Who was Samuel B. Kirby? Samuel Bowman Kirby was born January 16, 1848 in Marshall County, Alabama near Hillians Store, the son of Francis Marion Kirby and Mary Cowan. He was appointed postmaster there in 1867. In the 1870 census he is listed is a merchant working with his merchant father at Hillians Store. He operated a hardware store on the Scottsboro square in the early 1870s, a store remembered for the roller rink upstairs.

Kirby was an agent for the Wilson and White Sewing Machine Company. On August 30, 1875, he married one of the prettiest and most eligible young ladies of good family in Scottsboro—Miss Dovie Skelton, the daughter of James T. Skelton and Charlotte Scott, the granddaughter of Scottsboro founder Robert Scott. They moved almost immediately to Little Rock, Arkansas and built the home on South Louisiana Street.

Samuel and Dovie Kirby and sons about 1890

For seventeen years Kirby had been the traveling representative of the White Sewing Machine Company of Cleveland, Ohio, for Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, and the Oklahoma Territory. To Scottsboro history buffs, his home is known for the site of the disastrous snooping that Dovie did, reading her sister Annie's mail and exposing her affair with married Scottsboro banker John Ross. Dovie immediately telegraphed her brother Robert, and Robert and other siblings and cousins ambushed Ross and shot him at Stevenson Railroad Station, and were not convicted. It was a crime of honor. Dovie died soon thereafter.

Next Chronicles, look for photos and the story of the restored Kirby House in Little Rock and the family portraits and reunions that Tony has created, celebrating the families and the house he loves.

THE RINK! THE RINK!!

THE RINK over the Store of S. B. Kirby & Co., in Scottsboro, Ala., will be open on Mondays and Fridays at seven o'clock, and close at 10 o'clock, P. M.—

It is the purpose of the proprietors to adopt rules and regulations that will secure good order and decorum at all times; and all parties engaged in skating, or present as spectators, will be required to comply with these rules most rigidly.
no 39-tf. S. B. KIRBY & Co.

Alabama Herald Scottsboro, March 1872

From newspaper articles and Tony's "Samuel B. Kirby House" FaceBook page, I constructed the timeline below and pulled pictures from his FaceBook page. This is a poor substitute. I cannot capture the time and care he took in this restoration and the way he beamed when he showed the house to friends and family. Or his quirky, exuberant personality and the joy he found in reaching out to the descendants of the house's families. "It changed my life coming here," he told a reporter in 2005. "It really did."

Timeline

1887-78: Samuel Kirby and his wife Dovie build a grand residence at 1221 South Louisiana Street in Little Rock.

1894: Dovie reads her sister Annie's mail and discovers her sister's affair with a married man. She telegraphs her brothers, and they murder Annie's married lover.

1895: Dovie dies, survived by two young sons.

1896: Sam marries Fredrika Niemeyer

1905: Samuel B. Kirby dies. The house gets out of family control.

1958-1992: Kirby House is divided into five units and known as Clise Apartments.

Tony dreamed that one day his house would become a museum where people could learn more about genealogical research. We wait until Tony's estate is settled hoping his life's work survives.

"I don't know. You know, I've owned it a bit longer than Sam Kirby did. So I don't know. I really just don't know."
