WILLIAM CRABTREE OF CROW CREEK (FRANKLIN CO., TENN.)

William Crabtree was living "on Crow Creek" - local term still in use meaning in Crow Creek Valley - in 1824 when he signed a petition to change the boundary line between Franklin County and Marion County so that the petitioners would be included in the Franklin County bounds. (Original petition is in Manuscript Section, Tennessee State Archives, Nashville). It is likely that he arrived there between 1817 and 1820 from White County, Tennessee. He entered 100 acres of land on Crow Creek in 1820 on an "occupant claim," which, of course, meant that he was living there at that time. It is my belief that he is the same William Crabtree who was in White County in Calfkiller River Valley and was on the Tax Lists there from 1811 to 1815, on Jury Duty there in 1817, but not on the 1820 Census of White County. The 1820 Census of Franklin does not list him, of course, and the 1820 of Marion is missing. In Calfkiller Valley during the same decade are the following, all of whom came to Crow Creek Valley before 1830:

Joseph Crownover
 Joseph Crownover, Jr.
 William Crownover
 Hillsman King
 Benjamin Crownover
 Dorey (Theodore) Crownover

In the Crownover Family Records it is stated that two Crownovers married Crabtrees - Theodore and Joseph, Jr. It appears that Theodore married Martha Crabtree (opinion based on kinships discussed with older members of both families 1950 - 1965, but no positive proof). At this time it is not known which Crabtree that Joseph, Jr. married.

In the White County, Tenn., Court Minute Book 1814 - 1817, page 403, Tabitha Crabtree with William Crabtree and Joseph Connor (Crownover?) are appointed Administrators of the estate of Isaac Crabtree, deceased 1816.

Listed on the 1790 Census of South Carolina are

Ninety-six District:	Greenville County
	Isaac Crabtree	1m over 16	3m-16	5f
	Edgefield County
	William Crabtree	1m over 16	1m-16	4f
	Union County
	Daniel Crownover	1m over 16	1m-16	3f
	Joseph Crownover	1m over 16	5m-16	2f
	Benjamin Covenhover	2m over 16	5m-16	5f

It has been proved that the Joseph Crownover in Union County came to White County, Tennessee, and on to Franklin County. The William Crabtree of Edgefield County apparently is the William who filed a claim for Revolutionary War Service from Christian County, Kentucky, where he was visiting to secure witnesses to verify his War Service. He stated he was born in August of 1763 in Randolph County, North Carolina and lived there a short time after the War when he moved to Edgefield District, South Carolina. He mentioned that all his discharges burned in his brother's house in Edgefield District, South Carolina (brother not named). This William Crabtree had later lived in Houston County, Georgia, and Jackson County, Florida. He had traveled to Kentucky to see another brother, not named, but the brother had died. In 1853 Permelia Oglesby of Christian County, Kentucky, applied for his pension as his neice.

The above information is given as likely clues for further research.

Our William Crabtree and his wife, Margaret, were members of the "Primitive Baptist Church at the Forks of Crow Creek" - Mt. Gilead, as stated in the original Minutes of said Church 1837-65. Also he was an Elder for several years prior to his death on 1st of July 1846; his death is recorded in the Minutes of the Church - one of only two recorded. Mt. Gilead sent Messengers to the organizational meeting of the Mud Creek Association of Primitive Baptist Churches in 1821. So the Church was organized and functioning prior to that time. Minutes of Mt. Gilead Church prior to 1837 have not been located but are complete from 1837 on. This Church was located in Crow Creek Valley about 1/2 mile south of the state line, thereby being in Jackson County, Alabama. No gravestones have been found for William Crabtree or Margaret. However there is a Crabtree Cemetery - so-called - on Crow Creek, but the only marked tombstones are for William Rogers and wife, Polina. Parents of William Crabtree are not known. Margaret's maiden name is not known; some feeble clues exist that she may have been a Potts or a Rober(t)son, and one descendant insists that she was a Crownover. It is not known if William Crabtree had brothers or sisters, but I suspect that the Martha who married Theodore Crownover was his sister and that the wife of Joseph Crownover, Jr. was his sister. My record on his descendants is fairly complete and is accurate to the best of my knowledge, based on the resources quoted above. I have checked hear-say against Census and Probate Records; some dates are missing and may never be determined, some are missing that can be authenticated by persons reading this. I would greatly appreciate your sending to me copies of Crabtree Bible records or family records and will retain such copies as "insurance copies" for you, should your copy become lost or destroyed.

Eliza B. Woodall, 718 Crescent Road, Nashville, Tennessee 37205

In the following genealogy dates of birth given as c1818 are determined from Census records (which are none too accurate!); c1818 means circa 1818, or about 1818.

I cannot explain why children seem to change order sometimes from one Census to the next nor why people age less than, or occasionally more than, ten years between the Census-taking. Also in two or three instances the given name appearing in the Census is not the name the person carries in later years (for example, Ullis G., son of George W. Crabtree of DeKalb Co., Ga., was known only as Martin by his niece and his daughter-in-law, both living in 1969. He must be the same individual because they knew the order of birth of George's children.) Nor can I explain why the names of some children are missing from one Census - even when the children are quite young - only to appear in the next Census as over 10 years old!

ABBREVIATIONS USED

Ja. Co., Ala.	-	Jackson County, Alabama
DeK. Co., Ala.	-	DeKalb County, Alabama
Fr. Co., Tenn	-	Franklin County, Tennessee
c1817	-	circa 1817, or about 1817

My intent has been to compile as accurate an account as possible of the descendants of William Crabtree of Crow Creek. If errors are discovered by those reading the account, will you please notify me?

This record will be incorporated in a supplementary book on Crabtrees being compiled by Mrs. Margaret McProud, Box 133, Pecos, Texas 79772. Her first book is on the Crabtrees of Southwest Virginia and sells for $5.00. Our line does not connect with those given in her first book.

To each person who spent time, money, and/or effort in helping me I wish to express my sincere gratitude. An honorary copy of this record has been given to several people listed on the first page - "insurance copies" one might say.

Have a good time, Cousin, hunting out your line and joining on!

NEW MATERIAL

Mr. Charlie Stubblefield, No. 143 in this book, located the grave and tombstone of our William Crabtree. It is in an abandoned cemetery known by the old folks on Crow Creek as the "Crabtree Cemetery", located on the side of the mountain west of Crow Creek about one and one-half miles north of Anderson, Tennessee. Mr. Tom Hoosier owns the surrounding land. The inscription is hand-cut on the hand-hewn headstone. A large hand-hewn stone covers the grave. All the stone work is well-done, fits together quite well, and has suffered no damage and little deterioration. The inscription simply reads:

WILLIAM CRABTREE
BORNED DEC.22, 1779
DIED JULY 1, 1846

JOHN I. CRABTREE	110	10

The numbering system used in this book is an adaptation of that recommended by the National Genealogical Institute leaders. William Crabtree is no.1, his nine children are numbered 2 through 10. Only those descendants I have traced as having issue are assigned numbers. After the children of William Crabtree are numbered, (not knowing the issue of Zilla's children) I begin with Martin and follow his line as far as I have learned before going back to Mac H.

This numbering system enables one to determine relationship to William as follows:

		Martin	Mac H.	Mary Wells
	grandchild	11-14	35-43	295-302
	great grandchild	15-22	44-72	303-314

- ix. Thomas b. c1842 Missouri

3. MARTIN CRABTREE and Eliza (~~or Louisa~~) Jackson
 They are on the 1830, 1840, and 1850 Census of Franklin Co., Tenn. In 1853 Martin purchased 40 acres of land in DeKalb Co., Alabama from Thomas Me(t)calf and wife Matilda (Crowover). (Deed Book E, p. 2). Matilda was a first cousin to Martin Crabtree. Martin is on 1860 Census of DeKalb Co., Alabama. In 1863 he sold land in DeKalb to Rodolphus Davenport. Martin's oldest son, William, was married to Minerva Davenport of DeKalb Co., Alabama. On 1870 Census Martin Crabtree with wife Lurana are in Allison Mill District, Jackson Co., Alabama. In September of 1873 a marriage license was issued to Martin Crabtree and Hette Fruitt in Jackson Co., Alabama but there is no record that it was solemnized. Then on 3 Feb. 1876 Martin Crabtree was married to (Mrs.) Louisa Stevens and they are on the 1880 Census in District 13 (Sinking Cove), Franklin Co., Tenn.

49. OVIA VIRGIL CRABTREE was the son and eighth child of ZILLY ANN (CRABTREE) STEWART. He was born right after the Civil War, was reared by Zilly Ann's father, Mac Harrison Crabtree, and adopted the surname CRABTREE. He grew up in the Cumberland Mountains, about 25 miles from Winchester, Tennessee, at Crabtree Cove. He served on the County Court at Winchester, taught school, and was in the sawmill and watermill business there. He, with others, formed a lumber company and migrated to Alabama. He had sawmills at Stevenson in Jackson County, Alabama, and at Wedgeworth in Hale County; he also had sawmills at Crabtree and Taylorville in Tuscaloosa County.

In later years he became active in politics, serving as Road Commissioner in Tuscaloosa County. In the late 1940s he campaigned for his cousin Joe Money who was a candidate for Governor of Alabama.

O.V. Crabtree helped organize and was a Charter Member of the First Christian Church of Tuscaloosa. Later he joined the Baptist Church where he served as a Sunday School teacher and Superintendent of the Sunday School.
