Farmington, Ark.
April 23, 1952

Mrs Jesse Alexander Proctor
PO Box 316
Scottsboro, Ala

Dear Mrs. Proctor - Aunt Rhoda (Holland) Wilson came over to see me yesterday and brought to me your letter. First I shall tell you who I am. Aunt Rhoda's husband is my Uncle Bill Wilson. My father is a brother of Uncle Bill's. I live about  $\frac{3}{4}$  mile N.W. of Aunt Rhoda across the pasture. She is my most beloved Aunt.

I do a lot of research work for myself mostly but I am helping my friends organize their data etc - I love it. I do the research work in our local, W.A.R. chapter to which I belong.

Your letter was a gold mine to me with valuable data. Unless you have worked diligently for days & weeks for one name or date, one can hardly realize the value of so much material in one letter.

I have been interested in the early settlers of Wash Co. Ark and have much data on them.

Aunt Rhoda's grandson Wm Ingram Wilson graduated from High School recently and we gave him a Bible Moffett translation with King James scriptures opposite on same page as he is taking Bible among other subjects in the College - I made a genealogy chart for him and put in the Bible - He & I have the same Wilson lines & I had some data on the Hollands (his grandmothers people) as it too.

I have long wanted to know the Rev. Ancestor in the Holland family. I had the son's name with his wife John Holland & Polly Davis and other data more recent - I found in Ramsey's Annual data on Hollands I felt was this family - but one has to know. I have North Rays new book "Tenn. Cousins" (1950) & it gives some data on Hollands. a Thomas Holland was ~~blacked~~ by Indians 1783 Co. Ke Co - lived on French Broad River. I believe he was a brother to Wm the Rev. Soldier. That is just a clue -

I would like to get sufficient proofs on this Holland line from Aunt Rhoda's Father back to the Rev. Soldier for DAR requirements as I have a Wilson cousin who wants to join - (Aunt Rhoda's grand daughter) I do not have the marriage date of John Holland and Rhoda Davis - and one would need the same on Wm Holland

I note your comment & data on Wm Holland - as came from Va. to Tenn.

Please note polson dates - a Martha J Polson born 1837 - d 1890.

and a Cora Alice Polson born 1860

I believe Cora Alice dau of Cousin John & Sallie who was Martha J
maybe Mrs Wilson Springdale can tell you - Cora Alice & Martha J are buried in Farmington Cem. & there are several graves in the little fenced cem. on old place but no stones - Our Wilson's fenced it with boards & are posts & hog wire & later some one took the hog wire away for a pig pen - & left the posts - It is now in a cow pasture -

Quint Thoda speaks of a "Hock" Holland - a nick name no doubt Buck & Hock could be two more sons making 10

I am sending Holland Bible record from my 1950 Report -

I felt I must do this at once so you could organize it all at once - maybe I have data on other names might help you. I have a Gen. friend, she might help you, in Ala.

Best regards -

When I was a child at home in 1900s - around 1912 -

there was a neighbor who lived on an Indian allotment joined us - his name was Logan Davis and he had a dau. Nancy and a son I do not recall his name -

also a John Davis (son of Charles Davis) who was part Cherokee and married Katherine Soudock born in Scotland. She is now in Siloam Springs Ark. her husband John Davis was a prof in the John Brown College there. He was run down by a car several years ago - I have his letter some where in my file on part his ancestry - There was a Henry Wilson probably another of John
I will look that up but I was interested in Wilsons & not Davis - but he was Cherokee

Mrs Proctor

Today I sent you a batch of material not too well organized for there was so much to assemble & look up - & I am in bed with the most "terrible cold" I have had in years - my head aches & my nose is perfectly closed - I have to do something to be able to "live" so I dabble in these records -

I have organized your material with mine (I did not keep copy of the data from Starr book or others - so if you ever refer do state page)

There have come up several things I need to ask & comment on - First:

In your Davis record you list Jennie or Jane born Jan 7, 1786 to Jan 18 1866 - have you ~~noted~~ the date of Polly Davis & John Holland - all I have is John Holland died 1858 Rhoda Davis Holland died 1878 This I took from Goodspeeds Ark History 1889 - Wash Co. Surely she was dead when her estate was settled 1874 - so this must be considered - which one is correct - weren't they buried in Ala. too -? Aunt Rhoda thinks so if they were buried here no one knows of their whereabouts -

In my 1950 DATA report I listed Farmington Cem - In that I found some Polson graves - which I will enclose data - Aunt Rhoda knows they were her cousins John & Sallie & they had Cora d. an married but other girl married I believe a Payette & her daughter <sup>or daughter</sup> married a Wilson & has a store in Spungdale. Wilson Mercantile Store - now I believe that is correct. Years ago a cousin of mine (Wilson) & I went to Spungdale printing "Pics" to search for a news item & we looked across & saw the name Wilson over the store & she said "Let's go over & interview him" & we learned the mother was a desc of Polson - I was inquiring about some graves on the 40a where Polsons lived in 1850s & when several people were buried - our Wilson land is all around that 40+ I thought it too was formerly owned by Wilson & our ancestors were buried there - but Wm Gibson and old man in late 80s now dead told us they were Polson graves - so I believe the father or Cousin John was buried there

You know the Cherokee names that were not of their own language were white mens names who had gone among them and married - The name Proctor was not Cherokee originally when he married an Indian woman then he started a Cherokee line if he had descendants -

There is a Va History giving the First Families of Va and names of early emigrants to America - I found the name Choate - then Aunt Rhoda's mother's people -

I will do what I can on the Proctors - They lived in Eastern Okla near State line with Evansville + Dutch Mills on the line but in Ark. I will suggest you write to Wilson Mercantile Co. Springdale they are related to Payettes who married into Polson family the latter (Polsons) whom Aunt Rhoda knew were their kin - She called them "Uncle" John + Aunt <sup>Sallie</sup> Polston had two daughters: Cora + ? - but they were cousins to them - I thought it possible this

Mrs. Wilson may know about the Davis Bible

The William Davis who married the Cherokee woman + went to Okla or Indian Terr. were they enrolled Cherokees? You could write to the Dawes Commission at Muskogee Okla at Co for the enrolled Cherokee names - They asked me 50¢ but maybe 1.00 by now.

This is about all I can say presently about the material + data on these families - I will be very glad to cooperate with you to share my finds with you + may I hope the same from you. Not that I expect to sell data but to help the young kin who need to be encouraged to become conscious of their genealogy -

My best regards to you

May I hear from you -

Mrs Janet Wilson Shreve

If there is a W. A. R. organization to hand it to some member Aunt Rhoda believes the date of 1844 from Huntsville Ark could have been before William Davis Holland married probably he was a young man prospecting or locating a site to later move. - She still holds to 1858 as date they came to old place near here - where Peyton Holland now lives - as he married (from Davis Holland) in 1851 and Thomas Newton Holland born 1852 - June 19 I do not have their marriage date but I guess Aunt Rhoda has - (she has gone home)
I will get that soon.

Aunt Rhoda does not remember her folks ever talking about Margaret (Thomas) Proctor. She may have had a pet name. She remembers a Cynthia as sister to Margaret Thomas.

Wm N. Holland is a man 68 or 69 and white haired a stocky fellow with wonderful blue eyes very fair skin and has a big nose that gives him a very noble appearance. He has Indian mannerisms & is very quiet we think the Hollands are the "Salt of the Earth". Their word is their bond.

Aunt Rhoda is very happy and deeply moved over the record you sent. We had talked about records and I assembled what she & I had and filled in her Bible (as she has a new one) and we had planned to go see an aged cousin for data on her mother's kin - now your letter arrived with all we were anxious to know -

What ever became of John Holland who married a Roach and who bought his mother's Bible at the sale for $4.00

There are some Hollands here who are old known kin I will look into their records & maybe they are desc of the John -

I am an enrolled Cherokee Indian and I have the Emmett Starr book History of the Cherokees & many genealogies are given - I will look for the Proctors - The "Late" Proctor who was the notorious outlaw is a relative of mine, his name is in my genealogy - (coming)

(Aunt Rhoda did not know if this Thomas family is related to her
I would say yes, from my experience with tracing ancestors)

What do you know of Thomas family? <sup>J.W.S.</sup> Mary (Polly) Thomas was born Lincoln Co in middle Tenn. Co. formed 1809 out of Bedford which is about middle of Ala. state line -

Indian blood that is why I can thru Emmett's Stam book on Cherokees & copied the Davis
Holland & Grey - in fact all names I could recognize as being connected with Hollands - enclosed

The Hollands here say they are Quicks - do you have any record on the Hollands before they came to Tenn. - ? Where in Va did you locate them prior to their arrival in Tenn or (NC) as it was then.
Have you been able to get his Rev. war services? They may be found in Archives in Raleigh N.C. That is where I found volumes which contained my Samuel Wilson war services also Wm Ingram.

Did you get the 1790 Census on them I judge so as you locate them in 1790. Green County joins Cocke and was made out of Washington Co. 1783. Cocke was formed later 1797 out of Warren, ~~Newport~~ Bedford & Jefferson - Newport was County Seat.
If you can get the war services of this Wm Holland - it may give

Name of his wife or if you could find some land transactions which would give her name - I will go over my Famsays annals to check on the Hollands mentioned there - If you have access to Whites "King Mt. men" you might find data on Hollands.
Summers Annals has valuable data too -

I am going to give you the names of two wonderful researchers you might write and ask if they have any data on this William Holland with dates & hints as you can supply to help identify him.

- To Mr. Robert Tipton Nave, Elizabethton, Tenn. who specializes in Carter & Wash, Sullivan Co's -
- To Prentiss Price, Rogersville, Tenn. for Hawkins Co

There is a Davis family here who has a Scott Davis - an elderly man - I told Aunt Rhoda today I venture he was her kin from the Davis girl who married a Scott (you sent), that is something I am going to run down -

Yes the Asa Holland was a brother to Wm Davis Holland -
He was the Administrator of his mothers estate (Aunt Rhoda said)
Can you secure the will of Rhoda Davis Holland? in Ala.?
He was married twice & his last wife was named Caroline -
He was an educated man, as I remember Aunt Rhoda said.
He was in Ark in early 1900's, for Hollands had just bought their home where they now live.

Robt Grey lived at Jonesboro & had two daughters
If you care to write to post master a letter of inquiry of the whereabouts of his descendants - might locate them
I get wonderful results doing that - I ask the post master, maybe do not know, to hand letter to some elder person who might know early history of that section

From: The Handbook of Texas, Volume I, p. 826.

Spearman Holland was born in Virginia in 1802 but soon moved to Tennessee, where he was a member of the state legislature during the period when Sam Houston was governor. Holland later moved to Mississippi and from there in January, 1842, to Texas, where he settled on a farm near Marshall. He represented Harrison County at the Convention of 1845 and in the First Legislature. After Panola County was created from Harrison in 1846, Holland represented the new county in the House of the Seventh and Ninth Legislatures and in the Senate of the Tenth. He made his home in <sup>Panola Co.</sup> Carthage and served with the Texas state troops during the Civil War. He died in 1872.

Mrs Proctor: Today I saw Aunt Rhoda (Holland) 11 years at church and she loaned me your letter to read. I checked over Polly Holland dates again they are: Oct 24, 1825 - June 16, 1910 - I just made an error forgive me - (from Farmington Cem. Records)
 I am sending the 1830 Census of Cooke Co Tenn I got in Nov 1952 when I went to Knoxville - I never had time to run the Hollands in 1850 Census I might have found some thing really of interest - I found only 2 Lewis families (enclosed) an elderly woman 40-50 Nancy Davis & a young man <sup>wife's</sup> 30-40 - & wife 20-30 & one small boy under 5
 If one could go to Knoxville <sup>more counties</sup> Lawson III<sup>c</sup> She Librony they are getting the Census on film it is marvelous what one can find - To check other counties of 1850 Census will give wife name & age also children names ages &
 where they are born -

I wish you would write to Lula Mae Holland Hurlbut Stillwell, Okla. She is a College grad. & a learned person keeps books for her husband who is a mechanic etc. Ask her to check over the Holland records in Court House who was 1st one to own land - Check deeds & mortgages and to ask some of them for old Bible records tell her what you are doing - I believe she will cooperate
 she will be more free after Christmas - I am so busy now got to get my 1953 WAR report typed I am so far behind -

I had a sick spell had to go to bed for a week & more
 It is marvelous how much I do when I am up & at it, etc.
 I will bring this to a close - Think of you often when I see Holland name somewhere -

I came thru Chattanooga Tenn last Nov. could not have been very far from you -

Mr. E. N. Floyd.

Now on this page I will take the two daughters of Wm. Davis of whom I have no record, you may know something of them and I hope you do.

Polly Davis, her name must have been Mary Davis before mother, she married a Scott and this is all the record I have of her where they lived and who their descendants are I know nothing - do you? No

Did Aunt Polly Proctor ever mention any Scotts?

No I do not remember her mentioning any of them.

and Nancy Davis another daughter married William Proctor of Canada and he was no relation to Jeremiah Proctor who married her sister Jane Davis so Shula Campbell told me. They had no children. The only record that I have of him is that he homesteaded land 79.50 acres in Jackson County Ala on June 1st - 1831

No I don't remember anything of these I don't know

Jeremiah Proctor homesteaded 79.43 acres - June 1 - 1831

Micajah A. Proctor (son of Jeremiah) homesteaded 79.43 acres - March 1st 1838

+ Robert T. Proctor + James A. Morgan 39 acres - Aug 10th - 1870

was this James A. Morgan your grandfather?

I believe this was my great grand father Morgan my grand father Morgan given name was Curtis

Family of Myra Davis who married
James Holland born June 24 - 1790 in Greene Co. Tenn
Heir children were - died Feb. 2 - 1858 in Jackson Co. Ala.

I. John T. Holland called Doc Holland born Nov. 25 - 1838

Holland widow of James J. Holland his first cousin
& they had 2 children

II. Isaac Newton Holland married Hilda Wilson
Parents of Mr Albert Holland who was Postmaster in Scottsboro

I think the oldest one of Great Grand Mather some was John Holland he married a Roach and they had a Daughter she who married Joe Downey they are both dead but have three sons living John Clarence & Albert some of them if not all three live on the Sand Mountain Clarence married a Shanks Leahaly a Decent of the Proctor girl that married the Shanks John married a Helder near Hollywood and Albert married a Carter on the Sand Mountain Mrs Hicks wife of Mr. Hicks who is now teaching at Princeton is a daughter of Clarence Downey. I don't know when Asa married but he was left a widower young with one child who was Asa Holland? he had a son John Asa was Asa lived in Harris hollow. My Grand Mather Bratten
I have his and John Pictins also some more pictures that I have for you who they are what other children did they have?

Add their names & how they married please

Holland
Married

Family of Rhoda Davis who married

what kin were they to her? Bill Belomy + Keppa Bone.

6. a daughter married a Morgan (your grand parents) ○ Give me their names please + dates of birth, death + when they married? My Husband says that Bill Belomy must have been a Brother to Dane of Pekinville as the father of the Bill that he knew who was a Brother to Dane. You ask me the Belomy by line up So I can find 6 of the above 10 children who were the other 4 do you know? John Tom Manner was a son.
There was an Emily C. Holland who married John D. Symon and lived in Camp County Texas on Nov. 4th 1896, was this Emily a sister of your grand mother Morgan? I don't know my mother was named for an old maid Aunt and a Bachelor uncle and her name was Manerwa Tom and she was called Tom when a child but after she married my father he called her Manerwa and they moved to Tennessee that's where they raised their family and there is only two of us living and I only have one first cousin on my father's side living his name is Jim. Davis and he lives on the Moody farm near Kyles Ala.

and he married a Sanders a cousin to your husband she was a daughter of Mr.
Perley Sanders her name is Pearl they family use to call her Pat I know your husband remembers her. I was just a small child when my Grand father Davis died I can't remember ever seeing him and I don't know the date of his Birth but he died 1897 I think. and my Mother, father Curt.
Margan as he was known. Died before my mother could remember and I don't know what age he was but he was a young man I think he died about 1848 and Grand Ma Margan died 1896 and she was 56 years old when she died, this is just about all I know about these.) Grand Mother was born Oct 1840
I don't know the date

Dear Mrs Procter

I Received your letter but have been delayed in answering it. I will tell you all I can about my people I was a Davis and my Grand father Davis come from the ~~Caralinas~~ Caralinas I have forgotten whether ~~the~~ which one my Grand father Davis was a Davis
By Birth to her maiden name was Davis and she came from one of the Caralinas and my Grand father from the other but I have ~~forgot~~ forgotten which one was from North C. the other from South C.

And they ~~only~~ only had three children to live and marry two sons and all the children are dead but one first Cousin. and one Bro.
and my self we are just about all part on.

And my mother's people are the ones Mrs Practus use to tell me about. My mother was the only child her mother raised and her father died
soon after the Civil war
and mother was small she didnt remember her father and she was a Morgan her mother wa a Holland and mother's Grand mother Holland was a Davis she was the Daughter of the late

(Doris)

William who settled as a Pioneer of Maynard's Cove their home place still is known as the Davis place there near Toplea. I was named for my Great Grand Mother her maiden name was Rhoda Davis so my Grand Mother named me
Rhoda. So I was Rhoda Davis the second. I guess my mother was related to the Practas
 I think Mrs Pory Practas Husband Mother was a Davis
 she was the mother of the late Jimas and Mc-Kay Practas
 I believe your Husband was or is the son of Jimas Wick is the son of the late Jimas and you may know Mrs

you may know Mrs Hugh Campbell there in Scuttsville she is a Grand Daughter of Uncle Jim Halland who was a Brother to my Grand Mother. I think and Hugh is ~~a son of the~~

a Grand Son of McKaggs Practar they like to have been Kin folk. I think that the Late William Davis
the father of all these come from New South Wales. So that about all I could tell you about them but the my father
people are all together
a different family of Davis from the ones
Mrs Practar used to tell me

Mrs Anderson was a Davis
her parents - were Davis & Morgan her mother (Morgan) was an only child of her parents - her father died when she was young & she did not remember her father. He died soon after the civil war.

Mrs Anderson's grandparents were Morgan - Holland
(This Morgan is the one who died soon after the Civil War)

Mrs Anderson's great grandparents were John Holland & Rhoda Davis (What was her grand mother Morgans name?)

Mrs Anderson was a Davis
Her father " a Davis

[His parents were Davis]

[His father was a Davis]

[His mother was a Davis]

one of his parents came from N. C.

" " " " " " S. C.

(another Davis line)

They had only three children to live & marry 2 sons & 1 dau.

Mrs Anderson & her brother living & 1 first cousin still living.

- Proctor Family Continued -

Did you ever hear any thing of the Clarissa Proctor who married Johnnie Shanks a Methodist preacher they lived on Sand Mountain and had a daughter who married a Hastings. Mr Luke Hastings descends from her. no

Did you know about Eliza Proctor who married a Conger? they moved to Huntsville, Ark. no

also Elizabeth Ann Proctor who married Reuben Whitsett and moved to Benton Co, Ark. no

Did you ever hear of Jane Long and her family she must have been a daughter of Jane Proctor as she received $2500 a share in her estate. Where did she live do you know? no and F. D. Proctor received a $500 share of Jane Proctors estate. You spoke in your letter the late Finmas Proctor so this must be the one you referred to in your letter. He must have been her son and a brother of Micajah father of my husbands father Finmas Davis Proctor. Do you know who the older Finmas Proctor married and who are his descendants if he ever married?

I do not know who he was <sup>as who he married</sup> I have heard more Proctor talk about so many but it's been so long I have forgotten a lot she told me if I have it right in my mind it might be

William Holland was a Revolutionary War soldier in Virginia. He was your mother's grandfather. He came with a migration from Virginia to Greene County, East Tennessee where his son James Holland was born (who was your mother's father) and then they came to Franklin County, Tenn over about Winchester and from there into Alabama, Jackson County about the year 1820.

William Holland and his wife are buried in the Card graveyard in walled up graves but have no inscriptions on them and we do not know the name of his wife. Did your mother ever tell you the name of her grand mother Holland? I don't remember. Did she (your mother) have any old family Bibles? If we could find these we could copy the records from them which would be of great help in tracing the line. And old photograph albums with the ~~pictures~~ pictures, also old letters that the older ones in a family wrote to each other. Old obituaries cut from newspapers help us a lot if you have any of them.

William Holland and his wife had a family of children but we can only find four of them and they are, -

James Holland married 1st to Myra Davis and 2nd to a Frazier.

John Holland married Rhoda Davis, sister of Myra.

Nancy Holland married Thomas Gold.

Sally Holland married Hugh Mitchell.

Did your mother ever tell you the names of her father's brothers and sisters? I imagine that she was real young when he died.

I don't remember

Tell me all that you know of them and some of their descendants whom we may contact.

At one time your mother made a trip or visit to Holly Springs, was it Mississippi? from Holly Springs she went Grand Junction and from there to Bellefont, Ala.

Did she visit relatives in Holly Springs and how close kin were they?

Can you give me the names of the relatives that she visited on this trip?

I don't remember

Myra or Mira Holland Broadways half brothers and sisters.

Can you give their names and whom they married?
I have some of them, but all of them.

James Holland married to first wife Myra Davis, daughter of William Davis.

( They had nine children is my understanding, I have the following, -)

1. William Davis Holland, called Buck, he married Mary or Polly who? I am told that when she was a babe in the crib that a rattlesnake got in with her and bit her five times before it was discovered. Did you ever hear this?
Buck Holland died about 1880.
They had five daughters as follows, --
  1. Laura Holland, married Douglas St. Clair
  2. Martha Roanna Holland, married E. N. Floyd
  3. Mary A. Holland (called Taylor) married WM. A. Belomy
  4. Emily Cornelia Holland, married John Lewis Bynum
  5. Bettie Holland, never married.
2. Thomas Jefferson Holland, (called Doc,) born April 15- 1830, died May 10- 1907 he is buried in the Card graveyard, he married first to Mary J. Foster and had 4 children, Tommie, called Tramp never married: Mary (Mollie) married a Latham: Mattie married a Graham: and Julia married Dave Ivy. After the death of his first wife he married the widow of his first cousin, Mrs. Hannah Ruth Collins Holland and they had two girls, Nellie Holland married Andrew Lowrey and Woodie Holland died in Texas.
3. John Newton Holland, born 1821 - died 1872- married Huldah Wilson and their children were, Mariah Holland married B. F. Card: Lucy Holland, never married, : Bill Holland never married: Mary Ada (Mollie) Holland, married Frank Tinney and Albert Newton Holland, married first to Fannie Kate Williams and 2nd to Widow Robinson.
4. Madison Holland? was this one of Mira's half brothers and whom did he marry and who were his family if you know?
5. Mary Holland? was she a half sister of your mother Mira? if so whom did she marry

This is only five of them if I have them listed correctly, so according to the information that was given to me some years ago there is yet four more to be accounted for and I do hope you know their names and can give me information concerning them, some may have died in infancy or young. So please send me all that you know of these children.

I am sorry but it has been so long that I can not remember any information

Family records of Myra Holland Broadway of Jackson County, Alabama.

In the marriage records of Jackson County, Ala. I find that --

Nicholas B. Broadway & Miss <sup>MYRA</sup> Mira Holland, on the 10th day of January, 1888 at the brides mothers, by E. J. Stockton, M. G.

These are your parents. Was Mira Hollands' mother living when she married your father and where? No

She perhaps married again after Mira's father, (James Holland) died. If so to whom? No

Mira Holland Broadway's mother was a Frazier, give me her name in full please.

Her name? Barbara Frazier Holland born when? --- died when? --- where is she buried? ---

Mira's father was Jim or James Holland, born, June 24th, 1790 in Greene County, East Tennessee

He died February 2nd, 1858 in Jackson County, Ala. Where is he buried? I don't know

Do you know when James Holland and his second wife who was a Frazier married?

Was Mira their only child? No

My understanding is that James named this daughter for his first wife who was Myra Davis Hollan
Is this so? Don't know

Now when was your mother born? I don't know when did she die? Nov. 16, 1904

She is buried in the old Frazier graveyard but has no stone at her grave. No

I find this stone at your father's grave, Nicholas Barton Broadway, Pvt. 55 Alabama Infantry
C. S. A. April 1900. (I suppose he died in April 1900) Did he die before or after your mother died?

Can you give me the date of his birth? No

I also find this stone of Hattie B. Broadway, born January 27, 1897- died Dec. 6th, 1900.

Was she your sister? No niece

Who were the grandparents on the Frazier side of Mira Holland Broadway? I don't know

I find these Frazier graves in this old cemetery as follows, --

In Memory of Mary Frazier, born Jan. 12, 1779 - died Dec. 31, 1847.

In Memory of Samuel Frazier, Died Dec. 3 - 1826, aged 56 years.

In Memory of Rebecka Frazier, Died Nov. 17 - 1822 - Aged 22 years.

Joseph Parks Frazier, born Feb. 4 - 1801 - died Nov. 12 - 1857.

In Memory of Lucinda Jane Frazier, consort of Joseph P. Frazier, born May, 15 - 1816 and died June 26 - 1846.

Lou J. P. Frazier, Died May 4, 1883 - Aged 38 years, 5 mo, & 23 days.

Can you identify these for me? No

Supreme Court.
 The Supreme Court of Alabama has decided two cases from Jackson county since our last paper went to press, one from the circuit court and one from the chancery court. W. H. Larkin vs. Mrs. F. H. Hester, from the circuit court, appealed by W. H. Larkin. This was a case of the title of the right of property under an executory contract, alleged to be the property of Mr. Batty, but claimed by Mrs. Batty. The case was decided in favor of the claimant, adverse to W. H. Larkin.
 The other was a case of Matilda D. Smalley vs. Martha E. Chisenhall, an appeal from the chancery court. This case involved the title of a small piece of land, which was in controversy between Martha E. Chisenhall and her step-daughter, Matilda Smalley. The latter claimed half interest in the land, under the exemption laws, claiming that at the death of her father, the land descended equally to her and her step-mother. Mrs. Chisenhall claimed that it all belonged to her. The Supreme Court decided it in favor of Mrs. Chisenhall.

VILLAGE HOME FOR SALE!

Seventeen (17) Acres of Ground with Dwelling, Out-houses, good Well Water, Fruit Trees, etc., for sale in MAYSVILLE, MADISON COUNTY, ALABAMA. 7/13/89

The Dr. C. B. Sanders town property consisting of seventeen acres of land, on which there are a dwelling, out-houses, orchard, good well water, etc., in the town of Maysville, is again for sale on account of failure of compliance with contract of a former purchaser. The property will be sold at auction on the premises, on the 6th DAY OF DECEMBER NEXT, unless disposed of privately before that date. Here is a chance for a bargain for a village home in one of the best counties in North Alabama, with grounds sufficient to make a support for an ordinary family.

Maysville is two miles from Brownsboro, on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, and eleven miles from Huntsville by pike road. A. SNOGRASS, Real Estate Agent.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died, at the residence of her sister, in the vicinity of Scottsboro, at four o'clock in the morning of the 4th Inst, Miss Lucindia P Frazier, in the 39th year of her age.

She was born in Jackson county, Ala., on the 11th of November, 1844; was the daughter of Gen. Joseph P. Frazier, lato of this county, and nieces of Revs. Willis, Robert and Albert Fraizier, distinguished ministers in the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Her mother died when she was a child and her father before she was grown. Though deprived of a mother at the early age of twelve years, she embraced religion at a camp-meeting at Park's campground, and joined the Methodist church, in which she lived a worthy member till her death. She was the child of sorrow and affliction all her life. She had suffered many years of plumonary disease, and was violently attacked on the 22nd of April, with pain in the rejoin of her left lung and smothering of the heart, and in spite of the best skill and long experience of Drs. Clopton and McCord, she passed away on the thirteenth day of her illness, after suffering intensely.

While slowly sinking down into the cold watters she said to Dr. Clopton: "I am not afraid to die, I have no fears of death." Such was the consistency of her Christian life, that no one doubts her preparation for heaven. Really she is not dead, but sweetly sleeps in Jesus, for the righteous never die. The church on earth has lost a worthy member, but heaven has gained another Saint. Rev. M. P. Brown, of Scottsboro, preached her funeral at the Frazier graveyard to a large congregation, and there she was laid away in the silent city. How precious her memory.

E. J. STOCKTON.

DEATH OF A CLERGYMAN.

The congregation of the Presbyterian church at Decatur, Ga., induced their pastor, Rev. Dr. Donald Fraser, to go on a short vacation to Jacksonville, Fla., as he was sadly out of health. The reverend gentleman on his return home died in the cars near Indian Springs. He was born in Liberty county, Ga., and at the time of his death was about fifty-four years of age. He had been twice married. His first wife was a daughter of Thomas Q. Cassels, of Liberty county, and his second a Miss Kennebrough, of Tallahassee, Fla. He left three children, a son and daughter, now living at Decatur with Mrs. Fraser, and a son, Rev. Chalmers Fraser, who is pastor of the Presbyterian church at Marietta.

DISCORD IN THE FAMILY.

The Father Leaves Home With the Baby.

Joe Frazier, son of Hon. W. S. Frazier, who resides near town, married Miss Hewlett, whose father resided near town at the time of the marriage, about three years ago. Both the parties were of highly respectable families, and have, so far as their Scottsboro friends and acquaintances know, lived in perfect bliss till the following story come out last Tuesday in the Memphis Commercial Appeal:

An old and neatly dressed gentleman, whose general appearance and manners were those of a planter, stepped into the police station yesterday afternoon and asked to see Chief Davis.

He was conducted into the chief's presence, to whom he introduced himself as T. H. Hewlett of Shelbyville, Tenn.

He had the following story to tell the chief, whose aid he invoked in helping him carry out his mission.

Some three years ago his daughter, then young, married Joe Frazier, a young railroad man of a very respectable family. The young couple, he said, lived lovingly together in their home at Medon, a small town about fifteen miles from Jackson, Tenn. The father knew nothing of any disturbance in the domestic affairs of his son-in-law and daughter until last Sunday, when he received a telegram from his daughter, saying that her husband had left their home Saturday night, taking with him their only child, a 2-year-old son.

The mother and wife was greatly distressed about her child and begged her father to at once pursue the husband and get it back. Hewlett also grieved over the matter, as he loves both, his daughter and her child greatly, and he at once started for Memphis. He knew that Frazier had a sister here and he thought that he might find him in this city. His conclusions were good, for Frazier had come to Memphis. His sister, a Mrs. Payne, lives at 19 Marshall avenue. Hewlett called at that number and inquired for Frazier. Frazier's brother-in-law, Mrs. Payne's husband, received Hewlett and told him all that Mrs. Payne could have imparted. Frazier and his child had arrived there Saturday night late and remained until morning. Frazier surprised his sister by telling her that he would never return to his home again. The sister could not get out of him the secret cause of his leaving home, all that he would say being that he and his wife has had a little spat. He inquired about the best route to take to reach San Antonio, Texas, and the following morning—Sunday—about 8 o'clock he left. They do not know

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF VALUABLE LAND.

In pursuance of a decree of the Hon. Probate Court of Jackson County, Alabama, the undersigned, as administrator of the estate of Samuel Frazier deceased, will, on FRIDAY, the 11th day of March next, on the premises, proceed to sell to the highest bidder, the following described lands belonging to said estate, for the payment of the debts thereof. The lands are situate on the waters of Larkins Fork, in the n w part of said county, and described as follows: The s e  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the n w  $\frac{1}{4}$  section 20, township 1 and range 4 east, with exception of a small place for a church; the n w  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the s w  $\frac{1}{4}$  of sec 35, r 1 and r 4 east; the w  $\frac{1}{2}$  of the n e  $\frac{1}{4}$  and the w  $\frac{1}{2}$  of the n w  $\frac{1}{4}$ ; and the n e  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the n w  $\frac{1}{4}$  and the s e  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the n e  $\frac{1}{4}$  of sec 20, r 1 and r 4 e, containing three hundred and twenty acres, more or less, and subject to the widow's dower, which has been allotted and set apart to her by meters and bounds.

Terms of sale—One-third cash—balance on a credit of one and two years without interest. Notes with approved security will be required on the deferred payments and a lien retained on the land until the purchase money is paid. Sale in lawful hours.

WILLIAM A. KIRK,

zier surprised his sister by telling her that he would never return to his home again. The sister could not get out of him the secret cause of his leaving home, all that he would say being that he and his wife has had a little spat. He inquired about the best route to take to reach San Antonio, Texas, and the following morning—Sunday—about 8 o'clock he left. They do not know where he has gone. That was the last seen of him in this city.

This statement Hewlett placed before the chief and asked him to aid him in overtaking Frazier.

The following dispatch was received by the Commercial Appeal from Jackson, which is a substantiation of the story told by Hewlett:

"A handsome, black-eyed woman accompanied by a gentleman from Medon, twelve miles south of Jackson, complained at police station that her husband, Jo Frazier, had carried away their little two-year-old boy and ran away. Investigation developed the fact that her husband had passed through the city last Saturday, and had gone south, probably to their old home in Alabama. Frazier is a railroad man and is known on several Tennessee and Alabama lines."

The chief of police at Vicksburg was telegraphed by Chief Davis, requesting him to see the passenger train conductor who carried the early train out of Memphis on Sunday morning and inquire if a man and a two-year-old boy were among his passengers on the train. A reply was received, stating that the conductor did have two such passengers and that they had gotten off either at Coahoma or Clarksdale. Later another dispatch was received stating that he was positive that the man with the boy had left his train at Lula. Chief Davis wired the marshal at Lula, but had not heard from there up to a late hour last night.

So intense was the mother's grief that she started for Memphis when she heard that her father was here. She telegraphed him to that effect. The father stated that he would send his daughter home to her mother, and he would continue the pursuit until he found his grandson.

He gave the Commercial Appeal the following description of father and son: Frazier is a small man of rather boyish appearance; weighing probably 135 pounds; fair complexion; light hair; hazel or blue eyes; no chin whiskers and probably no

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Miss Sarah R. Frazier Dies; Services Tuesday

Funeral services for Miss Sarah Ruth Frazier, leader in social and political circles in Chattanooga for many years, will be held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at Wann-Chapman Funeral Home, with Dr. C. P. Hardin, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will be in Confederate Cemetery.

pallbearers will be Webster Colburn, Van Eastland, John E. Gilbreath, Fred B. Frazier, J. S. Goodson, C. W. K. Meacham, Thomas S. Meyers, Richard A. Suggs and John S. Wrinkle.

The death of Miss Frazier removes from Chattanooga one of its most picturesque figures in its history. Before she was stricken with her fatal illness some years ago she was active in civic and social affairs, and lived up to her family's record of being "somebody."

She was the only daughter of the late Capt. and Mrs. Samuel J. Frazier, Mrs. Frazier having been Miss Annie Keith of Athens, Tenn., before her marriage. Thus Miss Frazier came of a long line of Tennessee families.

She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution through her Revolutionary ancestor, Col. Keith, and she had other ancestors in the Colonial and Revolutionary wars.

She was a member of the Alexander P. Stewart Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and again and again during the period when the Confederate Veterans met in various cities she was a sponsor for regiments and divisions or a maid of honor to the sponsor-in-chief.

This was in compliment to her beauty and charm and in honor of her father, a Confederate veteran who spent many months in a Federal prison. She was a descendant of Pocahontas.

She had the gift of oratory of the Fraziers and frequently spoke to organizations in Chattanooga and other cities. She was a devoted adherent of the suffrage cause and a frequent exponent of the advantage it would bring to women. She ran for the legislature after the cause was won and was elected by a good majority.

Other organizations to which she belonged are the Chattanooga Writers Club and the Artists and Authors Club.

She has only one close relative, her brother, Alex Frazier, but she has many relatives in the Frazier and Keith families, Congressman and Mrs. James B. Frazier, Miss Elizabeth Frazier, Mrs. John Gilbreath, Gen. and Mrs. T. A. Frazier, the Misses Keith of Athens, John Neal and others.

Elders and Deacon's Association OF THE LANGSTON GROUP.

Held with Mt. Zion congregation of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, March 12, 1898.

President S. W. Frazier being absent, Rev. W. A. Kennemer was chosen president pro tem. Secretary, J. I. Chandler, having gone into other fields of labor, S. J. Chandler was elected Secretary. W. N. Benson was elected Vice-President.

The constitution and by-laws were read and adopted.

A committee on arrangements was appointed by the president, consisting of W. N. Benson, H. M. Layman, D. C. Bushart.

By unanimous vote H. M. Layman and P. H. Kennemer were invited to seats as advisory members.

The program was then taken up.

1. "The duties and relations of the Elder to the Church" was opened by Elder D. C. Farmer, and followed by interesting talks by P. H. Kennemer, D. C. C. Bushart, Wm McKay and W. A. Kennemer.

2. "Duties and relations of Deacons to the Church," opened by Prof. H. M. Layman, followed by D. C. C. Bushart, J. R. Benson and Rev. W. A. Kennemer.

3. "Duties and relations of members of the church," opened by W. N. Benson, followed by D. C. Farmer, Wm McKay and others.

The discussions were spirited and instructive on all the topics.

On motion of Prof. Layman the delegates extended their thanks to the people of Mt. Zion for their kindness and hospitality.

The association adjourned to meet on June 4 with the Gouse Pond congregation. The following program will then be carried out:

1. "What are the best methods to adopt to influence people to attend church," to be opened by J. A. McCamy; alternate, W. F. Chandler.

2. "Importance of Sabbath-school work in the Church," to be opened by H. M. Layman; alternate, S. J. Chandler.

3. "Woman's work in the Church," opened by S. W. Frazier; alternate, C. P. Hutcherson.

Adjourned.

 Died, in Maynard's Cove, one day last week, Mr. William L. Holland, (commonly known as "Buck") aged about sixty-five years. The deceased was born and raised in the Cove, and was one of our best and most respected citizens. He was an upright, honorable gentleman, and his death will be a severe loss to the community in which he lived so long, and where he spent a happy, useful life. Mr. Holland, we believe, belonged to the Cumberland Presbyterian church, and was a member of a large and influential family connection. Peace to his dust.  ministrator of said estate, and filed his application in due form and under oath, praying for an order of sale of certain lands described therein, and belonging to said estate, for the purpose of division, upon the ground that said land cannot be equally divided. And it appearing to the court that William D. Holland is a non-resident of this State. It is ordered that the 13th day of November, 1871, be appointed a day for hearing said application at which time all persons interested can appear and contest
 the same if they think proper.

The Teachers' Institute met in the Court-house last Friday and Saturday. Several teachers were present from different sections of the county, but the attendance was not as large as it should have been. We only had time to attend at intervals during the session, consequently did not witness all the proceedings. Some pointed speeches were made the first day by Judge Ryan, Rev. Mr. Crawford, and Prof. Livingston, which were well received. Prof. Livingston was the orator for Saturday, and he made a splendid speech, giving some wholesome advice about the proper management of schools, etc. His hearers were well pleased with his sensible remarks, and those who could not attend missed a rare treat. A resolution was passed indorsing Dr. Wood's administration and recommending him for the re-appointment to the office of County Superintendent.

Pocket Book Lost.

Tom Wood lost a pocket book at McCutchen's gin near Larkin's Landing last Saturday containing sixty dollars and some valuable papers. Jim Walker and Robert Ashmore have since been arrested charged with stealing it. The evidence against them is circumstantial, they were the last persons seen with Wood about the time the pocket book was lost.

William Wood, son of Dr. Ira G. Wood, who had been deranged for some days, was taken to the Insane Hospital, at Tuscaloosa, on Monday last. The deeply afflicted family have much sympathy. It is to be hoped that an early restoration may result from his treatment in our noble institution for such unfortunate persons.

There resides in Wood's Cove, near Scottsboro, and old negro woman who is said to be more than one hundred years old. She goes by the name of old "Aunt Hannah" and is said to be in very feeble health.

The deceased had been an invalid a considerable length of time, and owing to her critical condition the past few weeks her death was not unexpected to her relatives. Among those who most deeply deplore her demise is her husband, an old and prominent citizen of this county, and several children, among whom are Mrs. Maggie Parks, proprietor of the Parks hotel, Mrs. J. E. Brown, Mrs. Lula Francis, Prof. L. E. Wood, Prof. H. D. Wood, and Mr. W. G. Wood. The funeral took place from the Brown residence Tuesday evening at 3 o'clock. The remains were interred in the city cemetery.

Dr. Ira G. Woods left Tuesday on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Francis, in Birmingham.

Col. Michael L. Woods has been contributing some valuable articles on the silver question to the Montgomery Advertiser. Col. Woods is a graceful writer, and is generally well informed on all questions. He is now living in Montgomery, and is a son-in-law of the lamented Colonel Pickett, who wrote a valuable history of Alabama.

Aunt Annie, wife of Uncle Dicky Woods, died at her home on last Friday, the 18th inst., in the eighty-fourth year of her age, and was buried Saturday at Mt. Zion. We cannot learn that she suffered from any special complaint, but merely a gentle and gradual giving way of life's forces. There is scarcely a man, woman or child in this portion of the mountain but who were familiar with Uncle Dicky and Aunt Annie, and have experienced some favor at their hands, and will be sincerely grieved to learn of her death. She was, for a number of years, a consistent member of the Baptist church, and has gone to receive the reward of a long life spent in usefulness and Christian charity. Scottsboro News

We had a fine and much needed rain Sunday afternoon, and it has turned off so cool as to render large wood fires indispensable for comfort. The sudden change in the weather has brought into existence the usual number of cutworms and weather prophets, which latter predict with their accustomed confidence dire destruction to the cotton crop, etc.

Farmers in the valley are taking advantage of the season to push forward their planting, and those on the mountain are setting out their sweet potatoe slips.

ONE CENT REWARD,

AND NO THANKS TO ANY PERSON,

That will arrest and bring back to my employment, a young man by the name of SKELTON TAYLOR, now in his 19th year of age. He was bound to me in June 1863, then ten years old, as near as could be ascertained from those that his mother had told his age to before her death. He had lived with me 3 years before he was bound to me by the Probate Court of Jackson County, Ala., and from the time he first came to live with me, up to last Summer, he was one of the best boys I ever had, and I have had many boys bound to me. I intended to do more for him than I was bound to, and if he had stayed his time out, I should have done it, which I have no doubt he would have done, if mean and envious fools had not meddled with him and made him believe that he was at least 25 yrs. of age, and that I was cheating him out of his time, by telling lies. Under my control and raising he was being well respected by all the good citizens that knew him. He bid fair to make a citizen of respectability and standing above the stock he came up from and that set the envy of that kidney to boiling up and over, and they put right after him to bring him down to their own mean level, and finally succeeded, with the assistance of an ungrateful woman, who I believe done more to affect the desired object than all the others. I will pay the above reward of one cent and no thanks to any person who will deliver the said young man into my employment.

D. M. MARTIN.

FEB. 1st, 1872.

Another Shooting For "High Jackson."

This time the shooter was not drunk nor did he kill his man. On Saturday evening last Philmore Martin shot Joshua Carter, the ball taking effect in the shoulder, which caused a painful, though not a fatal wound. The affray took place near the incorporate line of Scottsboro on the Hitch Ferry road.

It appears that Martin was on his way to town when he met Carter and some other young men going out of town, and our informant says the boys in company with Carter had had a difficulty with Martin, and when they met the boys remarked to Martin that he must fight. Martin remarked that he would not fight, nor have anything to do with them, when Carter sprang at Martin's bridle reins with the intention of stopping Martin's horse, at the same time remarking that Martin should fight. Martin at the same time drew a pistol and aimed at Carter's breast. Just at that juncture Carter saw the pistol and wheeled around with his back to Martin and the ball from Martin's pistol took effect in Carter's shoulder.

Dr. J. P. Rosex was called to attend Carter. He states that the ball could not be found, and that though Carter is in no immediate danger he may lose the use of his arm to a certain extent.

Death of Maj. J. F. Martin.

One of the saddest accidents that we have had to record recently or ever was the death of Maj. J. F. Martin, agent of the M. & C. R. R. at Stevenson, in this county on the night of Friday last. As the midnight train from Chattanooga was approaching with its brilliant headlight, Maj. Martin walked across the track toward the platform, near the depot, presuming that the train as usual would stop at the tank in which event the engine would not have reached the point where he was crossing. Maj. Martin had time, it seems, to have crossed and ascended the platform before the engine would have reached the point where he crossed without stopping, but being blinded, by the light of the engine he missed the steps by which the platform was ascended and was thus caught in the narrow space between the edge of the platform and the track, dragged under the engine and one leg and the foot of the other leg were so horribly crushed that amputation was a necessity. His son David as we learn had just arrived and on hearing the cry of distress and following its direction found and extricated his mangled father. Maj. Martin was near 60 years old had been in the services of the Memphis & Charleston R. R. at Larkinsville and Stevenson for over a quarter of a century. He was a model of society uniformity and system in his habits and official business, and had an extensive acquaintance throughout this county and in railroad circles on the M. & C. and N. & C. railroads. His death has caused a general sadness and his grief stricken family and kindred have much sympathy.

Open Resistance to Legal Process.

There was considerable excitement in our town on Saturday last growing out of resistance of John Hudson, a young man from Maynard's Cove, with drawn pistol in a public place, to the execution of legal process in the hands of Sheriff Robinson. The paper which the Sheriff held in his hand was a command of law, it was his duty as an officer of the law to execute it; the pistol Mr. Hudson held in his hand was carried in disregard of law—he held it and announced his purpose to shoot the Sheriff of Jackson county unless he, the Sheriff, should desist from a discharge of his duty in obedience to law. The Sheriff must not do his duty in obedience to the mandate of law, or the young man would take his life!—The Sheriff must suffer himself deterred from a discharge of his duty under the law, or the young man would commit murder, in resistance to the law! There is the way the matter stood and should be viewed. Now, we will not do the young man nor his parents, for all of whom we are sorry, the wrong to believe that he intended to commit murder under any such circumstances unless he was crazed and for the time being demonized with liquor. But be this as it may, his conduct was nothing short of a high-handed outrage—an offence against the sentiment of all the law abiding people of our town, county and State. If there is hope for a young man who at this day and time has conceived the idea of armed resistance to law, it is in his being undeceived in the most efficient and decisive manner.

We are informed that after dark of the same day the young man denounced and made some hostile demonstration toward Marshal Barnett, who disarmed him and placed him in the calaboose.

It is of the highest importance to the best interests of our county that it be known that the law can and will be executed. It is dangerous for any man or combination of men to fancy for a moment that they are above the law or stronger than the law.

FINAL PROOF.

LAND OFFICE, HUNTSVILLE, ALA.

August 18, 1881.—Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Probate Judge of Jackson County, Ala., at Scottsboro, on the 10th day of October, 1881. Homestead Entry No. 11,542. S. of Sec. 11; T. 6, R. 6 e, for Elijah Hamilton. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon, and cultivation of said land, —State Railroad Commissioners Shorter and Tunstall, accompanied by Superintendent Pegram and Maj. Hudson, made a tour of inspection over the Memphis and Charleston Railroad yesterday. Cols. Shorter and Tunstall were met at the depot at this place by a committee of our citizens, and were shown around the square. The question of a new passenger depot, to be built nearer to the square, was strongly presented, and the Commissioners promised to do all they could to the consummation of that end. We will speak of this subject hereafter.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of seeing and conversing with Mr. Elijah Hausborough, an old citizen of this County, who resides in Texas. He is an intelligent, interesting gentleman. We also had the pleasure of seeing our esteemed young friend S. C. Lokey, at Stevenson on last Friday evening, on his way home, from Cumberland University Lebanon Tenn. Mr. L. is engaged to teach with the Rev. S. L. Russell, at Gaylesville, Cherokee County for the remainder of this year. He is as much of a hero in his morals and deportment as he was in the war, as he was as a soldier in the war.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of a writ to me directed from the Circuit Court of Jackson county, Alabama, in the name of Elizabeth Hussey vs. Joseph Kirkpatrick, Michael Wilson and Daniel Kirkpatrick, I will proceed to expose to sale to the highest bidder for cash in front of the office of the Judge of Probate in the town of Scottsboro, Alabama, on the first Monday in October next, within the usual hours of sale the following described lands, to-wit: The N. E. 1/4 of the S. W. 1/4 of Sec. —, in Township 4, Range 3, East, containing forty acres more or less. Said lands are being and situate in the county of Jackson and State of Alabama, and levied upon as the property of Daniel Kirkpatrick to satisfy said writ. This August 28th, 1869. W. L. KIRK, Sheriff.

I. O. O. F. Meeting.
 Thos. S. Holt, of Birmingham, the Grand Master I. O. O. F. of Alabama, visited Barcelona lodge here Tuesday night, and spent two hours with the members, making report of the progress of the order and giving instruction in secret work. Eight lodges have been organized in the State recently. Mr. Holt is a blood relative of the founder of Odd Fellowship in America, James Willey, and is a right man and full of zeal for the order. He went from here to the Paint Creek Valley lodges.

S. Cowley has sold his goods to D. Parks, and will clerk for him.

A SAD DEATH.
 A deep gloom was cast over the entire community last Thursday when it was known that Mrs. J. R. Huddleston, nee Miss Be Tucker, of Shelbyville, Tenn., had died suddenly of heart disease.

She had been sick for a week with a slight attack of malarial fever, and was not considered dangerously ill. About 1 o'clock she was taken with a spell of coughing, and her sister went out of the room to get some water to try to relieve her. What was her horror upon returning and finding her lying on her face dead!

The news spread rapidly, and neighbors gathered in, and a physician sent for, and everything was done that loving hearts and willing hands could do, but the golden bowl had broken at the fountain and her young spirit had taken its flight on that journey from whence bourn no traveler ever returns.

The sad news was telegraphed to her husband, who had gone down the road with his train at 10 o'clock. The railroad authorities kindly permitted him to take his engine and caboose and come back.

The remains were incased in a nice casket and taken next morning to Shelbyville for interment by the side of her infant, which died about a year ago.

She leaves a husband and little boy, about 3 years old, and a large connection of relatives and friends who deeply lament her untimely death. "In the midst of life we are in death."

We tender our deepest sympathy to the young husband in his sad affliction.

Dr. P. H. Helton, who has always borne the reputation of being a shrewd man, did R. A. Coffey a good turn at I. P. Russell's expense. Some revenue officers stopped and took dinner with him, and he found out that they were on the hunt for wildcat stills. He put them on the hunt for Russell's still, which they found and destroyed. After they had gone he sent Mr. Coffey word, and he moved his out of the way so that they could not find it.

Midnight Murder.

Jerome Hayes of Marshall County Killed in His Bed.

News came in Sunday morning of a bloody deed near Hillian's Store, in Marshall county, on Saturday night, the 8th. Mr. Jerome Hayes, a well-to-do and respected farmer, was murdered in his bed. His wife and two daughters occupied the house. The first known of the terrible tragedy was from Mrs. Hayes, who rushed from the house to a neighbor's, a quarter of a mile away, and in a very excited state reported that two white men had come to her house and asked for lodging, which was granted, and that at a late hour of the night these men killed her husband and took her some distance in the woods and choked her and turned her loose. About daylight neighbors came to the house and found Mr. Hayes lying in his blood on the bed, with a bullet hole through his head entering from the back and coming out near the eye. Upon search no trace of the men who came to lodge there could be found, and some friends of the murdered man came to Scottsboro Sunday morning and telegraphed to Tennessee for dogs.

On Monday morning we met here some gentlemen attending court who live in Jackson county a few miles from Hillian's Store, from whose account of the affair there is some doubt of the truth of Mrs. Hayes' statement. An inquest was called by Justice Johnson and it was brought out that the two daughters did not know of the two men lodging at the house and did not know that their father was killed until the neighbors came in. The jury reported that Mr. Hayes came to his death by parties unknown, and the matter was referred to the grand jury of the county then in session at Guntersville.

The Hayes family has stood high in the community socially, but the impression now prevails that Mrs. Hayes herself killed her husband, but for what cause no one knows. It may have been done in a fit of insanity, as some have suggested.

Dr. Hays Very Sick at Cullman.

A letter from Mrs. Hays brings the sad news of a fearful accident that has imperiled the life of Dr. Elbert Hays.

About 8 o'clock Tuesday night Dr. Hays was returning from the post-office, it was a dark and stormy night, and he was crossing a high bridge when he slipped and fell fourteen feet below, and his cries for help were drowned in the rushing waters of the ravine. Although in a fainting condition he had to crawl out himself, and when he finally arrived at home he was unconscious. He is internally hurt and has had hemorrhages from his kidneys, but we trust that he will be able, with the help of a strong constitution to pull through. Mrs. Beech will go to Cullman, unless there is some improvement in Dr. Hays.

KILLING AT STEVENSON

James Swats is Shot and Killed by Andy Hames.

May 4 1895

A tragedy took place at Stevenson between 5 and 6 o'clock last Sunday evening. James Swats, a popular locomotive engineer, was shot by old man Andy Hames, and died the next day.

Our information is that the killing occurred about as follows: Swats and Hames lived neighbors, and recently Swats bought a vacant lot of Hames, near his property, at a tax sale. Sunday afternoon Swats went out to look at his new purchase, and was soon joined by Hames. Hames it is said, abused Swats and ordered him to get off the lot. Not obeying the order promptly, Hames drew out a pistol, he being a strong man physically, and hit Swats over the head with it. Swats kicked Hames in return when Hames fired twice at Swats, one ball missing him and the other one hitting him in the abdomen. After shooting him Hames then ran to the mountain, quickly pursued by a number of infuriated citizens, who ordered him to surrender. He refused to do so, pointing his pistol at his pursuers, and it became necessary to shoot him down before he would give up. He was literally peppered with shot, but as they were bird shot he was not dangerously wounded, though it is said that a number of them went into his face and body.

Swats lived until next day and died a great agony. He was a Mason and Knight of Pythias, and was highly esteemed for his many good qualities. He leaves seven children, his wife having died about a year ago. He carried $8,000 in life insurance, so his children will be provided for.

Hames is an old man, being about 5 years of age. Swats was 55. Sheriff Robinson went to Stevenson Monday and arrested Hames, and placed guards over him. He will be brought to the Scottsboro jail as soon as he is able to travel.

At Paint Rock Station, in this county, on the 25th ult., after a brief illness, little MINNIE GREY, only daughter of W. R. and M. E. HILL. Aged 5 years, 2 months and 7 days.

Oh! Lord unto Thee
May Minnie's parents turn for solace above,

As the waters may fail from the sea,
But not from Thy fountain of love.
Oh! teach them Thy will to obey,
And sing with one one heart and accord
He gave and He taketh away,
And praised be the name of the Lord.

NANCY J. HILL, Adm'r,
BYRD HILL, Adm'r.

Mr. Elijah Hill and family left here for Ozark, Ark. Tuesday night last. Mr. H. is not one of the men who desire our friends west to request for us to go "full fifteen miles further." We send no such request, unless a man has laid the predicate, as the lawyers say. Mr. H. settled up at this office like a gentleman, and ordered the HERALD to be sent to his new western home. He is a working, producing, debt paying man. Invite him in and treat him kindly, is our request.

Obituary:

Died at the home of her son, James P. Shook, Allsboro Ala., on the 7th inst. Mrs. Mary Shook, aged 75 years.
 The deceased was born near Winchester, Franklin county, Tenn., her father, James Keith, being one of the first settlers of that county.
 She professed religion when young and joined the Cumberland Presbyterian church of which she was a devoted member at the time of her death. As a wife and mother she was a woman of great industry and piety; and as a partner in rearing a large family experienced very many great anxieties and sorrows.
 During the late war, Nov. 1863, she was deprived of her husband, John Shook, who was long a citizen of Jackson county, Ala., who died from exposure and insult at the hands of those invaders who spoiled the beauty and joy of so many Southern homes.
 The writer visited her a few days before her death, and though she was so emaciated by old age and disease as to be little else than a skeleton, she was full of faith, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost and spoke of her departure with the greatest composure, and assured us in the most positive terms that she was ready to depart and be with Christ. Our stay with her was necessarily short, so after reading to her some of the exceeding great and pious promises of the Bible, and pouring out our soul to God in prayer, with a heart overflowing with deepest emotions, we bade her farewell to meet on the "other shore."
 Good-bye, dear mother,—rest on from thy pains and sorrows. Thy work is now done, you are gone. The name of a great preacher of the gospel taught me to love and serve God. Sought to inspire me with a desire to preach the gospel, lived and died in the faith of its glorious doctrines.
 On the great day we shall rise up and call you blessed.
 A SON.

1903
 Taken to Rest.
 Mrs. R. D. Shook died on Friday evening last at the residence of her son, P. W. Keith. For some weeks the summons was made clear at her suffering was intense and constant.
 Mrs. Shook was confined to her bed several years with muscular rheumatism, and few have been afflicted as she was and few have borne their sufferings with more fortitude, patience resignation and cheerfulness. She was a lady of fine education and clear, strong mind, a firm and ardent supporter of every good cause, even after she was stricken down doing what she could in the Master's service.
 Her maiden name was Miss Jane Bell, of a fine family, most of whom have passed away. She was born in 1833, and was married first to Capt. James Keith, who lost his life in the civil war, and then to Rev. R. D. Shook, about thirty-three years ago, having two children by his marriage, John C. and Miss Mary.
 Mrs. Shook was a life long member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and perhaps one of the first members of the congregation at this place.
 The deceased was buried Saturday afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. C. B. Sanders.
 For Bro. Shook and the family there is wide spread sympathy with regret at the loss of so noble a wife and mother.

A Sudden Death

H. B. Shelton died suddenly in his sleep - Henry Bascomb Shelton called Bob Shelton was 33 years of age, then son of Mr & Mrs H. H. Shelton and a successful merchant of this place (Bostons, Ala.) where he was born & reared. A wife and two sons survive. The funeral services were conducted at the residence & concluded at the cemetery Sunday afternoon by Rev. M. P. Brown. In another write up it says he leaves a devoted wife & 3 lovely children, a father, mother and sister.

Miss Ellen Shelton, of Boxes Cove, a model young lady in appearance, manners, and practical accomplishments, is in town.

April Sudden Summons. 18-1901
Mrs. Martha Hunt, widow of C. W. Hunt, was called to her heavenly home very suddenly about noon Monday last, no one being in the room at the moment. She ate with relish the dinner brought to her bed, sitting up to do so, and replaced the dishes on a chair. Mr. Hunt came to her room a few moments later to know if she wanted anything else and noticed that she was lying very still and supposed her asleep, and went out. Coming back again immediately, his fears were aroused and he called to her, and getting no answer, felt of her hands, and the fingers were cold. Mrs. Hunt came in and she was called sharply and shaken, but there was no response, as her spirit had taken its flight like the passing of a zephyr, yielding to some unknown extinguisher of the vital flame. Mrs. Hunt had been kept to her bed some time from feebleness of age, and just a few days before the summons came she expressed a longing desire that the end would not be far off.
Mrs. Hunt was the oldest member of the Shelton family, so well known in this community, being a sister of Mrs. F. D. Hunt, Mrs. S. W. Frazier, C. C. Shelton, H. H. Shelton and Wood Shelton. She had long been a professing, practical christian, and a member of the Methodist church.
Funerals were held at the home.

E-specially for Ladies and Misses.

Miss Rose Shelton is receiving and opening her Stock of MILLINERY GOODS in the room fronting the HERALD Printing Office. She invites her lady friends and the public generally, to call and examine for themselves. Her goods have been skilfully selected and purchased for CASH IN NEW YORK and she takes this method of ASSURING those wishing goods in her line, that she will hold out INDUCEMENTS IN STYLE AND PRICE equal to any retail establishment in or out of the State.

Our little town continues to build. There are five stores, one lumber yard, two blacksmith shops, two restaurants, one hotel, a school with over one hundred pupils, one gin that put up over 1200 bales of cotton last season, and twenty-two dwelling houses.

We have had cold weather for the last three weeks; our corn was killed and, in fact, every thing else that was up. The corn is coming up again but is needing rain badly as the chintz bugs are about to suck it to death. Those who had planted cotton had to plant over, so you see we are late this year.

The roads are as dry and hard as in the fall of the year. In this country it makes no difference how dry it gets the roads never get dusty. We have not caught half enough water in our cisterns and pools to do us this year. Oats and alfalfa clover are very shabby. Corn is selling at four bits per bushel, flour at $2.00 per hundred for the best grade, cotton seed at $5.50 per ton. Land is high and none to sell; when any is sold it brings $10 to $50 per acre.

W. L. SHELTON AND MRS. E. J. PHILLIPS.

The wintry sky looks down to-day
Upon two graves. On the red clay,
So bare and bleak, nor grass, nor bloom
Tells love has watched beside each tomb.
Yet till the gentle spring-time hours
Bring their fair offering of flowers,
I lay beside the sacred shrine,
This poet memorial song of mine.

Dear Sister, in my heart, to-day,
Thou livest still, though mortals say That thou art dead. But oh there be Some living far more dead to me.
Where angel pinions came and go,
O'er lily beds of billowy snow;
Where blooms the fadeless asphodel;
Where never echo comes to tell
Of sin or death, thou roamest now,
The victors wreath upon thy brow,
Which erst a crown of sorrow bore,
And Heaven has one angel more.

My Brother, not in blood, but love, Thou sleepest well. Storms sweep above
Thy resting place. Suns rise and set,
Moons grow and wain, and yet, and yet

Thou wakest not. I can but sigh,
With tearful eyes, would it were I,
I, from whose sky sweet faith and trust
Have crumbled into shapeless dust,
I, frail and sorrowful, for whom Hope's fairy flowers no more may bloom,

Alas! for me it had been well
If mine had been that double knell.
For thee the earth had joys in store,
For me it has but little more,
How much of grief ah! who can tell
But He who "doeth all things well?"
Ah, would this broken life of mine
Could with its loss have purchased thine

Vain, Vain that wish, but mayest thou stand,
Re-learned and pure, at God's right hand
When that great awful day shall flame,
Which, bowed to earth I scarce dare name.
LAURA LORRIMER.

THE ALABAMA HERALD.

A. SNODGRASS, Editor.

Scottsboro, Thursday, Oct. 2, 1873.

WM. L. SHELTON.

In the death of W. L. Shelton, announced elsewhere, this week, the community in which he lived have lost one of its best men and one whose place cannot well be filled. Mr. Shelton was son of Shepherd Shelton, whose five sons and five daughters met to celebrate their fathers 82nd birthday last spring. The deceased was the first of ten children to die. This large family have all lived in Jackson County, ever reputed sickly, for over forty years without a death. There was no man within our knowledge, more respected and relied on, by those who knew him best, for integrity of character and moral worth, than the deceased. His remains were consigned to the tomb in the family burying ground of the late Thomas Snodgrass, his father-in-law, near those of his wife and child, by the Masonic Fraternity, of which he was a much esteemed member. The large concourse of people that assembled with sorrowful faces to perform the last and duty of interment, told more forcibly than we have language to utter, the high estimate in which the deceased was held by his neighbors.

On Thursday evening, last, Mr. John L. Shelton, who lived near Larkinsville, was instantly killed by a falling limb. He and other men were in the woods cutting down timber, and in falling a tree, by some means a large dead limb was broken off and hurled back towards where the men were standing. As Mr. Shelton looked up to note the direction of the limb it struck him above the left eye, making a considerable fracture in the skull. Mr. Shelton fell to the ground and only gasped two or three times, when all was over with him. Truly, we know not what moment we are to be hurled into the presence of the Supreme Ruler. Mr. Shelton leaves a wife and four children.

Mrs. Julia Shelton, "Laura Lorimer" arrived here from Chattanooga, on Tuesday, last. 7-26-1873

Some four or five years ago, after a visit to Chattanooga, Tenn., we wrote an article in reference to the mill of C. C. Shelton, which had a capacity of fifteen-barrels of flour per day, under the caption of "A mill that is a mill, and flour that is flour." Mr. and Mrs. Shelton had a boy babe they called Lee, at the time. It seemed to us that it was but a short while ago. When there last week we enjoyed the hospitalities of Mr. S. and his excellent lady, and looked around the premises. We spent more of our time in conversation with Lee, now a bright and intelligent little boy, who seemed fond of us, than with any other member of the family. As to the mill, it had been removed to make room for one with a capacity of one hundred barrels per day, at an additional cost of $19,000. Such is the progress of our friend—such the progress of Chattanooga.

Al! Eternity, I'll wait by my side,
They tell me, Ma Mignonne, thou'lt soon be a bride,
Like snow drifts beneath the soft light of the moon
Like the robes they have wrought thee in your rich saloon,
And Oman's blue depths have surrendered their pearls
To bind thy dark tresses, oh! fairest of girls!
They say he is noble, who sues for thy hand,
And princely in beauty, one born to command,
Like a rich swell of music his haughtiest tone;
Pride in the deep manner which calls thee his own,
And well may it be, for he links to his line
The blood of the Ind's proudest princes in thine.
Come, darling, come rest on my bosom, the while
I drink in the light of thy beautiful smile,
Till the flames again burn, long extinguished by tears,
And gather a radiance to last them for years,
Let thy soul bring a goblet of nectar for mine!
Be this even my Hebe, oh! beauty divine,
And whisper arch way-winged vision of bliss—
Thou wilt not? Then listen, Ma Mignonne, to this.
I've dreamed, that from tides and lover apart,
Like a dew-drop close clasped in a Lily's pure heart,
Thou guardest an heritage the world may see
"More than the world," or its treasures to thee.
Ha, diamond-eyed bird of of an Indian sky,
That shaft was well aimed, it unfettered a sigh,
And oh, what a world of despair in the moon,
As pride swooned away on the steps of her throne!
Hast thou learned, in its bitterness, heart-stricken dove,
That "the wealth of the palace and cottage is love?"
Last even thy foot-steps were far on the hills,
Thy dark eyes drooped down on the blue-bosomed rills,
While the call of his king held thy lover away,
A minstrel-boy crowned thee with blossoms of May,
Hast thou broken thy faith for a Troubadour's song,
And wrought thy betrothed one so deadly a wrong?
Alas for this earth, and its blossoms of love,
Buds now from the beautiful, far-off above,
Like all that is lovely, beneath the blue sky,
They bloom but to fade, and they live but to die,
Yet part not thy lips with the mummer, "too late,"
Rise, daughter of princes, and conquer thy fate.
Though pearls and bright imband not thy brow,
Thy lips will have breathed an unholy vow,
The laurel which twines in thy boy-lover's hair,
Is glory enough for thy forehead to wear,
And the light of his love all the gems will outshine,
Through centuries won, from thy father's proud line.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT
To the Memory of Capt. Henry F. Smith.

At special Communication of Larkinsville Lodge, A. F. M. No. 277, held on Sunday Aug. 27th, A. D., 1871 A. M. 5871; the following report of special committee was presented and concurred in:

REPORT.

Whereas. On the 25th inst. our worthy and beloved brother Henry Felan Smith was summoned by the great Architect of the Universe, from his labors in the quarries of earth, to refreshment in the Temple not made with hands; and, whereas; we most sincerely desire to honor his memory, emulate his virtues, and, as far as may be, console the bereaved family.

Whereas, Bro. Smith was an ornament and strong pillar in our Lodge and the community in which he lived; zealous in every good word and work; distinguished as a brave soldier; honored with civil offices of trust; ever faithful in the performance of public and private duties; and filled with faith in God and a glorious hope of a blissful eternity beyond the grave:

Therefore; Be it Resolved; that we deeply regret his death as an irreparable loss, but we do not mourn as those who have no hope.

Be it further Resolved: That we will henceforth cherish his memory in our hearts and imitate his virtues in our deeds.

Be it further Resolved; That we do invoke the richest and choicest blessings of Heaven, upon the bereaved widow and orphans.

Be it further Resolved that, in memory of Bro. Smith we will hold a public Lodge of sorrow, at such time as the Lodge may determine, and will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Be it further Resolved that these Preambles and Resolutions be published in the Alabama Herald and a copy

Last Tuesday evening, December 12th, Dr. G. J. Kieth, one of our most popular young men, led to the Hymeneal altar Miss Lonie Anderson, of Anderson, Tennessee. The Rev. J. A. Cargile performed the ceremony that united these two for "weal or woe," in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the happy pair. Although unable to accept the cordial invitation to be present, we have had a graphic description of the "recherche" supper and merry dance after the ceremony. May there be no "dark and dreary" days in the future for this young couple, but the sky of their existence ever remain serene and rose-colored.

Mr. Stubblefield and family have arrived and taken charge of the Hotel. We welcome his two daughters, Misses Blanche and Delia.

Mrs. Sam Hodges, with her beautiful little son, Hillie, is visit-

Christmas Times.

Yesterday was Christmas. What pleasing thoughts and happy memories cluster around this hallowed day. The whole civilized world accepts the 25th of December as the anniversary of Christ's birth, and it is so celebrated. The day commemorates the birth of the Christ-child in Bethlehem of Judea, the most momentous event in the world's history. The day should always be observed in an appropriate manner, and, with probably a few exceptions, Scottsboro behaved very nicely yesterday.
 Christmas times, Old Santa Claus, the yule-log, the mistletoe bough, the holly tree, toys and good things recall tender and glorious recollections of our childhood days, and causes a feeling of sadness to come over us all—sad because those happy days have been added to the past and can only be recalled in imagination.
 Before the week ends contribute something to those in need and distress, and the very angels in Heaven will smile upon you.
 This makes the nineteenth Christmas that the CITIZEN has greeted its readers and the good people of Jackson county, and we wish all a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

The two entertainments at the college Thursday and Friday nights brought out large crowds, and they were the best ever given by the students of the Tri-State Normal. Those who participated acted their parts to perfection and were highly complimented. While the students did so well, yet much credit is due the teachers for training them so well for their respective parts.

To the Voters of Jackson County.

This is to inform you that I have withdrawn from the race for Sheriff. The campaign has been agreeable and pleasant, and I desire to thank the people for their uniform kindness, and especially my friends for support and encouragement.

JAMES P. BARCLAY.

The St. Luke Episcopal church was filled to its full capacity Tuesday evening, for one of Scottsboro's girls was to become a bride, and it was a proceeding rare as it was interesting. A gentle woman, in the depths of whose happy eyes is mirrored a soul so tender and kind that to know her is to love her, that is Irene Snodgrass. And a mischievous little Cupid aimed his darts straight from the bow into the hitherto invulnerable heart of one of Cullman's gallant bachelors while Irene was visiting down there, not many moons ago, hence the matrimonial conclusion.

At nine o'clock Mrs. Gregory touched the organ keys and the wedding march swelled out upon the air. The bridal party marched up to the altar, the maids of honor and ushers coming up the aisles one at a time and crossing in front, following came the bride and her brother who was to give her away, then the groom and his best man, and last the maid of honor. The whole front of the church was banked with palms and flowers, and the bridal party grouped themselves in a perfect garden of foliage and blossoms. The bridesmaids were Misses Margaret Parks, Irene Moody, Pearl Caldwell, and Zaida Brown. They wore white organdy gowns with alternating blue and pink sashes and carried La France roses. The ushers were Messrs Charles Guynn, Bobb Hipp, Jas. Card and Hal Hurt. Miss Veda King was the beautiful maid of honor, and Mr. J. J. Curtis of Cullman was the best man. Mr. King Caldwell gave the bride away. The Episcopal marriage ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Morris pastor of the Methodist church at Cullman. The bride wore white organdy with veil and carried a magnificent bouquet of white sweet peas, carnations and ferns.

The wedding reception was held at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Beech. Japanese lanterns illuminated the yard and welcoming lights beamed out upon the inky darkness from doors and windows as the guests came and went. A large and handsomely embossed wedding cake was cut and the fates revealed through ring and straw and heart, etc., the secrets of the future. Frozen dainties of every description, cakes and salads and sandwiches were served in the dining room. The house was lavishly decorated, and mirth and merriment prevailed. At eleven o'clock all interest was centered at the depot where the bride and groom and a number of the guests took the cars for Cullman. Dr. Hays and his party made a most delightful impression while here and we heartily invite them to come again. Dr. and Mrs. Hays have decided to remain in Cullman for the present and take their wedding trip later on. Heaven grant them a haven where changeless love is lord and where their lives may flow on as smoothly as a summer sea blushing under the noonday radiance of the sun of God's goodness.

Special communication of Roll-over Lodge No. 127 of F. & A. masons, on the 18th April A. D. 1871, A. L. 5871, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The outer door of our lodge was narrowed by the death of our highly esteemed Bro. Geo. W. Williams, on the 17th day of April 1871, at the Residence of his Father, the Hon. James Williams in Jackson County Alabama. He was in the bloom time of life inspiring hope into the declining years of his venerable Parents; and his unabated, and almost unequalled filial affection, shed an excellence upon his many virtues that endeared him to the just and good through the entire circle of his acquaintances.

He was a polite gentleman, a liberal mason, a true patriot, and christian, expressed himself about 24 hours before his dissolution as being "ready for the sound" of the Grand Masters gavel above.

Therefore, Resolved that we deplore the severance of the fraternal ties which bound our worthy Brother, Geo. W. Williams to us, but rejoice for the assurance that our Brother has only been summoned from his labor on earth to a more enduring refreshment in the Celestial Lodge above.

Resolved That we will cherish his memory in our hearts, that the golden chain of fraternal affections may grow brighter unto the perfect day.

Resolved That we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That we will tender our sympathies to his Parents and Relations in this great bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and resolutions be furnished his Parents and relations, and spread upon the minutes of this Lodge. Also sent the Scottsboro Industrial Herald and Nashville Christian Advocate for publication.

OBITUARY.

Died, after a short illness, in Milam county, Texas, August 18th, 1869. CHARLES WILLIAMS, of congestion of the lungs, in his 56th year. His social and private life constituted the most pleasing phase of his character. His disposition was genial, and he was exceedingly companionable. He had ever a kind word and a pleasing look of recognition for the child in years, or the child of misfortune. He was devoted to his relatives to a degree amounting almost to idolatry, and was attached to his friends with unusual warmth. How infinitely more precious than silver and gold is that legacy of benevolence, purity, honesty, charity, and universal esteem in which his character and life are embalmed in the affections of his survivors. For many years he was a member of the Methodist Church, and a more devoted and pure-minded christian man no community ever possessed; and now, that he has passed to the land of rest, full of years and crown with honor, as we write these hasty and imperfect lines, there are many hearts hung in sincerest habiliments of mourning for their departed friend. ***

Thomas Williams, who once resided in Scottsboro, was married at Las Cruces, New Mexico, a few weeks ago, to Miss Magdalena Ochoa. Tom has been living in New Mexico for several years, and is said to be engaged in a prosperous business. Now that he has taken unto himself a helpmate, we wish him continued success in his far off Western home.

March 30 1870
Col. James Stuart died of pneumonia on January 15th at Louisville. He was an officer in Co. F, 4th Ala. Inf., and afterward became colonel in a regiment of Forrest's command. Col. Stuart was a noble soldier, a noble man, one whom all his comrades were proud to call friend. He was a brother of our townsman, Wm. G. Stuart.

By the kindness of Mr. W. G. Stuart we are furnished with a list of officers of the 1st regiment of Mexican war veterans, together with a letter written by John R. Coffey, (then Colonel of the 1st regiment of Alabama troops) to Capt. Daniel M. Martin, under date and post mark of Rio Grande, Aug 26, 1846. The document will appear in our next issue.

DARING ROBBERY.—We learn that the house of DANIEL M. MARTIN, Esq., near Bellefonte Depot in this county, was entered on Saturday night last by unknown parties and the pocket-book of his son-in-law, W. P. STEWART, was rifled of its contents and his gun taken from over his head where he was sleeping and carried off. This was all done without disturbance or detection, although there were four men sleeping in the house. It is said that a colored man, Geo. Miller, in the neighborhood, was robbed of $10 the same night.

—Quite a crowd has been in town this week.

HAMMONS.

It is with sadness of heart that we record the death of this venerable and devout Christian, a kind and loving husband and father, a generous friend, a useful citizen, and an old confederate soldier Bro. J. F. Hammons. He was born in Jackson County, near Bell Fonte, Feb. 29, 1836, and died at his home Jan. 23, 1898, at the age of 62 years. At the age of 20 he married Miss Sarah Reed, of DeKalb County, with whom he has lived happily for over 42 years, they having been blessed with a large family consisting of five sons and six daughters, all of whom mourn his loss. Bro. Hammons was a member of the M. E. Church for over twenty years. He was also an Odd Fellow, and one of the charter members of our local lodge of the Knights of Pythias, and although his chair is vacant in our lodge-room, yet it has pleased the Supreme Grand Chancellor, of the Universe to elect him as our first representative to that lodge which meets eternally in the skies. His life was that of a quiet, earnest, humble, Christian, unpretentious, modest, unassuming; yet he left an impress for good upon all with whom he came in contact. He lived to make few if any enemies, preferring often to suffer wrong rather than resist encroachments upon his rights. He had won the esteem and confidence of the people among whom he moved by his integrity, honesty and fairness in the daily business of this life. On his deathbed he was patient and murmured not at his great suffering and often said if it was God's will he was ready to die. His body was laid to rest in Bonaventure cemetery beside his little granddaughter who preceeded him to that bright shore a few short months. The loss to the bereaved family is great, but we commend them into the the hand of him who doeth all things well.

Weep not for me my kindred dear,
I am not dead but sleeping here;
I was not yours but Christ's alone,
He loved me best, and took me home.

TOM HAMILTON.

Santa Claus and the "beautiful snow" came at the same time. Insure your property against loss by fire with Gregory & Ross. Mrs. R. L. Hurt, of Bolivar, visited relatives in town last week. Mr. J. T. Hineshaw, of Larkin's Fork, was a pleasant visitor last Thursday. J. A. Korex and A. A. Allen, of Big Coon, favored us with a call last Thursday. Let every Democrat in Jackson county subscribe for the CITIZEN next year. Prof. L. E. Wood, principal of the high school at Hillsboro, is at home on the holidays. Read the prospectus of the Cincinnati Enquirer, one of the greatest newspapers in America. S. M. Bains and wife and W. D. Brown and wife, of Decatur, spent the first of the week in town. The Christmas trees were filled with beautiful presents, and everything passed off pleasantly. Some of our young people attended a dance last Tuesday night at Mr. J. F. Martin's, near Hillsboro. Dr. W. H. Payne took Christmas dinner in Nashville with his daughter, Miss Mary, a student at Ward's seminary. Mr. J. A. Raymond, of Garth, complimented us with a call last Monday. He is a pleasant and intelligent gentleman. D. V. Enochs, of Holly Tree, one of the prominent young men of Paint Rock Valley, favored us with a visit a few days ago. Charley McCord and John F. Proctor, students of the Winches-ter and Florence normal schools, are spending Christmas with relatives and friends. Mr. L. L. Hayes and wife left last night for Uvalde, Texas. Mr. Hayes is a clever young man, and we commend him to the people of DeKalb county. Mr. Robert L. Coulter, the poet and handsome representative of Smart Bros. & Co., Chattanooga, spent last Sunday and Monday in Scottsboro. Mrs. Lizzie Henderson, of Chattanooga, accompanied by her son, Mail Agent Harry M. Henderson, and daughter, Miss Cheatham, is spending Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. James Armstrong. Monday night, January 2, Rev. Mr. Gunn, an eminent Baptist divine, will begin a series of revival sermons in the Baptist church. The people generally, and especially Baptists, throughout the surrounding country are cordially

Rev. M. P. Brown will preach in the Methodist church next Sunday morning.

The CITIZEN is receiving the hearty endorsement of the best people in Jackson county.

Dr. and Mrs. Morrow and Mrs. Fowler, of Somerville, visited the family of J. P. Stuart, last week.

Died, in Scottsboro, Sept. 10, 1887, Jimmie, infant son of James and Mrs. Malie Armstrong, aged three weeks and one day. Budded on earth to bloom in heaven.

We will forfeit $1000 to any one who will prove that carpets, wall-paper and house-furnishing goods can be bought anywhere cheaper than Tom Snodgrass will offer them for the next 20 days only.

Mr. Ed. Young, who is working on Dave Snodgrass' cotton gin, came very near being killed yesterday. A hatchet fell on the top of his head, cutting a big gash on it, from which he bled profusely. He was doing well this morning.

Mrs. Lucy Stratton, formerly of Scottsboro and Stevenson, has rented the Ohio house in Chattanooga, and she would be pleased to have her Jackson county

Mrs. Gotwald and Miss King, of Springfield, Ohio, who have been on visit to their uncle, Mr. Hamlin Caldwell, returned home yesterday.

Hon. W. L. Martin has returned from Montgomery, and will remain in town several days. Mr. Martin is receiving much encouragement from his friends throughout the State regarding his candidacy for the office of Attorney-General.

We forgot to mention last week about the tragic and accidental death of Mr. John L. Shelton, of Larkinsville. While cutting down a tree a large, dead limb fell on Mr. Shelton, killing him instantly. He leaves a family, who have the deepest sympathy of the people in the Larkinsville community.

Mr. T. H. Hewlett is engaged in the cedar timber business at Shelbyville, Tenn. We commend Mr. Hewlett to the people of Tennessee as in every way being worthy of their confidence. He is a high-toned, honorable gentleman, is good for his contracts, and is prompt in all of his business engagements.

Mr. T. H. Hewlett, of Scottsboro, Ala., who is here buying cedar lumber and telegraph poles, was called home last week. He was presented with a fine ten pound boy, which, we learn, makes nine boys in all. We move that Jackson county exempt him from taxation.—Shelbyville (Tenn.) Gazette, The CITIZEN seconds the motion.

Miss Juliette Morris, who has been spending the past three months with her aunt, Mrs. G. D. Campbell, returned to Tennessee last Sunday night.

President Cleveland and wife will arrive in Chattanooga at 4 o'clock next Monday evening and will spend an hour there. They will be given a grand ovation.

The Farmers' Alliance picnic at Holland's Chapel last Friday and Saturday was largely attended, and there was dinner enough for all. Several speeches were made.

King & Franklin's Wild West Show next Monday will draw a big crowd to Scottsboro. It is a novelty in the show line, and all will want to see the daring riding of the Indians and cowboys.

A Sad Death at Section.

Miss Lucy Weatherly, daughter of M. G. W. Weatherly, of Section, died on the fifteenth inst. She was fifteen years of age, and a bright beautiful girl. With the rosy glow of health upon her cheeks she sat beside the Governor, when the group picture was taken of the party, the day he spoke at Section, about five weeks ago. Miss Weatherly died of brain fever, after an illness of sixteen days. We extend our sympathy to all her sorrowing relatives and friends and to her grief-stricken parents.

IN MEMORIAM.

JASPER J. JONES.

SCOTTSBORO, ALA., Feb. 18, 1878.

At a meeting of the Scottsboro Bar, held at the office of Messrs. Robinson & Brown this day, for the purpose of paying tribute to the late Capt. Jasper J. Jones, the following proceedings were had:

On motion, Capt. W. H. Robinson was called to preside over the meeting, and John B. Tally, Jr., was chosen Secretary. The following resolutions were then unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Scottsboro Bar have heard, with profound sorrow, of the untimely death of Capt. Jasper J. Jones, therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Capt. Jasper J. Jones, the Bar has lost one of its most earnest, faithful and honorable members; one who was ever true to the trust reposed in him—a high toned, courteous gentleman, and flashed scholar.

Resolved, That in our intercourse with the lamented dead, in professional, official and social life, we found in him all those manly traits of character which abide with the brave of heart, courtesy, gentleness, sympathy, tenderness, and yet with strong courage to do the right.

Resolved, That in the death of our brother, society has lost a member to whose shining life and exemplary walk and conduct we can ever point with pride as one worthy of imitation.

Resolved, That in the virtues and graces which adorned the character of the deceased, we found all that was true, noble, strong; he was pure of heart; he kept his integrity.

Resolved, That the members of the Bar with whom he was long and intimately associated, extend to his bereaved family their condolence and sympathy.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That the county papers be requested to publish these proceedings.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be presented to the Chancery and Circuit Courts of Jackson county, Alabama, by the Chairman, with the request that the same be spread upon the minutes.

W. H. ROBINSON, Chairman.

JOHN B. TALLY, JR., Sec'y.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Passed by Members of Miss Weatherly's Sunday School Class at Troy, Ala.

Whereas Lucy Weatherly, of Kirby Creek, Jackson County, Alabama, during her attendance upon the State Normal College in this place, affiliated herself with the M. E. Sabbath School and with Prof. Pace's class of the same; and

Whereas she was a consistent and devoted Christian, exemplifying in her daily life her faith in God; and

Whereas her "walk and conversation" were ever consistent with her profession by which she greatly endeared herself to the people of God and her associates in this Sabbath School; and

Whereas by the dispensation of a loving Father her soul was called back to God on the fifteenth day of August, 1898, therefore be it resolved

First. That in her death, this Sabbath School has lost a faithful member and Prof. Pace's class a greatly beloved associate.

Second. That we commend to the notice of young people, not only of this Sabbath School but everywhere, the exemplary life of this young christian woman, whose character seemed to have rounded into christian perfection while she had scarce reached the years of maturity, being but seventeen and two-third years old, equal to many who have lived a professed christian life for three score years.

Third. That we hereby express to the bereaved family our sympathy and condolence and bear testimony to them that their daughter and sister, while among us, honored her parents and God at all times by her godly life.

Fourth. That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the parents of the deceased, and another be furnished the papers of our city for publication, and another be spread on the minutes of this Sabbath School as a memorial to Lucy Weatherly, whose sweet memory we would ever cherish.

Bridgeport Dots.

Had a heavy rain yesterday which raised the water in the wells.

Cotton picking is about over, there will not be more than two-thirds of a crop made. Capt. W. C. Glover has been giving three and three and a half cents per pound for it in the seed.

Capt. Berry Burnett who left Carpenter several years ago for Texas, will return soon to his first love. He could not find the honey pond and fritter out west.

Mr. Hugh Lively, who left the upper end a few years ago for Arkansas, has returned, and is satisfied that when he left Jackson county he killed the "goose that laid the golden egg."

Miss Sue Standish opened her school in this place last Monday.

Died, on the 19th ult., near this place, Mrs. Jennie Lively, wife of Mr. John Lively.

Married, on the 8th inst., near Hillsboro, Tenn., Mr. Jack P. Jones, of Austin, Texas, to Miss Edith Jones. We congratulate Mr. Jones upon winning his bride, and hope that pleasure and happiness may attend them through life.

Mr. A. J. Jenkins of Doran's Cove, and T. O. Jenkins, of King's Cove, have bought a lot at Boliver's Switch, and will soon put up a store and a grocery.

The Fords Sentenced and are Pardoned by the Governor.

St. Joseph, Mo., April 18.—

Charles and Robert Ford were arraigned yesterday in the Circuit Court upon an indictment charging them with the willful and premeditated murder of Jesse James. The court-room was thronged to suffocation. As Judge Sherman finished reading the bill and asked of Robert Ford whether he was guilty or not guilty, he exclaimed, as if he had been waiting for the Judge to finish reading the indictment, "guilty," and then turned to H. H. Craig, police commissioner of Kansas City, with a cold, scornful smile. Charles Ford also pleaded guilty, and in the most unconcerned manner Judge Sherman then briefly passed sentence upon them, as follows, omitting all formalities: "You, each of you, shall on May 19, 1882, be taken to some convenient place and be hanged by the neck until you are dead.

The boys smiled as the Judge finished the sentence, and without further formalities they were taken back to jail. Their pardon was granted by Gov. Crittenden to day and is expected to arrive to night.

Sheriff Timberlake and a squad of Kansas City police, all heavily armed, arrived in this city on the midnight train Sunday, and attended the trial. It is expected that on receipt of the pardon the Fords will be quietly taken to Kansas City, where they have friends.

Fears are entertained by Sheriff Timberlake that their stay in St. Joseph will be attended with great danger. The jail has been closely guarded ever since their confinement, and no suspicious applicants have been admitted.

Mrs. Jesse James yesterday, by order of the Probate Court, received her arms from ex-Marshal Craig and returned with them to Kansas City last night.

A NEW TURN OF AFFAIRS.

St. Louis, April 18. The Post Dispatch's special from St. Joseph says he messenger with the Governor's pardon for the Ford boys has not yet arrived, and they are still in jail. Today the sheriff of Ray county served warrants on Robert and Charles Ford for complicity in the murder of Wood Hite, one of the James gang, in Ray county. The Ford boys are disconcerted at this turn of affairs.

Asleep in Jesus.

Merrily hums the bees in the clover-scented fields, sweetly falls the sound of cowbells on the ear. Summer borne in a chariot drawn by butterflies, holds high carnival over earth's domain. Yet there is sadness in our community. Death has stalked into another home and shrouded the inmates in the deepest gloom.

Lucy Olivia, eldest daughter of G. W. and Sarah P. Weatherly, was born in Pike County, Georgia, December 3, 1880, and died August 15, 1898. Since she was six years old her home has been in the school room, with her father, until two years ago she entered the State Normal, at Troy, Ala., where she was graduated last June. For her conduct in school I cannot say too much. She was ever most studious and ambitious in a rare degree to excel, exceedingly popular and beloved by all. Scores who are scattered throughout the State, who were with her during her student life, will grieve bitterly that "dear little Lucy" is gone from earth. While a student she was the teacher's friend, ever serving as peacemaker and comforter; and so eagerly did she aid the slow pupil that he felt he had done her a favor in asking one of her.

Her career as teacher began in Section school two weeks before her last illness. She took the position with its heavy responsibilities for a girl of seventeen, not from necessity, but from desire to be useful and lead a life with duties well fulfilled. During the semi-unconscious days of Lucy's illness she unconsciously called her classes, conducted the recitations, and as her father tearfully said "taught school all the time."

"Whom the Gods love die young," but I cannot think of Lucy and death together, she was so full of life. Sparkling so with fun, bubbling over with innocent glee and with her lovely brown eyes and wealth of brown curls, she was beautiful without the tinge of vanity. She was modest, unassuming and perfectly charming.

"None knew her but to love her,
None named her but to praise."

My dear little Lucy, your mother has asked more of me than I can do well. To say, well, all the good things of you I know to be true would take a greater vocabulary than mine. Young and gay as she was, she was a consistent member of the M. E. Church, South, and I know her spotless soul walked through the valley and shadow of death fearing no evil, but bravely on "till angel voices gladly bade her "welcome home."

To her broken-hearted parents, little sister, brothers, relatives and friends, I know no comfort except this: Though she is absent from her body her spirit is now present with the Lord; though dead she yet lives, and will continue to live in the hearts of us all. Perhaps 'tis best that she go now ere the cares of life should have whitened her silken locks and tears of disappointment dimmed her lovely eyes. Where she is now she will always be young and eternally happy. Her mission, maybe, in being called home in the flower of her youth, was to draw the love and thought of her friends from this earth to the things of Heaven. Comforting then should be the thought that we may all so live that we may be deemed worthy to live again with her forever.

MARRIED.

At the parsonage, on the 22d of November, 1882, the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Arthur Phillips and Miss Willie E. Johnston.

Rev. M. E. Johnston officiating at the Hymenial altar, rendered the ceremonies somewhat peculiarly solemn and interesting, he being Miss Willie's father. In closing the nuptial prayer the veteran and venerable man of God, stepped forward and placing his hands upon his childrens heads invoked the blessing and pronounced the benediction of the Master upon them, meantime dedicating them to the Lord's service and the service of his church.

This part of Paint Rock community was represented at the wedding. About one hundred persons put in their appearance as guests, adhering strictly to the rules of good moral ethics and decorum, all the while enjoying themselves nicely as gentlemen and ladies, maintaining a very respectful and high degree of gravity and dignity.

The supper was of the finest, both in appearance and deliciousness. Refinement, politeness and galantry prevailed. The leading desire of the writer is that peace and plenty may attend the happy pair on to the last river, that on the other side they may rest together under the shade of the trees. X.

A Happy Marriage.

Married, in the church at Camp Hill, Ala., on Tuesday evening, Dec. 18th, 1882, at 7 o'clock, by Rev. L. M. Wilson, assisted by Rev. M. E. Johnston, Mr. James M. Gardner, of LaFayette, Ala., to Miss May E., daughter of Rev. M. E. Johnston, of the North Alabama Conference.

The attendants were Miss Ella Johnston and Mr. Joe Watkins, Miss Fanni Johnston and Dr. I. E. Webb, Miss Cassie Gardner and Mr. Z. Langley, Miss Cumie Hunter and Mr. Wm. Gardner. After the ceremony the bridal party with a few invited guest repaired to the parsonage where they enjoyed a splendid supper.

The happy couple have our sincere wishes for a life of joy, happiness and prosperity.

On Saturday the 21st inst. at her home, near Nashville, in Paint Rock valley, of pneumonia, Mrs. Boas Jones. June 1888

Mrs. Madge W. Jones, who attended the centennial anniversary of the grand-mother of her deceased husband and great-grand-mother of her little daughter, and is still visit-friends at Bridgeport, will stop with friends here as she goes to her home in Huntsville. 14663

Mrs. Madge W. Jones, one of the purest and best of women accompanied by her precious daughter, Janie Dee, left Bridgeport for her home in Huntsville, on Tuesday and stopped on a day to see friends here. The broken arm of the sweet little girl is doing well and bids fair to soon be sound again. 441V33

On Wednesday, the 18th inst., at his home near Paint Rock station, of pneumonia, Mr. Jacob J. Jones. Mr. Jones had just conveyed his wife to the state insane asylum, and returned home Saturday previous to his death. He leaves several small children all alone in a selfish world. Jan 1888

Mr. Isaac Jones, an old citizen, died at his residence on Paint Rock on Thursday the 18th inst. Mr. Jones was one of the oldest citizens of Jackson. He was born near where he died, was a useful citizen and a consistent member of the Baptist church.

There was some difficulty, as we learn, in getting grand-ma Jones to recognize her long absent sons and to realize the nature and objects of the large collection of people at her one hundredth anniversary, on account of her deafness. They wrote or printed the name of each in large letters, and also "birthday." When the latter was presented to her it is said that she said, yes, it was her birthday and she was 100 years old.

Stonewall Jackson's Wife Portrayed as a Great Lady

STUBBORN

PAINTING OF MRS. STONEWALL JACKSON

THE GALLANT MRS. STONEWALL. By Harnett Kane. 314 pp. Garden City: Doubleday & Co. $3.95.

Mr. Kane, author of two other biographical novels of wives of the Southern leaders, Mrs. Jefferson Davis in "The Bride of Fortune" and Mrs. Robert E. Lee in "Lady of Arlington," is probably at his best as he tells the story of Anna Morrison Jackson, wife of Stonewall.

Life for the North Carolina planter's daughter, married to an obscure Virginia mountaineer soldier-professor, was not to be easy. She must face the ridicule of old friends, endure the harsh criticism of her adored, routine-ruled, deeply religious husband. The cadets at Lexington Military Institute and the faculty members did not understand Jackson and made endless trouble for him.

Jackson had many physical frailties and Anna worried constantly about his health. Her own, after the birth and death, a month later of their daughter, Mary, was always precarious and there was never the money for the luxuries to which she had been accustomed, but she made a brave thing of bearing hardships.

Then came the War Between the States and her husband, avid student of Napoleonic tactics, emerged as one of the greatest strategists of all times. People went wild about him and Anna knew the triumph of loving faith justified. She was allowed to spend a brief time with Stonewall in Winchester but he would not permit himself to be with her in North Carolina when their second daughter was born, so rigid was his self-discipline.

Then came the tragic accidental shooting of Stonewall at Chancellorsville by his own troops. It was a great loss to the Confederacy, as well as to those to whom he had meant so much.

From then on Anna Morrison walked softly, never again marrying, though she might have. After the death of her daughter she devoted her life to her two grandchildren. She took much interest in the things that had interested Jackson, hoping that therein she might find comfort. She was a great lady, held in love and honor by all who knew her.

—ANNE HUGGINS.

Looking Backward

Twenty-five years ago Dr. George Metzgar Hunt, 73, one of Chattanooga's oldest and best known physicians and citizens, died at his home, 225 N. Greenwood Ave., after a long illness.

During the long years of his good health, Dr. Hunt was a familiar figure on Chattanooga's streets, but he had been confined to his home by failing health. Dr. Hunt was once county physician and was active in the battle of smallpox during the epidemic of that disease.

In politics, too, Dr. Hunt was prominent. In 1912 he managed the Third Congressional District campaign of Theodore Roosevelt, who ran for President on the "Bull Moose" ticket. Dr. Hunt retired from the practice of medicine and from other activities several years before his death.

Dr. Hunt was survived by his widow and two sisters, Mrs. Erma Roberts and Mrs. T. G. Smartt, both then of Chattanooga. Funeral services were held by the Rev. J. B. Phillips. Interment was in Forest Hills.

Pallbearers were W. D. Powell, S. F. Brading, Harry Stokely, Mr. Byron, W. H. Roberts and Alex Gallman.

ROBERTSON-HUNT

James R. Robertson and Miss Martha Hunt were united in marriage Monday, August 21, 1950, at 10 a. m. at the First Presbyterian Church in Huntsville. The pastor of the church, Rev. Harry B. Wade, officiated in the presence of relatives and friends. The maid of honor was Miss Margie Peacock, of Warner Robins, Ga., formerly of Scottsboro. The best man was Dave Telford, of Scottsboro.

The bride wore a navy printed silk dress with white linen jacket, and navy and white accessories. Her maid of honor wore a gray linen suit with jacket embroidered in white. She had gray and white accessories.

The First Presbyterian Church in Huntsville had been the scene of the marriage of the bride's mother and her grandmother, her mother being the former Miss Grace Pulley of that city. Her maternal grandmother was Mrs. Frances Nolen Pulley.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony the bride and groom left on a wedding trip to Florida.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hunt, of Scottsboro. She graduated from Jackson High in 1949 and attended the University of Chattanooga last session. She is a most popular young lady and has been a leader in school, church and social activities here.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Maymie Robertson of Scottsboro, and the late Dr. Wm. Harvey Robertson, for many years prominent physician of Paint Rock Valley. He is a graduate of Jackson High and the University of Alabama and was affiliated with the Kappa Sigma fraternity. Since leaving college he has been following the profession of athletic coach and teaching and last season was at the State Teachers College at Livingston, Ala. He was a star on the great Crimson Tide football teams. He can be named as one of the most popular young men of our community and is liked by everyone.

The best wishes of many friends go with this happy young couple as they enter married life. They have not announced their future plans of residence.

MANY KIN GATHER FOR HUNT FAMILY REUNION

The Hunt family, pioneers in Scottsboro's history, had a most enjoyable family reunion at the home of Mrs. Rosa Hunt Stuart on the southeast corner of the public square on Sunday, August 13th, 1951. Fifty-two members of the clan gathered and enjoyed a great day of get-together and a picnic lunch on the lawn. Mrs. Stuart, who is 88 years of age, and one of the city's oldest residents from point of living here, was the center of the occasion. Although she has been handicapped since April when she fell and broke her hip and has been in bed and a wheel chair since that time, she was full of pep and vim and took the honors in stride and happiness. She is the grandmother of Probate Judge Wyatt Stuart.

Mrs. Stuart and her husband, James Stuart, who died nearly fifty years ago, came to Scottsboro and built their home right where it is sixty years ago and she has resided there since that time. Her daughter, Mrs. Summerfield Williams and Mr. Williams, have made their home with her the last several years, as does her son, Hunt Stuart, father of Judge Stuart.

The occasion brought together several out-of-town members of the family to join the local relations in the reunion.

Those present for the reunion and picnic dinner were:

Mr. and Mrs. J. Shep Hunt, Robt. Cross Hunt, Bill Kennedy, Mrs. Martha Doremus, Billy Doremus, Arch Day, of Chattanooga.

Mr. and Mrs. David G. Hunt, Miss Virginia Hunt, of Phoenix, Ariz.

Mrs. Martha Nelson Henry, Mrs. Pricilla Nelson King, of Corinth, Miss.

Mrs. Mary Lou Askin, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wainhall, of Sheffield.

Mrs. Louise Hunt Alexander, Mrs. Marie Hunt Porter, of Shelbyville, Tenn.

Mrs. J. W. Johnson, Ray M. Johnson, Maureen Johnson, Mrs. Lexie Moore Bonner, Mrs. Mamie Moore Renegar, of Huntland, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Robertson, of Montgomery.

Mrs. Rosa Hunt Stuart, John Hunt Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Summerfield Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Stuart, Miss Martha Stuart, Miss Sadie Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hunt, William Blackburn Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Carter Hunt, Miss Annie Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Henshaw, Dick Doremus, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Keeble, Miss Joan Thomas, Miss Betty Keeble, Miss Margaret Ann Keeble, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Reid, Miss Rosa Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Dozier Proctor, Miss Mary Frances Proctor, of Scottsboro.

Henry's Station, Feb. 4, 1978

Much has happened since our last. We have to announce this week one of the prospective weddings; Also the death of one of our model women, Miss Jane Hunt.

On last Sabbath morning we were assembled at the residence of the fair bride to witness the solemn rites of matrimony between Mr. W. L. Keith and Miss Judith Lipcomb, all of this place. We had a "high" time. All went "merrily as a marriage bell." The beautiful bride and noble groom have a host of friends who love them and who were delighted to find they so loved each other. Our heart's best wishes for them shall be,

"May life's bright streams o'er golden sands,

Glide on through time without alloy,
And not a cloud from sorrow's lands,
E'er dim the scene of blissful joy."

That their lives may be as bright and beautiful as imagination can paint is our prayer.

How soon does pain often follow in the footsteps of pleasure. Sunday, happiness reigned supreme but on Monday night following, friends stood weeping by the bedside of one of our best and noblest women, (Miss Jane Hunt) and gazed upon her in solemn awe as she sank down into the cold, chilly waters of death. She leaves many relatives and friends to mourn her sudden departure. We have listened for the last time to the plaintive sounds of that once sweet and familiar voice, as it is forever stilled in the silence of death; her pulse have stopped their beating. Her work is done. She was for more than twenty years a consistent and active member of the Presbyterian church. She rests from her labors.

Where faith is sweetly lost to sight
And hope in full supreme delight,
And everlasting love.

Peace to her slumbering remains

Letter of P. Ivey to his mother-in-law, dated July 18, 1879.

Dear Mother, I have just received your letter of the 17th inst. and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.

We return thanks to our amiable lady friend, Mrs. Ava Ivey, the eldest wife of our friend Rey. I hope you will be as well as that she kindly sent us last Saturday.

Rev. W. R. Ivey's parents live in the house at Montgomery that Jefferson Davis occupied when he lived there during the short time that Montgomery was the Confederate capital. The house is often pointed out as a spot of historical interest.

NOTICE

THE PROBATE COURT, JACKSON COUNTY, ALABAMA, December 19, 1888.
This day came John W. Ivey and others and filed their petition in writing praying for an order to set certain bonds to be deposited for the purpose of settling among them and A. V. Ivey and others as tenants in common and upon the ground that the same cannot be fairly divided without a sale thereof.

The said bonds were presented to me to hear and determine the same at which time all parties interested appeared and consented to the same if they think proper.
And I say and adjudge that John H. Ivey is a bona fide creditor of this estate and is entitled to the same in full payment of his claim against the said estate.
I have ordered the same to be paid to him in full and to be credited to his account.

Our friend John H. Ivey left this week for Missouri, where he will reside in the future. He has our best wishes for great and good fortune in his new home.

walking it, and started down in the well, when he fell to the bottom, a distance of fifteen feet, and sustained painful, though not serious injuries. Polk's many friends congratulated him on his narrow escape.

Rev. J. P. Ivey, requests us to publish the following appointments for Rev. Mr. Kovey, of the Primitive Baptist church: Blue Spring, Tuesday after the third Sunday in August; Wednesday following, at Providence; Thursday following, at Mull Creek; Friday following, at New Hope. The Rev. Mr. Kovey is from Georgia, and is said to be a good preacher.

THE ALABAMA HERALD.

SCOTTSBORO, ALABAMA,

THURSDAY, Dec 14
TERMS: $1.50 per annum, in advance.

LOCAL NEWS.

Married, by Rev. Dr. W. B. McKel-VI. at the home of the bride's mother, on Sunday, 10th inst., Rev. E. J.
Stockton and Miss Margaret Carr.

Rev. L. F. Whitten, our new Methodist Station minister arrived in our town with his family, wife and child, this week and they are domiciled at the Parsonage.

—Rev. E. J. Stockton favored the CITIZEN with a call Monday. Although seventy-two years of age, he looks hale and hearty, and continues to do faithful work in his Master's vineyard. He is a highly esteemed minister of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

STEVENSON.
Married, Sunday, March 2nd, 1879, at Mr. Kenn Cargile's, Mr. J. R. Gray, to Miss Lucy Long, Esquire J. H.
Vaught, officiating.
One J. M. Seafs, procured license from Mr. H. H. Hopkins, to marry one Miss
N. J. Pendergrass, one day last week, and when they presented themselves for union, to our great surprise, the would-be bride was a negro. So Mr.
Hopkins took the license from them, and sent them on their way sorrowing. All from Jasper. W. J. McMahan gets off a good joke on Esquire Hopkins about it.
A brakeman had his leg cut off by the cars, near Shellmond, Monday.
Died, in Doran's Cove, a few days ago,
Mrs. W. D. Payne, an excellent lady.
J. W. Alley is moving up near Bridgeport.
Died, in Stevenson one day last week
Mrs. Cameron, the beloved wife of Rev.
Mr. Cameron. She was an estimable lady, and her husband has our sympathy in his sad affliction.

M. GROSS.

Mar 23 Yesterday.
1889 Rev. E. J. Stockton, of Parks
Store, was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. E. H. Stockton returned Tuesday from a two months' visit to relatives in Texas. He was well pleased with the country.
