Kate, daughter of George & E. Deathridge, Born Nov. 26, 1855
Died Nov. 12, 1877.

(Note - Joel B. Arendale, Sr., was married twice; last wife was widow Deathridge and it is presumed that Elisabeth D. was his second wife. Kate Deathridge was Joel's stepdaughter.)

Louisa W. Willis, Born May 8, 1861; died Sept. 13, 1880.

Thomas Alford Williams, Born Jan. 12, 1859; died Nov. 10, 1877.

Mirtle Williams, Born Dec. 30, 1876; died Sept. 5, 1887.

(Note - These last three were the children of Maj. James Williams & Susan Arendale Williams, see Williams cemetery for parents.)

In memory of - Elder I. E. Douthitt, Born Oct. 15, 1809; died March 24, 1896.
"Well done thou good and faithful servant".

(Note - This itinerant Primitive Baptist minister asked a favor to be interred inside this heavy, stone enclosure with his friends. He was known far and wide for his learning and good works. No doubt one of the Pendleton, S.C. Douthitts)

TATE o - ALLISON CEMETERY, on Coon Creek above RASH, Jackson county, Alabama.

- - - ? Shipp, M. D.
- - - ? 1803 (1803)
- - - ? 71

Jane Shipp, 1824 - (Don't know if birth or death date.)

W. O. Hadden, (should be W. D. Hadden), Born Oct. 28, 1862, (Bible, Oct. 8th)
Died June 24, 1894.
(William Davis Hadden, M. D.)

"Father" - William C(urtis) Hadden, Born April 11, 1822; died Oct. 14, 1871.

"Mother" - Malinda Hadden, Born May 1, 1832; died Nov. 19, 1911.

Lowery Gelespie ? Allison, Born Dec. 16, 1817; died Sept. 14, 1841.

J. L. Allison - 1797 - 1871. (In 1850 census, he was age 52, born in N. C.).

Martha, wife of James L. Allison, Born Oct. 6, 1833; died Aug. 19, 1872.
(Could possibly be error in dates).

John D. McCrary, Born Sept. 23, 1839; died August 3, 1926. "FATHER".

Mary McCrary, Born Sept. 12, 1846; died Jan. 12, 1932. "MOTHER".

Note - (She was Mary Matthews). Note: Elizabeth McCrary Sells, who was 22 in 1850, Franklin county, Tennessee Census, was reared in this community and returned for burial, but her grave has not been found.

Amanda Washington married an Allison, her grave not yet found. There is another cemetery above the Allison cemetery, said to contain Grider & Culver families, but no inscriptions were readable.

AUSTIN FAMILY PLOT, at RASH on Coon Creek, Jackson County, Alabama.

In Memory of -

R. W. Austin, who departed this life July 26, 1841, in the 24th year of his age, after a short and severe illness of congestive fever. He has left a kind father and two brothers, besides a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his untimely loss, but the evidence he gave in his dying hours in regard to the salvation of his soul

In Memory of -

J. A. Austin, who departed this life, January 12, 1841, aged 22 years, after an illness of a few hours. He has left a kind father and three brothers besides a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his untimely loss. A poem follows.

( Note - these markers are made by hand, very similar to Jacob & Mourning Tally's. Evidently same monument maker did work and furnished the elaborate inscriptions and poetry as an added service.)

"My Mother"

Elvira Williams
consort of W. A. Austin
Born Jan. 27, 1826;
Died Jan. 21, 1875.

"FATHER"

W(illiam) A. Austin
Born Dec. 10, 1812,
Died Jan. 12, 1875.

(Both have elegant marble monuments).

James C. Jones Austin, Died Nov. 22, 1867, Aged 18 years, 6 mos. & 20 days.

Note - A massive stone wall surrounds these markers and monuments. This family was wealthy and there is some connection with the & Emma Austin College (College) in Stevenson, Alabama; perhaps they endowed it. (monument is a classic beauty).

( Note -Here is a News clipping from The Citizen, a paper that was published in Scottsboro, Jackson county, Alabama in 1883. This item bears the date of June the 7th, 1883. -

" Among our callers this week was Mr. R. C. T. Gill, who lives three miles from Fackler. He published about the first paper in Jackson County, the old "Bellefonte Democrat," way back in the halcyon days of 1846. He continued his paper up to a few years before the War when he sold it to Frazier & Jones - the paper was destroyed by the Federalists during the war. Mr Gill bought a farm and has been farming ever since he quit the newspaper business. He is a good farmer, and is highly respected in his community.

Another clipping from "The Citizen" date of August 30th - 1883, has this:
Esquire R. C. T. Gill, requests us to announce that quarterly meeting will be held in the new Methodist church at Kyles' Springs, on the 7th of September.
The meeting will be protracted. (He was about 58 years of age at this time).
Where is he buried(?). If in this cemetery, he has no stone to mark his grave.

LOVE CONFEDERATE GRAVE in Hunter's field, south of Tennessee River, near Coffey's Ferry, Jackson county, Alabama.

This Confederate was shot down by northern soldiers, taken to Hunter's home (logs) which still stands. Mr. Hunter sold his land to Gen. R. Coffey. The soldier died of his wound. Erected was a full length lovely white marble slab inscribed: ( This fine marble slab has been broken by stock standing on it.)

My son

Willie Jones Hurt

Was killed July 10, 1864

Aged 22 years, 7 months & 5 days.

There is evidence of another grave, evidently another Confederate unmarked.

There are about four trees at the spot in the pasture where this grave is,
It originally was supported by a rock box base, but was fallen flat.

DODSON CEMETERY

DORAN'S COVE CEMETERY, Doran'S Cove, Jackson County, Alabama.

In Memory of Maj. James Doran who departed this life October 28th - 1840 in the 76th year of his age. He has left an affectionate wife and a numerous circle of friends to mourn his death. His whole life was one continued scene of philanthropic benevolence. In his death the poor have lost a real friend and a useful one. He is gone but his friends should not sorrow as those that have no hope, for he left this world in triumph of a living faith and of a happy mortality. He taught us how to live and oh too high the price the price of knowledge taught us how to die.

Note: (His wife, Linny Russell Doran, remarried and is buried at Goshen Presbyterian Cemetery between Winchester and Cowan, Tennessee. Her epitaph is as follows:)
