Note - Larkinsville, though not quite as old as Bellefonte, Bolivar or Woodville, had the largest voting precinct for 50 years. Not far away was the little village of Sauta, temporary seat of Justice while Bellefonte was being decided upon. Sauta was about four miles south of Larkinsville toward the Tennessee River near where the House of Happiness Settlement was begun by the Episcopal Church in the 1930s. It is said that the pioneer, Larkin could have walked from Larkin's Landing to present Larkinsville on R. R. and have never been off of his own land. Sequoyah announced the invention of the Cherokee alphabet at Sauta, altho' he had written it in Ga.

who died suddenly (it was thought of apoplexy) the 6th of April, 1842, aged 57 years, 10 months and 21 days. By his industry and economy, he procured a patrimony for his dependants sufficient for all necessary purposes. He was kind and courteous in all the relations of social life. As a patriot, he was ever anxious for the prosperity of this country, and zealously devoted to the principles contained in the democratic creed of Jefferson. As a Christian he had received the divine ordinance of baptism, having previously obtained the evidence of faith, that he had passed from death unto life, though he was not exempted from the frailty that is given to human nature. Thess. 4-14. yet we have hope concerning those that are sleeping and that God will bring
