars in a series of Nike basketball commercials. Richard Bailey is a football linebacker for the Chicago Bears. Joining in with these two is Eric Woodall who now hosts "The Eric Woodall Show" on Sundays after "The Brady Bunch." Yes, Eric's show deals entirely with sports.

Gerald McAllister is now the Dean of History at Skyline University. An on-campus restaurant is an old-fashioned Kentucky Fried Chicken, managed by the new Colonel Billy Sanders. Gordon Neeley teaches aerobics classes at the University and fights to close down Dena Miller's local hangout joint, "Dena's Place." As part of his curriculum, Rodger Paradise is acting as a stand-up comedian at the Skyline Comedy Club. He is majoring in Comedic Science at the University.

Tony Maynor is a professional stock car racer. In his spare time, he sells Kraco stereo systems. Joel Washburn found his calling as chairman of the National Spelling Institute. Missy Bradford owns her own insurance agency for high risk. Tracie Austin is modeling for Charita Bishop's nationwide modeling agency and the two of them are still good friends. Linda Talley recently won the role of Scarlett O'Hara in the Skyline Playhouse production of "Gone With the Wind." Darrell Scroggins owns a chain of auto repair businesses throughout the south. Angela Wallingsford is very happily married and finds perfect happiness with her husband and thirteen children.

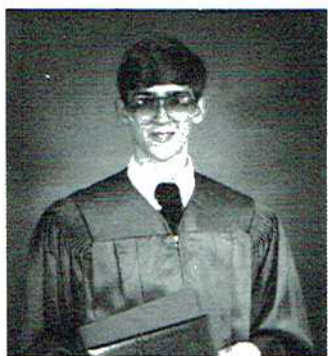

Sharon Waldrop capitalized on her "Wittiest" award in "Who's Who" and now, as you well know, is the hottest comic in the country. John Ross runs the local Scottsboro Library when he is not on the road as Sharon's manager. Chris Wynn is now a major attraction as a clown in the Ringling Brothers Circus. Ironic, isn't it? And Derrick Jones is one of the highest paid draft artists in the land. He designs super high-tech cars which supposedly fly just above the ground. Andy Talkington now pitches for some baseball team in Cowahootchee, a small town in Iowa. He's hoping to break into the big leagues soon!

As for the rest of the old student government, you know what happened to Lori Wells! It's strange to think that the first female president came from our old class! And with Annette Wright as the Secretary of Labor, our country will certainly reach new heights. Speaking of government officials, Alabama governor Larry O'Linger will certainly be a welcome addition to our reunion. Hopefully, Larry will bring along his new wife. Wendi Baker owns a delightful accounting business in Skyline where her major clients include Scott Scarberry (who owns the local theater), Melanie Buckner (world-famous poet and lecturer), and, of course, Playgirl Industries.

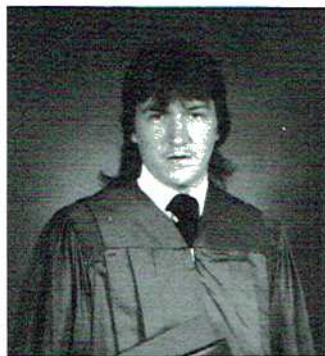

David Cornelius was at our alma mater recently adding a new wing to the lunchroom. His carpentry business, "David'll Do It!", is booming! Doug Sanders had been David's top associate until he joined the army and was stationed at Timbucktoo. The other Sanders, good old Stanley, is a rough, tough superintendent of the Jackson County School System. He "runs" the schools, says Stanley. His counterpart, Perry Sullivan, is happily married to his high school sweetheart just as we expected and now preaches at the Nila Holiness Church. Darin Clark is the Evil Kneivel of the 1990's since he does amazing feats on his motorcycle. And Scott Dalton is doing well as a pharmacist in Scottsboro.

Imagine all of those people doing all of those things. I can't wait for the reunion. Well, I'll let you get back to your shop while I continue developing these miraculous diet pills. I'll see you soon.

Jay

CLASSES BEAUTIES

Tracie Austin

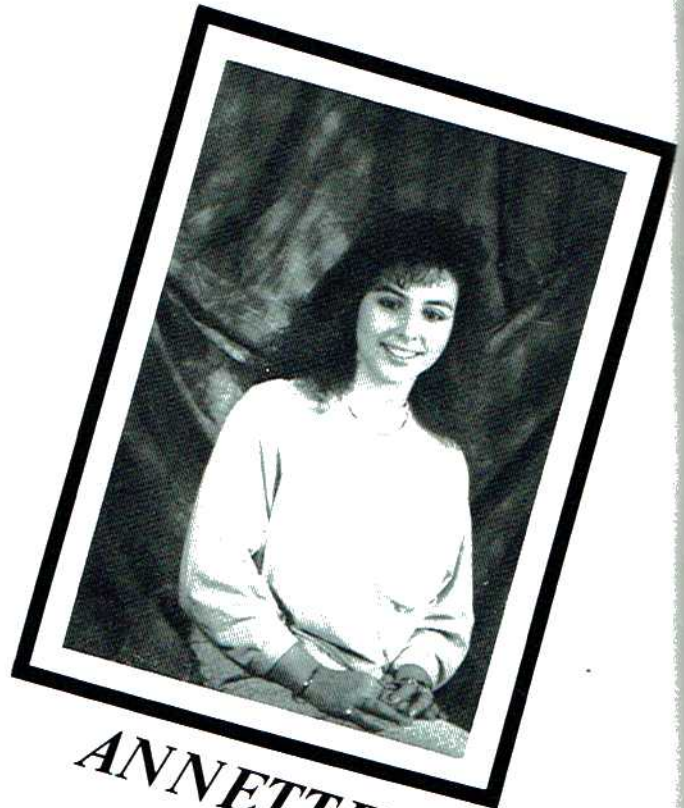

Tracie enjoys playing softball and spending time with her sweetheart. Her favorite food is pizza. She says that she has no pet peeves. Doesn't anything bother you, Tracie? When asked how she felt about receiving this honor, Tracie replied, "I am very proud to have been chosen by my fellow classmates to represent the seniors of 1989." Tracie plans to own her own accounting firm, which will be operated by all-male secretaries! Tracie feels the true definition of beauty is "what's inside a person, their outlook toward's life."

Annette Wright

Annette enjoys shopping and going out with her boyfriend. She loves tacos but hates nosey people. Looks like Annette's going to be buying a double supply of Ro-laims. Annette feels lucky to represent the senior class as a beauty. When asked what her plans for the future are, Annette replied, "I plan to attend college and pursue a career in nursing." The word "beauty," to Annette, means someone who "is neat and takes pride in their appearance."

TINA

Tina Arnold

Tina's hobbies include basketball, reading, and hanging out with friends. Her favorite foods are a wide range of Mexican delights such as burritos and enchilados. Tina despises people who continually put themselves down. Tina feels very honored to be elected class beauty. In ten years, Tina plans to "finish high school and enter the field of law." When asked what beauty means to her, Tina replied, "The attitude people reflect to others; not only what's on the outside, but on the inside as well."

STEPHANIE

Stephanie Westmoreland

Stephanie enjoys roller skating, singing, and dancing. Although Stephanie enjoys picking up a piece of pizza, she hates people who pick on each other. Stephanie "is honored that her class has chosen her." Stephanie plans to attend college after completing high school and study to become a counselor. Stephanie's definition of beauty is "someone who is pretty but possesses a good attitude and personality."

CLASSES BEAUTIES

Stephanie Gifford

Stephanie's hobbies include softball and reading. Much of the time she spends on the phone is probably ordering her favorite food ... pizza! When asked what her pet peeve was, Stephanie replied, "two faced people DISGUST me! Ten years from now, Stephanie tells us she will have a career in office management. "Beauty," in Stephanie's opinion is "the personality and actions" of the person.

STEPHANIE

Toni Little

In her spare time, Toni enjoys drawing, photography, and being with friends. Although Toni loves pizza, she wouldn't want to share one with a "know-it-all." When asked about her future plans, Toni answered, "I plan to become a professional photographer and hopefully someday to own my own studio." Toni's definition of beauty is "how someone takes pride not only in themselves but also others around them."

KIM

GINGER

CHARITY

Kim Hollaway:

Kim enjoys bowling, reading, and attending concerts. Although she likes everything on her pizza, she despises people who "think they're everything." Her plans for the future include graduating from college, getting married (to who, Kim?), and catching the rays in Florida. The word "beauty," to Kim, means "what's on the inside, not on the outside."

Ginger Parker:

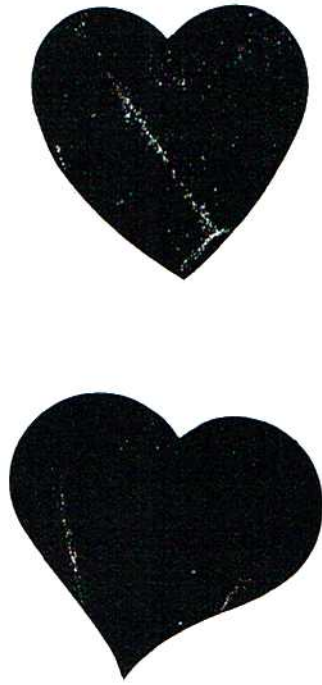

Ginger enjoys reading and talking on the phone. After a day of boring classes at school, Ginger finds excitement eating her favorite food at the local Pizza Hut. In the future, Ginger hopes to be working as a model in the Big Apple. When asked what beauty means to her, she replied, "True beauty is a reflection of your actions."

Charity Worthen:

Charity uses her free time to attend concerts and dance with guys. Pizza is her favorite food and conceited people make her life miserable. Her future plans are not definite at this time, but Charity indicated that she would like to live in California. To Charity, beauty is "what's on the inside."

SHS'S FIRST ANNUAL AWARDS DAY

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL WINNERS!

Skyline's First Annual Awards Day was held Friday, May 12th. Hosted by our principal, Mr. Wade Gentle, and our counselor, Mr. Sam Cain, Awards Day was one of the most exciting and enjoyable events this year. Two ceremonies were held on Awards Day. The morning ceremony was the presentation of high school awards. The afternoon ceremony was the elementary award presentations. The atmosphere of Awards Day was one in which even those who did not receive an award felt like winners!

I am very proud to be one of the Senior Attendants in the 1988-89 Homecoming Court. This is one moment in time I shall never forget.

When asked about this years Homecoming, the attendants replied: It gives me great pride to have been chosen to represent the Senior Class. This is a tremendous honor to me. Being in the Homecoming Court this year is a tremendous honor because we are the first of many young ladies who will walk this court and represent Skyline with pride. I am very honored to be chosen by my Junior Class to be an attendant. I wish to represent them with great dignity and pride.

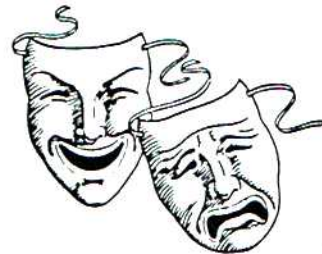

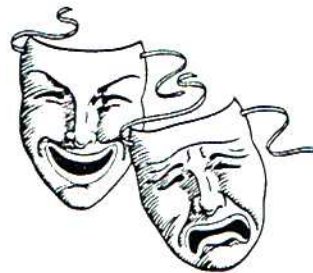

When asked about Homecoming, the Freshmen and Sophomores were quick to respond ... I am privileged to be the Freshman attendant. I am sure I will never forget this night. I am honored to be a member of the first Homecoming court in our new gym ... I am very proud to be one of the Sophomore attendants and I am very proud to have my Daddy walk with me. It was a great feeling to have been elected Sophomore attendant of the 1988-89 Homecoming Court. This is a very special night for all of us.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES!

To The Student Body and Faculty

I would like to express my appreciation to you for your support and toleration during the past year. At long last, this yearbook has finally come together. The staff has put forth an extra effort to design exciting new layouts for every section, so we hope that our efforts have paid off.

To Mrs. Deborah Jones, our wonderful advisor, and my talented fellow staff members, I wish to express my gratitude for your dedication and support. Good luck to all of you, and I hope you continue to produce fresh, new ideas year after year.

To My Classmates and My Schoolmates

Say, guys, do you remember back this far? I believe this was before my time with you began. Unfortunately some of these people have become dim figures of the past. Others are still among us, and still there are those who have become close friends as the years rolled on. To those of you who have been my own special friends throughout the years, I want to thank you for being so special to me. And thanks to everyone — teachers, friends, and family — who have made my years at Skyline High School a series of fond memories.

Sincerely,
Jay Washburn
Editor, 1988-89
