For Tax Assessor.

B. F. Shook, of Langston has announced his candidacy in The Citizen this week for the office of Tax Assessor. Mr. Shook is at present one of the pike road commissioners and is one of the best known men in the county. He will make a splendid officer if elected, as he is thoroughly qualified to fill the position.

—Rev. R. D. Shook, Rev. Alfred Willis, Rev. W. W. Thompson, and
S. W. Frazier represented Jackson county at the Alabama Synod of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, which convened last week in Birmingham.

Obituary:
Died at the home of her son, James P.
Shook, All-boro Ala., on the 7th inst.
Mrs. Mary Shook, aged 75 years.

The deceased was born near Winchester, Franklin county, Tenn., her father, James Keith, being one of the first settlers of that county.

She professed religion when young and joined the Cumberland Presbyterian church of which she was a devoted member at the time of her death.
As a wife and mother she was a woman of great industry and piety; and as a partner in rearing a large family experienced very many great anxieties and sorrows.

During the late war, Nov. 1863,
she was deprived of her husband, John Shook, who was long a citizen of Jackson county, Ala.
who died from exposure and insult at the hands of those invaders who spoiled the beauty and joy of so many Southern homes.

The writer visited her a few days before her death, and though she was so emaciated by old age and disease as to be little else than a skeleton, she was full of faith, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost and spoke of her departure with the greatest composure, and assured us in the most positive terms that she was ready to depart and be with Christ. Our stay with her was necessarily short, so after reading to her some of the exceeding great and pious promises of the Bible, and pouring out our soul to God in prayer, with a heart overflowing with deepest emotions, we bade her farewell to meet on the "other shore."

Good-bye, dear mother,—rest
on from thy pains and sorrows.
Thy work is now done, you are gone. The name of a great preacher of the gospel taught me to love and serve God. Sought to inspire me with a desire to preach the gospel, lived and died in the faith of its glorious doctrins.

On the great day we shall rise up and call you blessed.

A SON.

Rev. R. D. Shook and family have removed to town. Mr. Shook is the agent for a bible company this year, and Scottsboro will be his headquarters. If any of our readers desire a handsome family
bible they should order from Mr.
Shook.

WM. L. SHELTON.

In the death of W. L. Shelton, announced elsewhere, this week, the community in which he lived have lost one of its best men and one whose place cannot well be filled. Mr. Shelton was son of Shepherd Shelton, whose five sons and five daughters met to celebrate their fathers 82nd birthday last spring. The deceased was the first of ten children to die. This large family have all lived in Jackson County, ever reputed sickly, for over forty years without a death. There was no man within our knowledge, more respected and relied on, by those who knew him best, for integrity of character and moral worth, than the deceased. His remains were consigned to the tomb in the family burying ground of the late Thomas Snodgrass, his father-in-law, near those of his wife and child, by the Masonic Fraternity, of which he was a much esteemed member. The large concourse of people that assembled with sorrowful faces to perform the last sad duty of interment, told more forcibly than we have language to utter, the high estimate in which the deceased was held by his neighbors.

On Thursday evening, last, Mr. John L. Shelton, who lived near Larkinsville, was instantly killed by a falling limb. He and other men were in the woods cutting down timber, and in falling a tree, by some means a large dead limb was broken off and hurled back towards where the men were standing. As Mr. Shelton looked up to note the direction of the limb it struck him above the left eye, making a considerable fracture in the skull. Mr. Shelton fell to the ground and only gasped two or three times, when all was over with him. Truly, we know not what moment we are to be hurled into the presence of the Supreme Ruler. Mr. Shelton leaves a wife and four children.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.
 Whereas the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, in whose hands are the issues of life and death, hath taken from us our true and much esteemed Brother, Wm. L. SHELTON, who departed life Sept. 28th, 1872, and who for many years has been truly a faithful and worthy member of Beliegate Lodge No. 82, F. A. M.
 Therefore resolved; That we, the surviving members of said Lodge bow with humble submission to this dispensation of God's Providence.
 2d. That we deeply deplore his death in which we have sustained with the community in which he lived, a great loss.
 3d. That we tender our warmest sympathies to his only surviving son, who now, is indeed an orphan, and we invoke the richest blessing of the Father, of the Fatherless upon him.

Mrs. Martha Hunt, widow of C. W. Hunt, was called to her heavenly home very suddenly about noon Monday last, no one being in the room at the moment. She ate with relish the dinner brought to her bed sitting up to do so, and replaced the dishes on a chair. Mr. Hunt came to her room a few moments later to know if she wanted anything else and noticed that she was lying very still and supposed her asleep, and went out. Coming back again immediately, his fears were aroused and he called to her, and getting no answer, felt of her hands, and the fingers were cold. Mrs. Hunt came in and she was called sharply and shaken, but there was no response as her spirit had taken its flight like the passing of a zephyr, yielding to some unknown extinguisher of the vital flame. Mrs. Hunt had been kept to her bed some time from feebleness of age, and just a few days before the summons came she expressed a longing desire that the end would not be far off.
 Mrs. Hunt was the oldest member of the Shelton family, so well known in this community, being a sister of Mrs. F. D. Hurt, Mrs. S. W. Frazier, C. C. Shelton, H. H. Shelton and Wood Shelton. She had long been a professing, practical christian, and a member of the Methodist church. Services were held at the home, conducted by Revs. M. P. Brown and I. B. Sargent and the body taken to the Shelton burying-ground for interment.

THE SHELTON CASE.
 Investigation Proved That the Young Man Died of Apoplexy.
 A sensational item appeared in an afternoon publication a few days ago that the police had discovered the murderer of Robert S. Shelton, who died mysteriously several weeks ago, and that the guilty party would follow shortly. The brother of the deceased, who has been in charge of the investigation ever since his brother was seen yesterday by a reporter in regard to the matter, stated that the matter had been in the hands of the police ever since Robert Shelton died, and that a very thorough investigation, which he, himself, had assisted in, had convinced that his brother had suffered no injury at the hands of any person, and that he had died of apoplexy, induced by an accidental fall down a flight of steps in the rear Fischer building on West 8th

THE CONFEDERATE DEAD AT POINT LOOKOUT.—The friends and relatives of the Confederate prisoners who died at Point Lookout will be glad to learn that Mr. D. O. Smith has in his possession a correct list of all those who were buried in the Cemetery set apart for the reception of their remains. This list was furnished Mr. Smith by the Surgeon of the Post before his departure. It embraces the names of all the Confederates interred in the Cemetery, each name having a number attached which corresponds with the numbers on the head boards marking the graves. By this means the bodies, even now, in the dilapidated condition of the place, can be readily identified. A copy of the list is in this city, at the office of Mr. J. Wesley Smith, Secretary of the London Park Confederate Memorial Association, and one of the firm of Smith & Brothers, Booksellers, No. 157 West Baltimore street. It can be seen upon application.

Mr. L. G. Smith, of St. Mary's, whose farm adjoins the Cemetery, has kindly volunteered, upon the receipt of instructions to that effect, to forward to their proper destination the remains of any of the Confederate soldiers interred in the Cemetery, charging simply the actual cost of removal.—Baltimore Gazette.

Died, at Smith's Chapel, September 25th, 1879, Mrs. Ann Epse Smith, wife of Mr. Preston Smith, aged 50 years, 4 months and 7 days. She was a good Christian lady, and is now singing sweet anthems with "loved ones gone before." Her husband has the sympathy of his friends and relatives in his irreparable loss. The funeral discourse was preached by Rev. W. T. Andrews, and many sorrowing friends followed her remains to the last resting place.

Mrs. Parham of Chattanooga, Tenn., widow of F. A. Parham, the editor of the Chattanooga Gazette, the first paper ever published in Chattanooga, was on a visit to her cousin, Mrs. W. G. Stewart, during the holidays, and left for Corinth, Miss., yesterday morning. Likely it is not generally known, even in the great city of Chattanooga, that a personage of such note as Mrs. Parham is a resident of the city. The Gazette, the pioneer publication of Ross' Landing, was established by F. A. Parham in 1837, who continued the publication until 1861, or perhaps later.

Mr. Jesse Flaught and bride, nee Miss Nannie Moore, of Como, Miss., are visiting the family of Mr. Wm. G. Stuart. The bride visited Scottsboro a few years ago, and made a number of friends here. They are a handsome couple.

A paragraph appearing in this paper on the 2d inst., in reference to the visit of Mrs F A Parham, of Chattanooga, to relatives in Scottsboro, and the mention of the fact that she is the widow of the editor of the first newspaper published in Chattanooga — the Gazette — drew the Daily Times out on the matter, and in a search instituted by that paper a copy of the Chattanooga Gazette was found in possession of Hon Wm. Cantelero, from which The Times of last Sunday made several extracts of local items and advertisements away back in 1859. The Gazette was established in 1836, and suspended in 1859.

—Died, in Scottsboro, Tuesday evening, September 24th, 1869, David Larkin, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Stuart, aged fourteen months. The grief stricken young parents have our sympathy in their bereavement. Christ said: "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

Mr. James P. Stuart left this morning for Pine Bluff, Ark., where he goes to take charge of the mercantile business of the late Thomas Keith, as a representative of Mr. P. W. Keith of this place.

We regret to learn that the bright and beautiful little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. K. Spiller, of Bridgeport, died of Cholera Infantum on Friday last. The sorrowing parents have our sincere sympathy.

Dear Mrs Proctor:

Thanks for your prompt reply to my inquiry.

I had a chance to go to Jackson this past week, and for two days was in State Historical dept, and if I had just known some county to search for your Harris data. I did read up in family histories all I could find about the Harris but that was mighty little. I enclose couple of sheets that I wrote out, I know sometimes the least bit of information gives you a clue to work on.

I think my family must have been related to Larkins, by my grandfather, my father and my oldest brother being named Larkin.

I'm going to Washington in the spring, maybe sooner, and I spend most of days in DAR Library there, they have so much from every state, and I'll keep your Harris line in mind. Being 82 sometimes I just hardly knew which way to turn to find information for you.

It interesting work looking up family histories, I belong to some patriotic societies and have for 30 years, but would so like to know more about the Kellys. I know they lived in Madison Co, Ala and New Market, my grandfater L A Kelly married Mary McAdory in Madison county. But I cant find his father and mother. But I'll keep on looking do you know any one in Wedowee, Randolph county. I wrote over there but got no reply. The name Hirma Harris should be easy to trace, if you can ever get what county or town he was in or where he taught. Have you written Clerk in Bedford Co for information on Harris family,

If I ever seen any referene, I'll copy same for you.

Yours very sincerely, with thanks for your Kelly information.

My Dear Mrs Proctor:

I notice in an old Gen Helper that you were asking for information of the Kelly family of S.C and am writing to see if you found any Kelly by the name of Christopher.

My father's name was Larkin Alphonso Kelly, Jr and his father the sr. and he think my great grandfather was Christopher, and he found where a Christopher Kelly married in Charleton, S.C. and he found where one Christopher was born in Va, and we found one Christopher in Wedowee Ala. So far we not been able to find the parents of either of these.

(My granfther Larkin Kelly married a McAdory of S.C. though he married her in Madison Co Alabama.

I will appreciate any thing you may tell me, and if you'll give me some of given names of Kellys in your line, I'll look thru my files and see what I can give you.

Thanking you,

Dear Mrs. Proctor,

I saw your ad in the 1951 GHelper on the Kirby and Davises of Tenn. I hope that you are still working on genealogy, as I am trying to trace these families too.

The Davises are on my side. Harvey Davis of Hermitage, Tenn. He had 4 sons, Thomas, Samuel, James, and J. et., and 2 daughters, Sarah, who married a Mr. Everette, and Elizabeth, b. ca 1775-80, who married Mr. Joel Riggs in 1807. Their oldest son, James W. proe Riggs b. 1808 was my g-g-af. He migrated to Texas.

Joel Riggs was from NC, and in the 1830 Navarro Co, Tex. census, James W. says that his mother was also b. in NC. (E. K. Riggs)

I do not know who Harvey Davises wife was, his age, or where he was born, or his parents. Do you have any information on this family???

The Kirbys are my husbands ancestors. Frances Kirby, b. ca 1795-1800, in either Virg. or Eng. Married Robert Bristor in Virg., and they migrated to Tenn. I don't know where in Tenn., tho'. Their children were:

Benjamin Kirby Bristor, a surveyor who went to Tex. and was killed in an Indian raid

Caroline

Letitia, m. a Conner in Miss.

Mary

Rebecca, m. Donald Smith in Marshall Co., Miss died in 1855.

Louisa Coleman, b. 1827, m. bro-in-law, Daniel Smith in 1857, Marshall Co., Miss. They moved into Pontotoc Co., which became Union Co., Miss. D. S. Smith's middle name was Guyton. Have heard that the Guytons, and Smiths and Bristors were all neighbors back in Union Co. SC.

Robert Bristor, b. 17894 Va. husband of J. Kirby, married after J. K. died somewhere in Tenn., to a widow Mays. They are in the 1840 census of Marshall Co, Miss.

In your Kirby information in Tenn. are there any Bristors living close by?

I hope that you are still interested in genealogy. Perhaps we can be of help to each other. Which branches of the above families are you working on? If you are interested in our lines, will be glad to send you more detailed information.

Will be anxious to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Nancy K. Kenfield

Mrs H. K. Resnick

P.S. I've assumed a good deal of the scattered pieces of information I've gathered about the Kirby family in Tenn. I've seen them in the census records and in the pictures of the family. I've also seen them in the pictures of the family. I've also seen them in the pictures of the family. I've also seen them in the pictures of the family.

She also leaves several grandchildren and a great grandson.

Mrs. Campbell was a native of Langston community, a member of one of the oldest families of that area. After moving from Langston the family resided in Scottsboro a number of years at their residence on East Willow Street until moving to Fackler to make their home, where Mr. Campbell is in the cotton and gin business. During her years of health she was very active in the work of her church and held the friendship of all those people who knew her wherever she lived.

She bore many long months of suffering with great Christian fortitude and in her passing the sympathy of many, many friends goes out to the husband, who has also been ill for some time, and the bereaved family.

SCOTTSBORO, AL.

J. J. Campbell, 80, Buried At Langston

Jesse Jenkins (Jenk) Campbell, age 80, prominent pioneer citizen of Langston, died at the Holy Name of Jesus Hospital in Gadsden on August 31, 1951, at 6:30 p.m. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at the Langston Methodist Church with Dr. O. L. Minks and Rev. Akins officiating. Burial followed in the Langston cemetery with Word-Yates-Bolton in charge. The funeral was attended by a crowd of hundreds of relatives and friends.

Mr. Campbell leaves his widow, Mrs. Lenora Campbell, of Langston; three daughters, Mrs. Seaborn Vaught and Mrs. Gordon Foster, of Scottsboro, Mrs. J. F. Rayne, of Akron Ohio; five sons, Marvin Campbell, Section, Grover Campbell, Chattanooga, S. T. and Bud Campbell, Scottsboro, Paul Campbell, Kentucky; one brother, Turner Campbell, Scottsboro; six sisters, Mrs. Lou Raines, Tenbroeck, Mrs. Maggie Tucker, Rainsville, Mrs. Jep Pope, Detroit, Mrs. Ida Cain, Fyffe, Mrs. Bessie Brown, Fyffe, Mrs. Mary Frances Smalley, Fyffe. He also leaves 17 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

The deceased was a most progressive and energetic man and engaged in the gin business, the sawmill business and farming, devoting most of his later years to farming. He was a most friendly man, who liked to make friends, and was one of the most accomodating and charitable men ever in his community. His wife has been an invalid confined to her bed the last 23 years and he constantly and tenderly cared for her with devotion and labor.

He had lived to see his family reach unusual success in life and business and to see his children and grandchildren become leaders in their work and communities.

The passing of J. J. Campbell removes a historic landmark of Langston for he made that place his constant home through the many years of both prosperity and adversity. He loved Sacred Harp singing and attended every singing he could reach during all the later years of his life. He was a most liberal contributor to all religious and civic causes. In fact, he was the kind of a citizen on which a community depended and he will be missed in Langston. His life had been long and useful and as he had loved Langston he wished to be laid to rest there among the many fine citizens who had gone before him in the passing years.

Our friend John G. Sanders, Esq. of Mud Creek, was in town yesterday, and called round and squared up all arrears, remarking that he thought he ought to get the warm side of himself to us once in a while, and that he wanted, by all means to avoid being classed with the "no accounts." By the way, Esq Sanders remarked that there was danger of a loss of Maynard's Cove postoffice, as Mr. R. F. Proctor is talking of moving to this place. Mr. Sanders informs us that there is a large company who would be accommodated by the establishment of a post-office at Moody's mill, and that the increase of distance on the route from here to Estill's Fork would not exceed two miles. If there is no conflict at the store of Mr. Proctor they should have one at Moody's mill, by all means. 1870

SNODGRASS—On Sunday morning, the 21st inst., at the residence of Mr. Cary A. Staples, near this village, Col. Benjamin Snodgrass, aged about sixty years.

Colonel S. commanded a regiment in the Florida war, and at one time represented this county in the Legislature. He was a man of extraordinary native intellect and kind and generous hearted.

—The Chattanooga Times says that George Smith made his escape from the Trenton jail a few days ago. He was a Jackson county man, and was put in jail for killing a man in Dade county. Smith is said to be one of the Porter's Bluff house burners, and our people regret that he made his escape. The Times thinks he had outside help, as a brother of his was in town that day.

Our Bridgeport correspondent says that the notorious George Smith was captured last week by Georgia officials, and was lodged in jail at Trenton. He lived in Jackson county, and was accused of being one of the Porter house burners. It is said that he can be identified as being one of the party. Smith killed a man in Dade county, Georgia, two or three years ago and has managed to evade the law ever since. An effort was made by Sheriff Robinson and posse to catch him some weeks ago, but he got away.

—The Citizen returns thanks to John D. Freeman for an invitation to the commencement of the Southern University at Greensboro, Ala. The invitation is gotten up in handsome style.

George Smith Captured

Through the kindness and promptness of our valued friend, Mr. W. A. Gaughney, of Bridgeport, we received the following telegram, in reply to a press yesterday. Will be published in our paper next week.

George, Andy, and young John are in Trenton Ga. jail, old John the father of the tribe has been arrested and two more of the young males of the Smith tribe were wanted. We are told that there can be no sense of security among the mountain people for property or even life while there is one of the males as big as a ground rattlesnake from the John Smith tribe must go.

—Some thief entered John R. Freeman's house a few nights ago, by climbing through a back window, carried his pants out on the porch, took the store key from his pocket, went to the store, unlocked the door, got the money-drawer out, took its contents, $15 in cash, then locked the door, leaving the key, and went his way rejoicing. It might have been worse, as the goods were not disturbed, so John and Charley are taking it philosophically, so to speak.

Mr. Daniel Freeman, father of C. S. and J. R. Freeman, of this place, is dangerously ill, at his home near town. Mr. Freeman is a most worthy citizen. We hope to hear of his early recovery.

2d. That we deeply deplore the untimely cutting off of his bright and generous life, and that we tender his bereaved family our sincere sympathy.
3d. That a copy of these resolutions be sent the Progressive Age for publication also that a copy be sent the family of the deceased.
F. A. Fackler, Ala., Jan. 5. 1888.

Death of John D. Freeman.
A telegram was received here Sunday afternoon announcing the death of John D. Freeman, at his home in Wagoner, I. T. Mr. Freeman was the victim of smallpox. Previous to his illness he had written to his relatives here about the number of cases there, and spoke of a man having just been in his office who was broken out with smallpox, but said he was not afraid of it. Following the letter came a wire from his wife announcing that he had it in the worst form. It was no trouble to secure medical attention and nurses as so many there have had it, and they regard it as we do, a very common illness, but the patient was wildly delirious and very ill from the beginning.
The funeral occurred Monday afternoon at Wagoner, where Mrs. Freeman will remain till all danger is over. Feb. 28, 1881
John D. Freeman was the only child of our townsman, Chas. Freeman. About six years ago he married Miss Annie Skelton of this place and has since lived in Wagoner, Indian Territory, where he was a leading attorney.
We understand Mr. Freeman's life was insured for $5,000.

UNCLE SHEPPY—A FAMILY REUNION—The sons and daughters of our venerable friend, Shepherd Shelton, with their wives, husbands, and children forty in all, met at his residence, near this place, on Sabbath last, to celebrate his eighty-second birthday.

Our gratification at being remembered and assured that our presence was desired by that respectable and worthy household, is equalled only by the regret we feel at having been absent and thus lost the pleasure of an acceptance of the kind invitation and the honor of an attendance as a faithful guest, on such an interesting occasion. All the children, twenty number, with their wives and husbands and the grandchildren of this aged and honored sir were present, except Mrs. Hester, wife of H. H. Shelton, of this place, who was prevented by sickness. At our table sat the father and five sons, and another sat the aged mother and five daughters. Judging from the abundant supplies of most rare and excellent viands that reached the fireside of the Herald, with messages of kindness from various members of the family and what we learn beside, we feel authorized to say that it was one of the most elegant dinners that was ever served up in our noble old county. The sons of Mr. Shelton are C. C. Shelton, of the firm of Shelton & Reynolds, Chattanooga, Tenn., W. L. Shelton, of Bellefonte, J. A. and H. H. Shelton, of this place, and W. T. Shelton, of Larkinsville. The daughters are Mr. Letitia, widow of the late David Hunt; Mrs. Jane, widow of Joseph Phillips; Mrs. Martha, wife of C. W. Hunt, Mr. Mary, wife of Frank Hurt, and Mr. Amanda, wife of S. W. Frazier. Mrs. Julia Shelton, wife of John A. Shelton, who our readers will bear in mind as our poetic friend, the gifted "Laura Lorrimer," was present and expressed herself in the following beautiful and touching lines which need no eulog from us:

EIGHTY TWO.

In narrowing circles sweep the years,
And who may say them nay?
Not even a monarch's power can hold Remorseless TIME at bay.

From brow and cheek and eye alike,
Youth's gleaming light departs,
And often cold and fireless leaves
The altars in our hearts.

But Time, although his touch has turned Thy once dark locks to gray,
Has brought thy children here to greet
Once more thy natal day.

Ten, upon earth and one, above,
The links in Love's bright chain—
Still burn they clear, and woo thee back
To dreams of youth again.

Good bye must come, for earth, alas!
Is not a Paradise,
Beyond the far Eternal hills,
Alone, are no good byes.

IN MEMORIAM. 1874

W. L. SHELTON AND MRS. E. J. PHILLIPS.

The wintry sky looks down to-day
Upon two graves. On the red clay,
So bare and bleak, nor grass, nor bloom
Tells love has watched beside each tomb.

Yet till the gentle spring-time hours
Bring their fair offering of flowers,
I lay beside the sacred shrine,
This point memorial song of mine.

Dear Sister, in my heart, to-day,
Thou livest still, though mortals say
That thou art dead. But oh there be Some living far more dead to me.

Where angel pinions come and go,
O'er thy fields of billowy snow;
Where blooms the fadeless asphodel;
Where never echo comes to tell

Of sin or death, thou roamest now,
The victors wreath upon thy brow,
Which erst a crown of sorrow bore,
And Heaven has one angel more.

My Brother, not in blood, but love,
Thou sleepest well. Storms sweep above

Thy resting place. Suns rise and set,
Moons grow and wain, and yet, and yet

Thou wakest not. I can but sigh,
With tearful eyes, would it were I,
I, from whose sky sweet faith and trust
Have crumbled into shapeless dust,

I, frail and sorrowful, for whom Hope's fairy flowers no more may bloom,

Alas! for me it had been well
If mine had been that double knell.

For thee the earth had joys in store,
For me it has but little more,
How much of grief ah! who can tell
But He who "doeth all things well?"

Ah, would this broken life of mine
Could with its loss have purchased thine

Vain, Vain that wish, but mayest thou stand,
Redeemed and pure, at God's right hand

When that great awful day shall flame,
Which, bowed to earth, I scarce dare name.

Laura Lorrimer.

Several friends - W. G. Gregory, J. N. Kyle County Treasurer has been confined at home and kept from his office for several days on account of the dangerous illness of his sister.

W. T. Kirt has been appointed Sheriff of Jackson county, in all the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of J. P. Rose, by the Governor. We think Mr. K. will make an excellent Sheriff and that his appointment will give general satisfaction.

For much credit cannot be given Mr. Frank Kipphack for what he has done for Dyer's foot. He was instrumental in getting up the new company which justly rewarded him with the management of that plant. Under Mr. Kipphack's supervision work will progress as never before. He is likely by all and the company could not have made a better selection as its general manager.

Mr. S. V. Blythe, Mr. T. J. Kennedy and Miss Josie Wright. The bride is a charming and lovely young lady, and Tom has received a number of congratulations on his good luck. Mr. Kennedy was reared in Scottsboro, and is a high toned, young gentleman. We wish them much happiness and prosperity.

Mr. W. S. Lively of McMillenville, Tenn., last week and for the graduation of Mr. Lively's many friends in Scottsboro and Jackson county. Mr. Keith requested us to state that he is doing a most prosperous business in the manufacture and sale of furniture and the undertakers business, and that he has not outgrown the geniality that characterized Bill Lively in days gone by.

was made himself manifest in the million of two couples. On last Wednesday evening Miss Fessie Cowan was joined in marriage to Mr. F. O. Knolton, the Rev. T. D. Spook being the officiant.

These young people start out in life with fair prospects. The bride is one of Jackson's fairest daughters. Her father, Captain Henry Cowan, is our genial and accomplished postmaster, was a gallant soldier in the Confederate service, and has always taken a prominent part in county politics. Miss Fessie, although she has only lived among us for a short while, has by her amiable disposition and gentle manner endeared herself to a host of friends who wish her a happy voyage through life. The groom is a prosperous farmer and timber man of Paint Rock Valley. We congratulate Mr. Knolton upon winning so fair a flower and hope that the winds of fortune may blow that to him she may grow rare and precious with she shall become that creature which God intended when He made a help-mate for man. May their lives be contented, prosperous and happy.

Not satisfied by making depredations in the city, the blind god has shot his arrows in the suburbs, and as a consequence the millionaire, John H. ATTENDANTS:—Mr. E. G. Elliott and Miss Ella McIlheran, of Winchester, and Mr. R. S. Skelton and Miss Lizzie Snodgrass, of Scottsboro.

The ceremony was performed in a beautiful and impressive manner, after which hearty congratulations were showered on the gallant groom and his lovely bride. Supper was then announced as being ready, and a dozen couples at a time repaired to the dining room, where a sumptuous feast was spread. Right here language fails us to do the subject justice. Mrs. Brown understands the culinary art to perfection, and she had a table filled with substantial, delicious and palatable eatables, which would have tempted any epicurian taste. The writer never enjoyed a supper more, and all pronounced it one of the best feasts ever spread in Scottsboro, and that is saying a good deal.

PRESENTS:—The bride was the recipient of the following presents:

However, we will add that he would make some girl a good living.

The first party of the season was given by Dr. M. Graham, last Friday night in his new and commodious residence, about one hundred persons were present, and every thing went off splendidly, good music was provided, and dancing was kept up until daylight commenced to dawn; the supper prepared for the guests was deserving of special praise, no expense was spared, but the long table was loaded down with good things; altogether the affair was a perfect success, and Dr. Graham and wife will long be remembered by those who enjoyed their bounteous hospitality.

The bridal party of Dr. J. M. Cotnam, who on Thursday last was united in wedlock to the pretty and accomplished Miss Ellen Jones of the South side, were at the party affording all present the pleasant opportunity of saluting the fair bride.

Dec 18-1873 MORE ANON.

Miss Fannie Snodgrass.

The Opelika Times of last week has this to say about Miss Fannie Snodgrass, the rising literary star of Alabama: During the past week our city was honored by the presence of the talented Miss Fannie Snodgrass, who has won an enviable literary reputation. She is the daughter of the Hon. A. Sumner, proprietor of the Scottsboro Herald, and is a private editor. It was our good fortune to form her acquaintance, and I confess my astonishment, for instead of meeting, as I expected, with a middle-aged lady, I found quite a young lady, just budding into womanhood, and pleasing to look upon, as she was delightful to converse with. Now, I trust I shall not offend the lady readers of the Times when I give publicity to the fact that there are a large number of "God's best gift to man" who seem to think that the mysterious member called a tongue, was only made to create sound, and the mouth a useless instrument except for rendering victuals invisible. Such are very fond of dress, and are mostly made up of boldness, silks, satins, love hatred, horse hair, whalebone, paint, gum elastic, bear's grease, smiles, tears, jealousy, and are very fond of everything in the world's great toyshops. It is, therefore gratifying to occasionally meet with one who by her conversational powers, gives proof of the fact that the tongue was made to turn thought into sound, and the mouth to make ideas audible. Miss Snodgrass is destined to take high rank among the female writers of the South, and I sincerely wish her every success through life.

LITTLE INAH KATE SMITH.

[FOR THE AGE.]

On the morning of February 17th a bright little light was extinguished in the home of Jesse L. and Ada Smith, by the death of their little two year old daughter, INAH KATE. After several weeks of intense suffering, borne with most extraordinary patience for one so young, the merciful, child loving Jesus took her sweet little spirit home to Himself, leaving to her grief-stricken parents only the boon of fondly cherished memories of her merry laugh, gleeful spirit, innocent romps and childish prattle.

To you, fond parents, permit me to say,—

The bud you prized and deemed all your own,
Has been borne beyond earthly shades,
Where you may find it in glory full-blown,
Where no blooming flower ever fades.

Mr. Will Sherill (as it should have been mentioned at the time of the notice of the death of his mother, Mrs. Dodson,) was very attentive to her during a long illness at her home near Limrock and at Atlanta where she died. Regard and care for parents is a noble trait for all.

Mrs. Mary Dodson died in the 76th year of her age, near Boyd Switch in this county, on the 7th inst. The deceased was the wife of Wm. Dodson, who died on the 10th of May last.

They came to this county 54 years ago.

DOWN THE VALLEY!

LIMROCK.

Boyd's Switch holds its own, with hopes of the future. It is the metropolis of Caney Cove, and has the largest and best known lime furnace in North Alabama, if I mistake not, only one kiln is ablaze, but the other is to be rebuilt. Immense stacks of rock and wood lie near. Mr. Gentle the lessee, has cleared the plain below of trees to feed the furnaces. It is not known to what use he will put the land; perhaps he may divide it into town lots and look for a boom. He is a stirring man and a good manager.

I had the pleasure of lodging with Bachelor Hurt in his cottage under the walnut boughs, and to meet at the family table, Mr. Will, Miss Emma and Mrs. McClendon, all of whom make people feel glad when under their roof. Mr. McClendon went to bring the body of Mrs. J. P. Dodson home. She died in Atlanta on the 4th, and was buried the next day, Rev. W. A. Stone, of Gurley, conducted funeral services. She was a second wife of Mr. Dodson, and came from Cherokee county; her father's name was Sherill. The Dodson estate was once firm, but it fell into the hands of the mortgager, and perhaps there is not much to be distributed now. Mrs. Jesse Coffey is a daughter of his, and from her residence the funeral train started.

I took a flank ride a mile or so into Caney Cove to see Magistrate Grundy Petty in the cedars. He was gathering corn, or nubbins, as he said, the excessive rain of last summer having cut the crops in the cove fifty per cent short. He was more thankful for what he does get perhaps, as the scarcity of things makes them the more valuable. Mrs. Petty was at her daughter's a few miles off, who is quite sick, but Miss Bettie filled the place of hostess admirably. The notary and exofficio said he would be at Scottsboro soon and thinks he may yield to the requests of many in his district to stand for Commissioner. Well Grundy is a patriot and trustworthy.

Cleveland has an efficient member of his administration in Postmistress Maloney.

Joyful Wedding Bells.

At nine o'clock last evening in St. Luke's church, the marriage of Dr. Elbert Hays to Miss Irene Dunlap Snodgrass was solemnized, Dr. W. T. Morris, of Cullman, Ala., officiating.

The church was elaborately decorated with festoons of roses, banks of ferns, palms and potted plants, and it presented a scene of rare beauty when to the strains of Mendelsohn's Wedding March the bridal party entered.

The bridesmaids, four of Scottsboro's fairest daughters, Misses Zaida Brown, Irene Moody, Pearl Caldwell, Margaret Parks, gowned in white organdy, carrying La France roses, passed up the left aisle, and were joined at the altar by Messrs. James Card, Robert Hipp, Hal Hurt and Chas. R. Gwyn. Then came the maid of honor, the bride's niece, Miss Vida King, a vision of girlish loveliness, in her fluffy dress of white, and immediately following her, on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. D. K. Caldwell, came the queenly bride, beautifully attired in white organdy, and carrying a handsome bouquet of white carnations and ferns.

From the opposite aisle advanced the groom with his best man, Mr. Curtis, of Cullman, and in the most impressive manner, the Episcopal marriage service that has united so many lives for weal or for woe, was read and two others had plighted their troth.

After the ceremony, they repaired to the home of Dr. C. Q. Beech, where a reception was tendered them. Elegant refreshments were served, and quite merrily the time passed in seeking to divine whom of the guests might be the next to fall a victim to Cupid's snares, or what unfortunate one might never hope to hear the wedding bells chime for him.

Dr. and Mrs. Hays left at eleven o'clock on the West bound train. They will visit the Omaha exposition and on their return will be at home to their friends in Cullman.

The bride, a daughter of the late Col. A. Snodgrass, belongs to one of the oldest families in the state, and to one noted throughout Alabama for the beauty of its daughters. With her long-lashed, expressive eyes and beautifully carved features, she fully sustains that reputation. Not for her beauty of features alone, but for her beauty of character, her goodness of heart, and her true womanliness is she dear to Scottsboro.

Dr. Hays is a prominent physician of his native town, and is also the popular and efficient postmaster of that place.

They carry with them the wishes of many hearts for their happiness and success in the new life before them.

LOCAL NEWS.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE.

It is our painful duty to give publicity to another outrage by disguised men in this county. An old man the name of Harper aged 76 years living between Mud & Crow Creek came to town on Monday last, and reported that several disguised men went to his house a few nights ago and beat and maltreated him in a most inhuman and brutal manner. He remains here and we are informed by those who have witnessed his condition, that an exhibition of his person, furnishes ample evidence that he does not exaggerate the brutal outrage. Upon his affidavit charging Howell Jones, John Mayhall and Hick Holder, as being with, and a part of the band, and a warrant issued by Esq. Trammel, our Sheriff Mr. Kirk, Dept. Sheriff I. W. Law and a small posse, took the train here on Tuesday evening, went to Facklers Station, got off and succeeded by 11 o'clock at night, in arresting all three of the above named persons; but the posse being worn out and exhausted and unable to procure fresh aid, two of the parties Jones and Mayhall, made their escape. Holder is now in Bellefonte Jail. Mr. Kirk, Sheriff, by the way a republican, reports that he is exceedingly gratified to find the community in which this outrage was committed unanimous, so far as he heard expression or could ascertain, in favor of the arrest and punishment of the guilty offenders. One of the accused parties is the son-in-law of the man who is the alleged murderer of old man Cates, near Bellefonte a few weeks ago. We will mention in this connection that the coroners inquest in the case of Cates and the citizens of Bellefonte and vicinity after two weeks patient and untiring investigation were satisfied from the evidence taken, that they had located the guilt of the cold blooded fiendish murder. The parties charged left the State or absented themselves and were believed to be beyond the reach of ordinary process, and that we are informed that Gov. Lindsay, was applied to, to have the authors of the crime brought back. Did Gov. Lindsay ever reply to the communication? If he took any action or gave any satisfactory reason why he did or should not, it would afford us pleasure to do him full justice in the premises. But on the other hand if Gov. Lindsay has suffered himself to be lulled into indifference by representations of parties and disreputable aims, that these demands in behalf of the suppression of lawlessness in this county are the mere clamors of radical politicians and their sympathizers, and consequently unworthy of his attention, we take this matter and ours for all admonish him and all others similarly deceived, that the good men of Jackson county are becoming fully awake to the fearful

On January 27th the following resolutions we read and adopted in open lodge.

Therefore be it resolved, that we as a body extend our heartfelt sympathy to the esteemed wife and children of our beloved brother. We realize that God alone can comfort them in their deep distress, yet let us as a lodge put forth every effort to console them in their bereavement.

Mrs. Sallie Henderson Dies In Scottsboro

Mrs. Sallie Snodgrass Henderson, age 81, died at her home in Scottsboro on October 29, 1954, at 7:15 p.m. The funeral was at the First Methodist Church in Scottsboro Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock with the pastor, Dr. Roy Hewlett, conducting. Burial followed in Cedar Hill cemetery with Scottsboro Funeral Home in charge.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. R. W. Schoenwald, Alexandria, Va., Mrs. W. J. Regan, Gary, Indiana; a son, Harry Moore Henderson, Scottsboro; a sister, Mrs. Margaret Parks, Chattanooga; She also leaves two granddaughters and a grandson and one great grandchild.

Mrs. Henderson, who was lovingly known to several generations of Scottsboro friends as "Aunt Sally," was the widow of the late Harry M. Henderson, Sr., who died several years ago. She was a daughter of David and Betty Cotten Snodgrass, pioneers of Scottsboro community, and had spent most of her life in this community. She had been a member of the Methodist Church since early girlhood and one of the most regular attendants of all church services up to the time ill health prevented her partaking of the activities of the church. For some time her sight had been failing and she was almost blind at the time of her death.

"Aunt Sally" was a most unusual woman in many ways. She had a bright and cheerful spirit and personality and sparking wit. Her life was completely wrapped up in love and devotion for her family and the ever vigilant service for her Lord and Master. She was a wonderful neighbor and was loved by all those with whom her life came in contact. During her long and useful span of years she gave a lot into life and also got a lot out of living. She was interested in the welfare of all those around her and shared with them in her spirit their sorrows and their happiness. Her passing truly removes one of Scottsboro's oldest and most beloved citizens and the community joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved children and family, for "Aunt Sally" will be missed and remembered here.

Memorial services in respect to the late Rev. Phillip L. Henderson were held in the Methodist church, in Scottsboro, last Sunday night.

The weather was propitious for the occasion and the moon shone brightly. The house was crowded to its utmost capacity, the friends of the lamented dead having come forth to participate in the commemorative exercises.

After a song, Rev. J. C. Brown read two appropriate chapters, then gave out a hymn and knelt in prayer. This eloquent young divine delivered a beautiful and impressive prayer, invoking Divine protection upon the bereaved and stricken family, praying that God Almighty would console them in their affliction, that they might be shining lights in the Christian world, and finally meet their loved one in Heaven.

The audience then sang another beautiful song, after which the Rev. T. B. Parks, pronounced a fitting eulogium upon the deceased. He spoke of his sterling Christian worth; of his indomitable ministerial perseverance and punctuality, how he was loved by the children. He said that he had been intimately associated with the deceased, had never seen a more devout man, and one who loved the church more; said he was no sectarian, and when the spirit of Phillip Henderson took its flight heavenward, that a bright light had been extinguished.

After the singing of another good old Methodist hymn, our present pastor, Rev. W. T. Andrews, drew from his pocket a copy of the Decatur News, and read a touching tribute of Brother Henderson, written by the editor, Rev. L. Hensly Grubbs. It was beautiful, impressive and sublime, and many a sigh was sobbed while it was being read.

Rev. M. P. Brown then read the burial ritual service of the Methodist church, after which another hymn was sung.

Rev. Mr. Andrews made the concluding remarks and paid the last, and tribute to our former beloved pastor. After the singing of the Doxology, Rev. J. C. Brown pronounced the benediction, and the audience was dismissed.

The scene throughout the entire exercise was very affecting, which was evidence of the high appreciation in which the deceased was held in this community.

MARRIED.—On the 12th of February at residence of her father, near Huntsville, Miss Laura I Hewlett and Mr V A Underwood.

The bride is a daughter of Col T H Hewlett, and a sister of Mr Tom Hewlett of this place—a very lovely daughter of Madison.

On Tuesday of this week Deputy Marshal, Perry L Harrison, passed over the M. & C. road with a United States prisoner whom he had captured in Decatur. The prison, John Curtin, alias George Howard, is wanted in several states on charges of burglary, safe blowing and playing post office inspector. The same man was in Scottsboro last week surveying things about the court house and other places. We learn that he went from here to Larkinsville and played post office inspector there, and also at Gurleys, where he attempted to blow the safe in the express office. The man had in his possession a full kit of burglars tools, and a big gun. Marshal Harrison escorted him to Sptrenburg, South Carolina.

Miss Laura Harrison, of Larkinsville, who has been visiting at Mrs. J. R. Harris' for several weeks past, has returned home. Miss Laura made quite a reputation for industry during her stay in our town—a reputation certainly to be envied. It is well known that there are several aspirants for the heart and hand of this beautiful young girl. In this they show their good sense. For of the hand that despises work, be it ever so fair, we would say,

Young man, young man, beware of the day
When the broom-stick shall meet thee in battle array."

Mrs. Judge Speake and Mr. Mayhew, of Huntsville, are first cousins of Mrs. President Harrison. Mr. Mayhew will be remembered by the older citizens of Scottsboro as having taught school here about 1872. 1887

—Miss Corinne Hewlett returned from Arlington, Texas, a few days ago. She is much pleased with her trip.

Died—On last Monday, near Larkins Landing, of congestion, Williamson Hensly, Jr, aged fifteen years. 1887

DIED.
On Sunday the 22nd inst., Mrs. ANN HARRISON, consort of Johnson Harrison, Esq., after a protracted illness of many months. Mrs. Harrison was extensively known and much esteemed as a kind neighbor and true friend. She was a sister of Lewis Cunningham, formerly of Cherokee County.

Russell Harrison, son of the President, is quoted as having said last week: "Pa is getting durned tired of these office seekers." It is said that the President's grandfather, William Henry Harrison, who died in exactly one month after his inauguration as President, was killed by the persistency of office seekers. It is to be hoped that the grandson of his grandfather may come out better, and that he will have the fortitude to stand the "pressure."

The Robert Donald Presbytery will meet in Gurley, Madison county, on Friday before the first Sunday in April next.

W. D. Brown removed with his family to Bessemer, Ala, last week, and Miss Annie Martin will occupy the residence vacated by Mr. Brown's family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ashley, left last week for Mr. Robt. Hemtree's, near Bridgeport, on account of the severe illness of Mrs. Hemtree, Mrs. Ashley's mother.

The establishment in the rear of Age office is badly in need of attention, and unless the proper person attends to it immediately the city dads must declare it a nuisance and have it abolished.

The series of religious meetings commenced in the Methodist church last Monday, was indefinitely postponed on account of the illness of the pastor, Rev. D. W. Ward.

Dr. A. Boyd, who was at his old home in Larkinsville, on the sick list several days, returned to his post last Friday evening, and is now on his regular professional rounds.

Fifty out of the 100 true bills found by the grand jury were against parties in and around Scottsboro.—Stevenson Chronicle. And the remainder against parties in and around Stevenson.

Mr. Thomas H Hewlett, has removed with his family to Shelbyville, Tenn. Mr. Hewlett was for a long time an esteemed citizen of this community, and it is with regret that his many friends, and acquaintances here part with him.

Mrs. M. W. Ellis, the veteran milliner, left last night on a purchasing trip. It is her purpose to put in a large stock of well selected millinery goods as soon as she returns. She has procured the store-room formerly occupied by Dr. W. C. Wemacks drug store.

Death At Larkinsville.

Mr. Robert Hamlett died at his home near Larkinsville last night of hemorrhage of the lungs. He was one of the most respected men of the community. He was the father of W. W., S. W. and J. P. Hamlett, all well known railroad men.

We regret to hear of the misfortune of Mr. White Hamlett, as mentioned by our Larkinsville correspondent.

Died, in Tuscumbia, infant child of Mr. and Mrs. White Hamlett. The burial was near Larkinsville, this county.

OBITUARY.

Sleeping under the sod in Larkinsville cemetery lies all that is mortal of our much loved friend Sallie Hamlet.

Having recently learned of her death we are deeply pained to return to our old home of several years and find that she has gone from us forever here.

The writer, having been intimately associated with her in life, can truthfully say of her, "None knew thee but to love thee," she being gentle and forgiving, ready always to help bear some others burdens, to lighten some heavy heart, and speak words of comfort to the desolate.

Sallie was truly all that could be said of a good woman—she was a tender loving sister, a devoted daughter, and a true friend to the many who mourn her loss.

In heartfelt sympathy and Christian love we commend her aged parents, together with all the bereaved sisters, brothers and friends, to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build them up, imploring them to remember that God giveth, and God taketh away.

Sleep on, dear Sallie—sleep sweetly. We deplore thy untimely departure, but hope one day to meet thee in that bright home beyond the stars, where sorrows and partings come no more.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in thy grave so low—
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our songs shall know.
ONE WHO LOVED HER.

THE ALABAMA HERALD.

Scottsboro, Thursday, March 14, 1872.

LOCAL NEWS.

APPOINTMENT AND DELAY.—Our shipment of paper due on Saturday last, failed to reach us, and after waiting one day, we were compelled to print at a half sheet.

TEACHING.—We have had several sermons in our village, commencing on Sabbath last, and continued night since by the Rev. Dr. Sanders of Maysville, Madison County. Dr. Sanders is a Cumberland Presbyterian minister, a most affable man, socially, and a man of debility. The commendable good of his congregations and marked shown him, personally, are evidences of the high estimate placed upon him by almost the entire people of our village.

Mr. Dox will be a source of pleasure to many friends he has made here, to hear that he will visit our village again in the future on professional business, and will preach for them as often as they may manifest a desire to hear him during the time of his sojourn with us.

DANGEROUS ILLNESS.—We regret to hear that the Rev. R. D. Shook is dangerously ill, at the residence of Dr. McCord in this village.

Hon. P. M. Dox.

Hon. P. M. Dox has our thanks for numerous favors. We hope he has recovered from his recent illness.

PULPIT AND BELL.—Dr. Sanders appropriately appealed to the congregation at the new church on Saturday night last, to erect a pulpit and to elevate the fine new bell from its present locality, on the floor of the church, to a more appropriate and permanent position. Knowing the condition as we do, we think we have nothing in promising without a subscription, or securing individual pledges that our people would accomplish both these things to the full extent of the suggestion.

G. G. Grimmett, Esq., of East Fork, gave a "pop" call the other day.

Nathan Prince, from Big Coon, was in our sanctum last Monday.

Mr. Holman, of Woodville, came to see us the other day and talked some about the girls.

THE SOUTHERN INDUSTRIAL HERALD.

A. SNODGRASS, Editor.

Thursday, January 21, 1869.

OFFICE OF PROBATE JUDGE,
SCOTTSBORO, ALA., Dec. 17, '68.

In obedience to an act of the Legislature, approved on the 19th of October, 1868, which requires the Probate Judge of each County to designate some particular newspaper, which advocates "in its columns the maintenance of the Government of the U. S. and of the State of Alabama," as the official organ of the County; I, David Tate, Judge of Probate of Jackson County, hereby designate the Southern Industrial Herald as said official organ for said county of Jackson, in which all legal publications required by law shall be made.

DAVID TATE, Judge Probate.

A Man taken from Jail by Force.

We learn that a man the name of Ambrose Jones, recently committed to jail in this county under a charge of robbing John Shelton, agent at Bellefonte Depot, was taken from the jail at Bellefonte, on Saturday night last, by several men armed and in disguise.—
It is said that they presented their pistols at Mr. Moody, the jailer, and demanded the keys, and that his wife delivered them up to them. Whereupon they took out Jones, returned the keys and bade the jailer lock up the other prisoners. We do not know what the object of these men was, nor have we any information as to the disposition they made of Jones. We regret, exceedingly, that the law was not allowed to take its course. It is a great misfortune to the country that there is a seemingly growing disposition on the part of the people, in many places,
to take the law into their own hands,
and especially at a time when the causes, if any ever did exist, to justify such extreme measures are daily diminishing. We are not aware that there exists in this county any serious obstacles in the way of an effectual administration of the civil law. So far as we are informed, all our officers are ready and prompt in the discharge of official duty, and we lament the occurrence.

New Shelton Mills

Hungarian System,

REASONS WHY consumers should buy flour made only on THE HUNGARIAN SYSTEM, by the NEW SHELTON MILLS, Chattanooga, Tenn.

We guarantee our flour to be more nutritious, of even granulation and stronger; and to yield to the value of 58 1-2 cents more to the barrel than any other made; it having a delicious, nutty flavor, and will not become dry and tasteless like that ground on other systems.

Then why not use HUNGARIAN PROCESS FLOUR, and avoid the horrible suffering of dyspepsia, which is often caused by the use of fine ground, starchy, tasteless flours, that lie like so much lead on the stomach? We have abandoned our Roller Mill, upon which we formerly manufactured flour, and now use only the HUNGARIAN SYSTEM, on account of its superiority.

The many friends and relatives of Maj. J. C. Wall and wife, Stevenson, Ala., will be pained to learn that death has entered the family and plucked one of its brightest and most precious jewels.

Nannie Cotnam Wall, died at 1:30 p. m. August 2nd, 1833. Aged 13 years and 26 days.

Nannie was a lovely child, kind and affectionate to all, and, seemingly, the favorite of all who knew her. Her sickness was long and severe; for ten or twelve days she was unconscious, to her, it does not really seem that death was a relief. Her last hours passed without a struggle, and she sweetly fell asleep in Jesus. As I stood over her at College Cemetery, to speak words of comfort to the grief-stricken family, and of warning to the large crowd of sympathizing friends who gathered to cast a last, sad farewell look at her sweet face, and to mingle their tears together, I could but think how great the gift of a dear Savior who conquered death, and who has promised us that "all that are in their graves shall hear His voice and come forth," John IVc, 23c. Then how blessed to meet friends and loved ones in that land where "there shall be no more death." I would say, cheer up, weeping ones, your precious jewel is laid away in God's charnel house, a one of his precious treasures. One day death's iron gate will open and give up its spoil, then you

PEACEFUL PEACE OFFICER RETIRES—Former Jackson County Sheriff Henry Jones and Mrs. Jones enjoy sitting in the sun on the front porch of their new home in the country and looking at the blue ridge of the mountains across the valley. But most of the time they are busy with their chickens and flowers. Jones ended almost 20 years as a peace officer on Jan. 15 when he completed his last term as sheriff.

Henry Jones Lays Aside His Badge, Sheriff of Jackson County 12 Years

BY HAROLD TWITTY
Times Staff Writer.

SCOTTSBORO, Ala., March 2—The cackle of laying hens and the occasional purr of a passing automobile on the road down the green slope from the new white house are in sharp contrast with the rattle of jail cell bars.

The wind whispering through the pines brings smells of growing things and a whiff of the river where the crappie are beginning to bite. And these smells are different from those of stale alcoholic breaths of prisoners and the scents of men long unbathed.

It is a new phase of life for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones of Jackson County, Alabama. When Jones unpinned his badge Jan. 15, he had completed 12 years as Jackson County sheriff. He had also been chief of police of Scottsboro and was warden of the state prison for Women at Weetumpka, Ala., for four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Warren and family returned to their home in McCamey, Texas, after a week's visit with his uncle, W. J. Hartley and Mrs. Hartley.

On the Sand Mountain on the 19th inst., Dr. Notley M. Warren, aged about 65 years. Dr. Warren was twice elected to the State Legislature in DeKalb county, and was Register in the United States Land Office at one time.

Dick Warren, the colored man under charge of assault with intent to rape, was brought in from Huntsville on the early morning train yesterday—put upon trial immediately—witnesses examined, and case given to the jury and a verdict of guilty returned before 10 a. m. of the same day. That looks like business and makes a favorable impression on the minds of our people. We believe that the best thing each, and all the prisoners in our jail can do for themselves, is to come promptly to trial and accept the verdict of a jury on the evidence. The time for acquittals through delays, technicalities, proving that the truth is falsehood and falsehood truth, and through the manipulations of of juries is about over. Since the above was in type, Judge Speake sentenced Dick to the penitentiary, for ten years.

 and the bench presented such a "numerous" appearance that one of the lawyers addressed that body
 as "gentlemen of the jury." Messrs

Horrible Death.

Mr. C. H. Johnson, familiarly known as "Tough," of Greasy Cove, was killed and horribly mangled last Friday. He had started to work at one o'clock, and was riding his horse, which suddenly became frightened and threw
 Mr. Johnson off. His foot caught or got tangled in the gear, and the horse ran for about half a mile, dragging him, which caused him to be killed instantly. Mr. Johnson was about 39 years old and leaves a wife and relatives to mourn his sudden death. We extend our sympathies to the afflicted.

 one of the most popular summer

 purest water, both mineral and

On Earth One Hundred Years.

Mrs. Mary Jones, widow of Robert Jones, deceased, whose maiden name was Mary P. Wilson, born, raised and married at an early age in Virginia, the mother of thirteen children, eight of whom are still living, reached her one hundredth anniversary, which occasion was celebrated by a large collection of her descendants, kindred and friends of the family, at the old homestead in the upper end of this county, where she resides with her daughter, Mrs. Alley, on Saturday last. The children present were Miles Jones, of Georgia, aged 81; Malvina Allen, wife of Wm. S. Allen, of this county, aged about 70 years; Robert Jones, of Texas, aged about 68 years; Mary Alley, widow of Alex. Alley, deceased, of this county; Jack Jones, of Texas, aged 62 years; and Jane Graham, wife of Capt. F. S. Graham, of this county. Two of her living children, Pleasant, aged 83 years, in Missouri, too old to attend, and Armistead, of the same State, were not here. Among the grand-children of the venerable lady, best known to our readers, are the brothers and sisters of the late Capt. Jasper J. Jones, of this county, and Mrs. Dr. W. J. Rorex, and Mrs. C. S. Freeman, of our town. Out of near two hundred persons, who met and were entertained with an abundance of the good things of life, sixty-four were descendants, and those connected by marriage, to the centenarian.

LAND SALE FOR TAXES.

I will sell to the highest bidder for cash, before the Court House door in the town of Scottsboro, Ala.,

On the First Monday in May next, it being the 4th day of said month, for Taxes due the State and County of Jackson, the following described land, to wit: 1,400 acres joining J. P. Helton, W. I. Longacre and I. P. Russell, known as the W. A. Austin place, assessed to D. J. Jones and brother. Tax $108.50 besides cost.

JOHN R. KING, Tax Col.,

Miss Minnie Johnson, daughter of Mr. Johnson, of Bellefonte, is going to school to Mrs Henderson, and is boarding at Judge Kyle's. Mr. Johnson is the gentleman who recently moved to this county from Indiana. Mar 1878.

May 12 - 1877

We regret to learn that Mrs Annie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones, died in Chattanooga last Tuesday. Mrs. Jones and her two little daughters left Scottsboro last week for Chattanooga to join Mr. Jones, who had just rented a house there, and when Annie bade her friends good bye they little dreamed that in one week from that day she would be a corpse. Annie was a bright, cheerful, intelligent and beautiful girl, and we tender to the sorrow stricken parents our deepest sympathy. Annie's remains will be interred to-day at old Bellefonte.

MASONIC PROCLAMATION:

To all Free Masons and whom it may concern everywhere: Feb 15th

One Benjamin R. Franks, a member of Scottsboro Lodge, No. 359 F. A. M., committed a most atrocious murder, by shooting Jasper J. Jones, a good and peaceable citizen in the town of Scottsboro, Ala., on the 6th Feb'y., 1878, in the presence of a brother Mason, Mr William Whitworth, who bears testimony that the act was without just pretext and unprovoked.

It therefore behooves all good Masons, and good men of every order, to not only refrain from giving aid to said Franks, who is a fugitive from justice, but to contribute if possible to his arrest and delivery to the Sheriff of Jackson county.

We earnestly request newspapers to give the above an insertion, and thus aid the cause of justice.

Done, by of the Lodge at a call meeting, this 9th of Feb'y., 1878.

Tribute of Respect.

At a special term of the Court of County Commissioners of Jackson County, State of Alabama, held on the 5th day of January 1874, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our much esteemed and beloved fellow citizen Moses Jones, and

Whereas, It is proper that the Court of County Commissioners of Jackson County, (of which he was a member at the time of his death) should by suitable tribute attest its appreciation of his many good qualities of head and heart, therefore be it

Resolved 1st. That in his death our society has been deprived of one of its brightest ornaments, and this court one of its most honored members, true to the trust reposed in him, it should be our earnest desire to profit by the inestimable example he gave us while among us. It was not alone in the discharge of his duties in public life that his virtues shone brightest, but in all his relations of husband, father, member of the church, and citizen, the characteristics of a truly good man and gentleman were prominent.

Resolved 2. That the foregoing resolutions be ordered by this court to be spread on the minute book of said court in token of its love and respect for its departed member, and

Resolved 3. That the presiding officer of this court be requested to forward to the surviving members of his family a copy of these testimonials, with the heart felt sympathy, love, and respect of this court, and

Resolved 4. That the ALABAMA HERALD and the Jackson County Guard, be requested to publish the foregoing resolutions

In looking over the Franklin News lately, we saw where one of the young lady friends of our boyhood days, had sent editor White's wife a lot of "spare ribs." We thought then she was a charming girl, now we know she is a sympathetic, generous and superb woman. It is not every woman who sends an editor's wife and children something to keep them alive a while longer. God bless Mrs. Modena Alhman, nee Miss Modena Burgess.

MRS. PAPP'S H. BURGESS Mrs. Ida Hicks Burgess, age 91, died at her home in Goosepond community at 6:30 am. on April 26, 1885. The funeral was Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the home with Rev. Tom Linn, high pastor of the Methodist Church, conducting, assisted by Dr. O. L. Minks. Burial was in the Burgess cemetery with Word- Yates-Bolton in charge. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Cleveland Childress and Miss Dolie Burgess, both of Scottsboro, and several nieces and nephews.

Aunt Ida as she was known to everyone was always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need, and loved her home and friends. She was a devoted wife and mother and a friend to all, and loved by all who knew her. A good woman has gone to her reward.

LAW BOX, July 18th, 1870.

At a meeting of the voters of this District, on the 18th inst., Richard Burgess, Esq., was called to the chair, and J. J. Nes, Esq., being elected Vice President, and jointly appointed the object of the meeting, which was to appoint delegates to represent said district in the Convention to be held at Scottsboro, on Saturday in August. Capt. H. H. Robinson being called for, made a few happy and pointed remarks upon the political issues of the day, counseling moderation and conservatism, but with all prompt and manly action in the opening campaign by every citizen, who has the great good of his state at heart, irrespective of his former political associations or affiliations. The chairman being authorized by the Convention, then selected and appointed the following gentlemen to represent this District in the Scottsboro convention: Thomas P. Ashmore, J. P. Smart, R. L. Kirby (Sen.), Thomas Moody, James McKay. On motion, the chairman was added to the list of Delegates. Richard Burgess, Pres. E. McKay, Sec.

We received a card a few days ago from Joseph Burgess, formerly of this vicinity, but now of Tampa, Florida. Joe says that they have a heavenly climate down there, and some beautiful orange groves. He says that the scrofula in his throat is rapidly getting well. Joe went to Florida for the benefit of his health, and his many friends trust that the climate of Florida will be beneficial to him.

In the destructive cyclone that struck the city of Fort Smith, Ark. on the night of the eleventh, in which a score of lives were lost and a million dollars worth of property, the hotel belonging to Mr. William Burgess was destroyed, and among the debris was found the dead body of his wife, Mrs. Mary Burgess. This family is related to the Burgess family of this county. Mr. Burgess was away from home attending to business on his farm when the storm occurred. One of his daughters was also seriously injured.

From the Regions of Warm Sunshine, Balmey Breezes and Ever Blooming Flowers. We have a letter from Miss Mollie Goughly, formerly of Gadsden, but now of Riverside, California, dated on January 19th, which describes the beautiful country and alludes to its fruits and flowers. Its publication is, on account of its length, delayed until next week.

We have one of a somewhat similar character from our young friend, Jos. L. Burgess, now at Tampa, Florida, dated 24th January, which reached us the 30th, which we insert below: TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 24, 1883.

EDITOR HERALD:—Dear Sir, I received the HERALD of January 4th, this morning, in which I see an article in reference to my father's and friends' uneasiness from not having heard from me sooner. I arrived in Tampa on Dec. 2, and Dec. 3, I wrote home, and also on Dec. 10, 17 and 23. The card of the 23rd being the first they received. I wish to inform my friends that I would deem it most unkind to forget or neglect them in any such manner. It seems that the mails do not perform the functions for which they were designed, as it takes the HERALD from January 4th to the 24th to get from Scottsboro to Tampa, and the letters I wrote home on Dec. 3, 10 and 17, have not been received or heard of, so far as I know. However, dismissing that subject, I will say that this is a beautiful land decorated with flowers, so to speak, in January. Tampa, a town of some 1200 inhabitants, is a port of entry situated on Tampa Bay, having water communication with Key West, Havana and Vera Cruz, Mexico. A very live little town, the oranges being to the farmers here what cotton is to the farmers in Jackson county. Any one standing on the streets here, can see dozens of farmers driving into town with vehicles loaded with oranges. There are many nice groves in and around Tampa, which, in bearing, will sell readily for $1,000 per acre.

It takes from six to ten years for a grove to bear from the seed, but when budded, they tell me, will bear in from two to four years. The Banana, Guava and Pine Apple also flourish here, as well, also, as the cocconut, which has been successfully grown.

The climate is all that could be desired. In reality, we have no winter here, but continual summer, comparatively. There has been two or three light frosts down here, but with that exception the weather has resembled exactly that of May in Jackson county. The thermometer usually ranging from 65 to 82 degrees. I would advise all in search of a climate to come to this part of Florida. I am happy, also, to inform my friends that my scrofula of throat is getting almost well. I have gained 10 pounds in weight since I came here. I have lengthened out unduly and will close as I only started out to inform my friends that I had not totally forgotten them.

I know that four other gentlemen who came here at the same time I did, have not heard from home, although they, like myself, write, and have written every week. Please continue to send the HERALD. I was very agreeably surprised to find it in the office this morning. Hurrah for Gen. Wheeler and the Jackson county Democracy. Yours, &c., JOSEPH L. BURGESS.

MAY 2, 1885 MRS. PAPP'S H. BURGESS Mrs. Ida Hicks Burgess, age 91, died at her home in Goosepond community at 6:30 am. on April 26, 1885. The funeral was Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the home with Rev. Tom Linn, high pastor of the Methodist Church, conducting, assisted by Dr. O. L. Minks. James B. Dick, 1878. Near Scottsboro, Ala., died last week, little daughter of Mr. Sam Burgess, aged two years.

Mrs. Jessie Lee Burgess, age 24, of Pisgah, was drowned Saturday night, May 21, 1885 when the car she was driving left Highway 72 at Crow Creek and plunged into the lake waters.

In the car with Mrs. Burgess were Herman Bouldin, R. B. Pisgah, and Lee Cox, Pisgah, and Ova Lee Morelock, R. J. Pisgah. In the crash, the door on the driver's side was thrown open and was used by the surviving three to escape.

It was not learned until the car was pulled out of ten feet of water some two hours later that the Burgess woman had been thrown from the car. When the discovery was made, a bystander recovered the body almost immediately with a rod and reel.

Survivors were taken to Tri-City Hospital in Bridgeport but were released without treatment. The body of Mrs. Burgess was taken to Rudder Funeral Home in Stevenson and transferred Monday to Farmer Funeral Home in Fort Payne.

Investigating officers were Burwood Thompson and George Brakefield, along with Sheriff Anderson Knight.

...in the way of an upright and honorable gentleman, and by the way a man of fine native intellect and well informed was relieved from a terrible suspense by the receipt of news from his absent son, Joseph, in Florida, on Monday last. Joseph Burgess is an amiable, accomplished, and worthy young man with a feeble constitution, and started to the south on coast of Florida, with a hope of an invigoration of his constitution. He left a month ago with a promise to write every day or two. A communication was received on his arrival at Cedar, whence he was to sail next day to another point. His absence then for near a month filled the minds of his anxious father and only sister with the most agonizing forebodings. We rejoice with their many friends at the relief afforded by a communication informing them of the safety and well being of the son and brother.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Mary J. Hughes, daughter of Joseph and Rebecca Potts, and sister of our yard hostler, Jasper Pott, and Mrs. Burrell Wilson, also the wife of Folk Hughes, died at Cole City, Ga., the 2nd of May, 1890.

All her life she was what we might call good. When she was a girl she was a special favorite of all who knew her. She made a profession of religion about 1860, and joined the Missionary Baptist Church. Her life from that time was that of a devoted christian.

She had been an invalid for many years. She was a victim of consumption. The last year of her life she was a great sufferer.

Her patience and submissive endurance were such as to impress all who visited her the fact that there is an unseen power in the religion of Jesus which is sufficient to sweetly keep a christian, even in severe affliction. She realized that our God is not only the Father of Mercies, but "the God of all comfort," "who comforteth us in all our tribulations." She said she did not fear to die; she was ready.

She was about 42 years of age when she was called to yield her spirit back to God who gave it and go into the cold embrace of death. But she sweetly sleeps in Jesus. We expect to see her again in that "glorious dawn" when "death shall be swallowed up in victory."

To the beloved husband and only daughter and other relatives and friends we would say strive to meet her in that bright eternal Kingdom. There we expect to meet her, who was our beloved cousin, to part no more forever.

May the grace of God sustain, and His Holy Spirit comfort all those who are sorrowing on account of her death.

JOHN A. CARGILE.

Dr. J. M. Hudson died at his home in Maynard's Cove, near Tupelo, on Sunday night, of heart disease. The doctor's death was very unexpected. He had been slightly troubled with some disease of the heart a few days prior to his death, but was thought to be convalescing. At least he retired on Sunday night in good spirits, but by 9 o'clock he was a corpse.

Mrs. Nettie Horn, grand-daughter of our old neighbors and friends, Capt. Wm. Vinson and wife of Centre, in Cherokee county, died, leaving a new-born infant, one day last week. Jan 18, 1884

In Memory of Dr. J. M. Hudson

Dr. J. M. Hudson died suddenly of heart disease, June 15, 1890, at his home in Maynard's Cove. He was born in Greenville district, S. C., July 23 1825, and moved to this county more than thirty years ago.

He was a consistent member of the Missionary Baptist church a number of years. When in the vigor of life he faithfully performed his duty as a physician in the community in which he lived. He was kind and sympathetic to all to whom he was called to minister. His family is bereft of a friend, and the community a faithful physician.

There is consolation to know that in his life he realized sentiments through a living faith in the promise of God by adopting the sentiments of the poet in that solemn hour.

"O sing to me of Heaven
When I am called to die."

May the bereaved find consolation in the sentiment of the deceased, and live in hope of realizing that Heaven of rest that remains for the people of God. The community extends its heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

June 25 1890.

HAMMONS.

It is with sadness of heart that we record the death of this venerable and devout Christian, a kind and loving husband and father, a generous friend, a useful citizen, and an old confederate soldier, Bra. J. P. Hammons. He was born in Jackson County, near Bell Fonte, Feb. 23, 1836, and died at his home Jan. 23, 1898, at the age of 62 years. At the age of 20 he married Miss Sarah Reed, of DeKalb County, with whom he has lived happily for over 42 years, they having been blessed with a large family consisting of five sons and six daughters, all of whom mourn his loss. Bro. Hammons was a member of the M. E. Church for over twenty years. He was also an Odd Fellow, and one of the charter members of our local lodge of the Knights of Pythias, and although his chair is vacant in our lodge-room, yet it has pleased the Supreme Grand Chancellor, of the Universe to elect him as our first representative to that lodge which meets eternally in the skies. His life was that of a quiet, earnest, humble, Christian, unpretentious, modest, unassuming; yet he left an impress for good upon all with whom he came in contact. He lived to make few if any enemies, preferring often to suffer wrong rather than resist encroachments upon his rights. He had won the esteem and confidence of the people among whom he moved by his integrity, honesty and fairness in the daily business of this life. On his deathbed he was patient and murmured not at his great suffering and often said if it was God's will he was ready to die. His body was laid to rest in Bonaventure cemetery beside his little granddaughter who preceded him to that bright shore a few short months. The loss to the bereaved family is great, but we commend them into the the hand of him who doeth all things well.

Weep not for me my kindred dear,
I am not dead but sleeping here;
I was not yours but Christ's alone,
He loved me best, and took me home.
TOM HAMILTON.

think that street lamps can be maintained for nothing. If they are adopted it will create a new budget of expense to light twelve lamps. It will cost 1 1/2 cents per lamp each night, $1.26 per week, $5.04 a month, $60.50 a year; then, a lamplighter to light and keep twelve lights, 12 cents per night, will be $60.50, making a total of $121 per year, with some incidental expenses attached.

There are some parties wanting lights in front of their premises. Some of them propose to furnish the lamps and run them at their own expense. I am willing to maintain them at the corporation's expense when individuals will furnish the lamps.

is home at West Meade, near the city, for several days, and his death was expected. Since coming from Washington Justice Jackson had slowly declined, though at times it seemed that there was a chance of prolonged life, hope was abandoned on the morning of the day of his death which occurred in the afternoon. Lowell Edmunds Jackson was born in Paris, Tenn., on the 5th of April, 1812. In 1840 he removed with his parents to Jackson, and he graduated in 1848 at the Tennessee college. He spent two years in the University of Virginia. In 1856 he received his diploma at the Lebanon law school and began the practice of law at Jackson. In 1859 he removed to Memphis. He was then appointed judge of the State supreme court. On returning to Jackson in 1878, he was elected representative in the legislature. In 1880 he was elected to the United States senate from Tennessee, for the term beginning March, 1881, but he resigned in 1886. In March of that year he was appointed by President Cleveland as United States district judge for the western district of Tennessee. Afterward he was made associate justice of the supreme court by President Harrison.

The funeral of Justice Jackson took place this morning at Belle Meade, Tenn., Chief Justice Fuller, Justice Brewer and other Justices being in attendance.

The pallbearers were: Chancellor Thomas Malone, Nashville; Judge Charles N. Blachford, Lynchburg, Va.; Judge Charles E. Penney, New Orleans; Judge George E. Taft, Cincinnati; ex-Solicitor General Maxwell, Cincinnati; Chief Justice Snodgrass, Tennessee supreme court; Assistant Attorney General Dickinson, Washington, and H. M. Oakes, Nashville.

Chapel, Mrs. Jackson, wife of J. M. Jackson, a well-known and respected farmer. Mrs. Jackson was of the Earp family, of this county, and had reached the age of 91. She was a member of the Methodist church since her fifteenth year. Her body was buried at the Smith Chapel graveyard on Monday, and prayer was offered at the grave by Uncle Jimmie Maples.

ELIZABETH JACKSON, the widow of Elijah Jackson, who was a soldier in the war of 1812, receives a pension at the rate of $12 per month. She is one hundred and four years old and walks five miles, to Huntington, W. Va., every quarter to receive her vouchers. She is an inveterate smoker and declares she will live to be one hundred and fourteen years old.

Another Sad Death.

Lee Jackson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Jackson, aged three years, died last night with the fatal disease of croup. Little Lee was a bright, smart child, and a source of much pleasure to his parents. Loving hands cared for him tenderly until the good Shepherd folded him in his fond embrace, and took him from his sufferings to a bright and happy home above, where angels will be his guardians forever. 'Tis hard to give him up, but:

"All that's bright must fade—the brightest and the fairest; all that is sweet was made but to be lost when sweetest."

The parents, sore as the trial may seem, can find comfort in assuring themselves that while they cannot call their loved one back they can go to him. Funeral service will be conducted by Rev. J. H. Leslie, to-morrow.

Squire W. C. Hitch Dead.

Squire W. C. Hitch died on the road between here and Hitches' ferry on Monday last. The mail carrier found him lying in the road dying. He came to town and reported the matter. The coroner decided that an inquest would not be necessary. Dr. Naples was summoned to make an examination of the body and decided that death was from natural causes.

Squire Hitch was formerly a resident of East Tennessee and for a number of years has been a permanent citizen of this county, he was postmaster of Hitches postoffice, and was an intelligent good man, he has served his district as justice of peace for several years, and was strictly an honorable upright man.

Arthur Hawk

Arthur Hawk, who has been in jail in Birmingham the past ten days, was carried to the insane asylum last Monday. He would not agree to go quietly, however, before he baptised all the prisoners in jail, then only went when lead to believe that he was going to church.

On Friday, last, Dr. Roe, a dentist, stabbed and killed Henry C. Haralson, a lawyer, at Fort Payne, the county site of DeKalb county. The deceased was brother of the Hon. W. J. Haralson, former Circuit Court Judge of this District. His slayer had resided at Birmingham and Chattanooga. So far as we have learned there are no circumstances tending to show that the killing was wantonly in any of the elements of a fiendish murder. The deceased leaves a wife, daughter of Judge Standifer, of Gadsden, and five

REV. PHILIP L. HENDERSON.

A Charter Member of the North Alabama Conference.

The Gadsden Times-News, with commendable enterprise, published a daily paper during the sitting of the North Alabama Conference in that city last week. Among the prominent charter members sketched was Rev. Philip L. Henderson, who was pastor of the church at Scottsboro in 1878. A picture was given of Mr. Henderson, with the following biography:

The subject of this sketch was born in Henderson county, Tenn., June 17th, 1829. He was the youngest son of Alhira and Rachel Cheatham Henderson, who emigrated from North Carolina to West Tennessee at an early day. He was converted at the age of fifteen and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was educated at the Washington Institute near Nashville, Tenn., and while a student there or shortly afterward, was licensed to preach by Rev. A. L. P. Green, and in 1853 joined the Tennessee Conference at Franklin, was ordained deacon in 1855 and elder in 1857.

November, 3, 1858, he was united in marriage with Miss Lizzie Moore, daughter of Rev. Jordan Moore, a prominent and influential local minister in Todd county, Ky. He was actively engaged in the itinerant ministry for a quarter of a century and filled many important stations. While a member of the Tennessee Conference he was for several years appointed to charges in the North Alabama part of the conference, and his ministerial work in this section dates back nearly forty years. He took an active part in the educational work of the church, and aided largely in the establishment and support of Methodist schools and colleges.

He became a member of the North Alabama Conference at its organization in Gadsden in 1870, and was an active and honored member until the day of his death at Decatur, January 21, 1879. His widow still survives him and two of his children, H. M. Henderson, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. James Armstrong, of Scottsboro, Ala. The following beautiful tribute to his character is annexed, from the conference memoir written by Rev. J. S. Davis and read before the conference at Tuscaloosa, in 1879:

"Brother Henderson had a warm heart and was very kind and forgiving. He delighted to dwell in the atmosphere of affection. In manner he was courteous, affable and urbane. He was sincere in his convictions, and manly in his deliverances. He loved the church devotedly, and yielded a coram obedience to her doctrines and discipline. He was a man of fidelity and decision. As a pastor he was diligent, coniding and affectionate. As a minister he was earnest, eloquent and faithful, and often preached with much power and success. His nature was full

IN MEMORIAM.

REV. P. L. HENDERSON.

The friends of the Rev. P. L. Henderson, have heard with surprise and sadness of his death, which occurred Jan. 22nd, 1879. In Decatur, Ala. The wires announced soon after its occurrence the painful intelligence of the unexpected death of this "man of God;" and it touched every chord of sympathy in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. We know not how to fathom God's design in his sudden removal from earth, and we stand to-day mute and sad in presence of His mysterious providence.

Only a few short weeks ago he left this, his last pastorage, in health; today his body sleeps in peace awaiting the resurrection of the just. Pneumonia soon did its fatal work, and left a broken-hearted wife and children to weep over the last remains of a tender husband and generous father. Through Bro. Henderson's checkered and eventful life as a minister he bore an untarnished character and an honored name; and, now, though he is gone, his perseverance, punctuality and integrity stand as the imperishable monuments of his piety and devotion to God and the church. The strength and glory of his manhood was given to the ministry, and at the last he fell with his armor on. Full of tenderness for the crying; full of sympathy for the suffering and anxious for the peace of all men he labored on until the Master bid him cease and enter upon his reward. In the midst of adverse circumstances attendant upon a ministerial life he stood firm, and endured "as seeing him who is invisible." Difficulties were met and obstacles surmounted while he ever held fast his integrity and calm confidence in God. The doctrines and precepts of the Bible were to him fraught with tremendous significance, and he preached them with a fervor born of his unshaken belief in their reality. But the history of a good life cannot be compressed in this short notice. Enough to say that he is gone and that the savor of his good name yet remains. His consecrated dust sleeps on unmindful of praise or blame. Dangers cannot affright; sorrows cannot disturb; cares cannot afflict it. The casket is put away to rest unconscious of change and the wasting march of revolving centuries, but the jewel it contained has been transferred to glitter in the Saviour's crown. The seed has fallen into the soil of earth, but the flower blooms by the river of life, and grows in a land more blessed than this. The freed spirit rejoices in the vivifying influences of the upper sphere, and dwells content in the presence of its God.

It has passed in mystic transition to that eternal state, and there, in the midst of hallowed peace, tender whispering unswerving constancy; fadeless beauty, and deathless friendship, he bows low before the eternal throne, and

Ascribes his victory to the Lamb,
 His conquest to His blood.

It is well with him. We do not know the particulars of his last illness, but from his life we know his death was triumphant. He meets no more with his friends in the North Alabama Conference, but those who have stood side by side with him in his ministry, will hold sacred his memory, and rejoice that he fell in the work he loved so well and so long. Peace to his ashes, and the benedictions of heaven upon his stricken family.

J. C. B.
 Scottsboro, Ala., Jan. 22, 1879.
